

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 561: One Wife, Thirteen Concubines

Young Lady Pang was still angry. She suddenly rushed forward and pushed Xie Qiao back.

“I know there’s something wrong with the grave. Don’t worry about it! Get lost!” The girl shouted.

This sudden push made Xie Qiao stagger. Zhao Xuanjing quickly held her up.

“You know there’s something wrong with the grave?” Zhao Xuanjing asked with a frown.

Young Lady Pang’s face was solemn, but she was stunned when she looked up at Zhao Xuanjing.

Her expression instantly changed, and her rage disappeared. She became hesitant. “Something’s wrong, everyone said something’s wrong... But so many people have come to look at it, yet nothing that can be done. People will die, and if someone dies, they’d blame me...”

With that said, Xie Qiao understood.

“It must be because the evil energy that’s too strong. Ordinary feng shui masters can’t handle it, and they would even lose their lives,” Xie Qiao said to Zhao Xuanjing.

The old man also walked over and pulled Young Lady Pang to the side. Then, he said to Zhao Xuanjing, “Looking at your extraordinary background, I wonder... if you are going to perform a ritual? This place has nothing to do with you. Forget it...”

“The evil energy here is too strong. I don’t like it,” Zhao Xuanjing said casually.

Xie Qiao was also helpless. After all, she was meddling in other people’s business.

After thinking for a moment, she said to this person, “The feng shui formation in this place will definitely harm the wives and children. If I leave it alone, the evil energy will become stronger and stronger, and the impact will be even greater in the future.”

The resentment of the vengeful spirits would grow stronger as they were imprisoned for a longer period of time. Moreover, there were many other spirits that were about to become vengeful spirits.

When the resentful energy gathered, it would definitely cause great harm.

The old man sighed. “I was Master’s steward. After he passed away, Madam and the other concubines also met with mishaps. In the entire Pang family, only the Young Lady is left. I have been protecting the Young Lady throughout her life. When Madam left, someone in the residence sensed that there was something wrong with this grave. However, the feng shui master had disappeared long ago, and the masters we found later were not skilled enough. A few of them met with mishaps. Since then, no one has been willing to come. Taoist master, are you... confident? If not, it’s better for you to leave early. You’re not from the Pang family. It’s not good for you to stay here for too long.”

“Do you mean that the feng shui master plotted against the family?” Xie Qiao asked with a frown.

“Did feng shui master ask your Madam to be buried with living people?” Zhao Xuanjing asked with a cold face.

The steward’s expression changed at the mention of being buried with living people.

Young Lady Pang was also shocked. “What do you mean by being buried with living people?!”

Xie Pinggang raised his broadsword and placed it on the steward's neck. "Tell me the truth! Where did you get these people? How many were there in total?!"

Xie Qiao did not stop him.

Since the steward had stayed with the Pang family for so long, he must have been involved in this matter.

Even if he were to kill him immediately, there would be no regret.

The steward was frightened by Xie Pinggang and immediately knelt on the ground, "It's none of my business! It was Madam who did it!

"M-My Master was flirtatious... he had countless confidants. He married Madam more than 20 years ago and took concubines every year for several years. W-When he left, he had a wife and 13 concubines..."

Pang Xiyuan was fond of women, but he was also lustful of emotions.

All the famous local women had become his prey.

He did not force them, nor did he humiliate them. He had only relied on his own talent and appearance to make all the women to become his concubines willingly.

Among the 13 concubines, there were the beautiful daughters of merchants, the famous local talented ladies, and the singers who came after him from thousands of kilometers away...

He was very good at disciplining women. These women of all kinds actually enjoyed themselves in his residence.
