

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 597: Happy to Do So

Xie Pinggang's loud voice really gave Xie Qiao a big fright.

He paid no attention to that and hurriedly walked in. He knelt on one knee on the ground and cupped his fists with both hands. He looked like he was unstoppable. "Thank you, Your Highness, for your love! My Eldest Sister has always been fond of you, but I didn't dare to mention it because of the difference between heaven and earth. Now that Your Highness likes her too, it's better to get it done as soon as possible!"

Zhao Xuanjing's temples throbbed.

Xie Qiao's small face flushed, but it was not very obvious through the makeup.

She had always... been fond of him?

She was just admiring his face and figure, was she not?!

"Xie Pinggang, please behave." Xie Qiao really could not stand it anymore.

How pitiful was it to be in such a hurry to ask for a marriage?

After all, she was an expert. One would have to beg her to marry her!

“Master Mo, I understand what you’re saying. The Crown Prince is fond of you, and he doesn’t have too much affection for my Eldest Sister. Our Xie family has little requirements. Moreover, Master Mo, you are also a kind person, so... If you want to be the princess consort, then we are willing to do that. A princess consort and a concubine, it’s perfect. My Eldest Sister’s health isn’t good, so you just have to be a little more accommodating...” Xie Pinggang was going all out..

What was the point of holding back?

His eldest sister’s long-cherished wish was about to be fulfilled!

That girl kept muttering to herself, saying that the Crown Prince was good-looking in every way!

One day, while he was practicing with his broadsword, he heard Xie Qiao muttering to herself, saying that the Crown Prince would definitely look cool if he wore a sword on his waist!

She was already talking about his waist, what was there to be reserved about?

Thinking of that, Xie Pinggang could not help but secretly look down.

The Crown Prince’s waist was indeed straight, full, and not thick.

It was just right.

No wonder his eldest sister liked it. If he were a woman, he would like it too.

“What are you looking at?” Zhao Xuanjing raised his voice and frowned so hard that a mosquito could be squashed.

Xie Pinggang chuckled. "Your Highness is mighty and majestic. I think my Eldest Sister is really blessed!"

Xie Qiao wanted to raise her hand and hit him for buttering up the Crown Prince like that.

This pig sold her just like that. Forget it. She was his biological sister after all. Why did he not fight for the position of princess consort for her?

She had a short life. Was she not worthy of being a wife because of that?

Xie Qiao's mind was full of wild thoughts. It was chaos. However, her face had always been calm and composed, like an old pine tree.

Zhao Xuanjing was disgusted by Xie Pinggang's look, and he felt uncomfortable all over. "Minister Xie, you should settle the marriage soon. If you stare at me again, be careful to not have your eyeballs dug out."

Xie Pinggang laughed.

It was just a peek, he would not be unscrupulous...

"Yes, I'll make sure not to have my eyeballs dug out in the future!" Xie Pinggang was very respectful.

He was so respectful that... It was a little irritating.

Zhao Xuanjing looked at Xie Pinggang like that and thought about the future... With such a brother-in-law, he would be irritated quite often.

“Master Mo, please give me a straightforward answer.” Xie Pinggang had not forgotten about that, and his eyes were burning with excitement and eagerness.

Xie Qiao felt helpless all over. “Maybe your sister doesn’t want to get married like this?”

“Why not?”

“Why not?” Zhao Xuanjing and Xie Pinggang asked at the same time.

Xie Qiao’s heart skipped a beat, and then she said with a profound expression, “From what I see, the eldest daughter of the Xie family is a noble person...”

Before she could finish, Xie Pinggang sneered. “That’s because you don’t know my Sister. That girl... She stayed at the Taoist temple for a long time. She looks serious on the surface, but she’s actually not picky at all. She is broad-minded and has a sense of affectation.. She would be happy to do so.”
