

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 593: Turning A Blind Eye

However, Zhao Xuzhi was shocked. The Crown Prince's taste was so unique.

All these years, the Emperor and Empress had wanted to choose concubines for him many times, but they had never succeeded once.

It turned out he was a loyal man.

Unfortunately, if the person he was interested in was the daughter of an official, it would naturally be a good thing. However, she was a Taoist master. It was fine that she a Taoist master, but she was so old. It was a different story.

However, although Master Mo did not have the looks of an unparalleled beauty, her temperament was indeed very different. She was also someone who could charm people. Even his father respected Master Mo, so it was normal for the Crown Prince to be charmed.

If this matter was spread, how would the Crown Prince still have any dignity?

The position of Crown Prince, the foundation of the country, was charmed by a demon!

How could Zhao Xuanjing be worthy of this position?

Zhao Xuzhi grinned sinisterly.

Immediately, he wrote a letter and sent it out by pigeon.

After doing all that, Zhao Xuzhi thought for a while and forced himself out of the door. He changed into a set of white clothes and asked someone to prepare some gifts for the Bai family.

He was dressed elegantly and imitated the Crown Prince's every move. He had 20% to 30% of resemblance.

At that moment, Pang Hanwei was sobbing as she applied ointment. Her face was swollen like a puffer fish.

Zhou Weizong was a martial arts practitioner. How could he be lenient when he was slapped by the Crown Prince's orders?

Of course, he used all his strength. Every slap was as if he wished he could slap Young Lady Pang to death.

"Young Lady, a person surnamed Zhao is here to look for you," the old man beside Pang Hanwei said.

The Bai residence was in a mess.

The old steward who used to follow Madam Bai had a new steward who raised Pang Hanwei. One of them was favored, and the other had connections and power in the residence. Pang Hanwei had only been back for a day, and they were already at each other's throats.

Unfortunately, Pang Hanwei still had many things to rely on Madam Bai's steward to guide her, so she could not lose any of them.

“Young Lady is now the head of the Bai family. It’s only the first day, and you’ve already been slapped and thrown on the street. It’s really terrible. Now is not the time to entertain guests. Young Lady, you’d better reject him.” The old steward earnestly advised.

Now, the entire Xun County was watching the Bai family!

However, this new master was terrible. Instead of visiting the various shopkeepers of the Bai family’s businesses first, she actually provoked a noble!

“Young Lady, that young master’s surname is Zhao,” the old man reminded her.

Zhao was the royal surname.

Pang Hanwei touched her face. She decided to listen to the old man. She nodded. “Of course I have to see him. Master Mo said that our incense business will fail. If I get the connection with the royal family, would our family still be worried about money?”

As she spoke, Pang Hanwei put on a veil and went to meet the guest.

Zhao Xuzhi waited for a while and finally saw Young Lady Pang walking over leisurely.

The moment Pang Hanwei saw Zhao Xuzhi, she was stunned.

When she went to meet the noble today, he happened to be eating. The way he held his cup and drank tea... was the same as the person in front of her.

Could it be that they were brothers?

That person was the Crown Prince. What about this one? A prince?

Pang Hanwei did not know the identity of the prince. However, when she saw Zhao Xuzhi's actions, which had the demeanor of the Crown Prince, and also had the same surname Zhao, she was secretly doubting.

She heard that the royal family had a Fourth Prince...

Could it be...

Pang Hanwei's heart raced and she sat down shyly. "Who are you, Young Master? I've never seen you before."

"I heard that Young Lady Pang was slapped by the Crown Prince today. I feel guilty and I'm here to apologize on behalf of the Crown Prince." Zhao Xuzhi continued, "The Crown Prince has not been lustful towards women all these years and he has Master Mo by his side. That's why he turned a blind eye to Young Lady Pang. Everyone knows how good you are."
