

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 616: Too Late for Regrets

The moment they heard that Xie Qiao had returned home, they agreed to come over for a free lesson and some snacks.

“Lady Chun Er, your culinary skills are really good. Can I bring my cook over to learn a few things from you?” Fang Muxue reacted the fastest. Looking at the snacks in front of her, she smiled at Chun Er very kindly.

When the others heard that, they also looked over expectantly.

The maidservant beside Xie Qiao was also an extraordinary person!

She was good at making snacks and tea. She even knew how to brew wine!

The wine was fragrant. It was a pity that Xie Qiao only let them taste a little and they did not have the chance to drink more. They secretly thought it was really a pity.

“This is all taught by my Master. My skills are not considered good yet.” Chun Er smiled shyly. “It was not easy to obtain her recipe. This servant can’t teach it to outsiders casually...”

Hearing this, everyone could only sigh in disappointment, but they also understood.

These snacks’ recipes were indeed very precious.

They were just trying to ask.

“These snacks... Sister Xie can make them too?” Qin Liu grasped the key point. “Is there anything that your master can’t do?!”

“Anything she can’t do?” Chun Er tilted her head and thought for a moment, then said very seriously, “My Master knows everything. Even if she can’t, she will learn it very quickly!”

The corners of everyone’s lips twitched.

Was it not a little too triggering to say something like this?

Fang Muxue’s gaze landed on a pair of jade beads in Chun Er’s hand. She was startled. “Lady Chun Er, your jade bracelet is so beautiful. Is it a gift from Young Lady Xie?”

Xie Qiao was so generous to the maidservants?

The quality of each jade bead was great. Moreover, there seemed to be patterns carved on it. The carving should be pretty good too. It should be worth quite a lot of silver!

Chun Er’s face was full of pride. She really wanted to say that this thing was personally carved by her lady!

However, she also knew that she could not say much about carving and painting, so she just smiled and said, “My Master is very generous to me. This jade bracelet has been consecrated in front of a deity’s statue, and it can ensure safety and long life!”

At that moment, the group of people could not help but glance at the maidservants beside them.

In comparison, were they not a little stingy?

The group of people could not help but mutter in their hearts, thinking that when they returned, they would reward their maidservants with some... generous rewards.

It was fine if their talent could not be compared to Xie Qiao's, but if they lost in kindness too, then they would be useless in front of her!

Xie Qiao did not know that her friends had so many thoughts after she left.

At that moment, she saw Ms. Lu.

She was even shocked by the image of Ms. Lu.

Ms. Lu was wearing a set of old clothes. If it was in the past, she would not even glance at it. On her head, there was only a silver hairpin, and she did not wear any other jewelry.

When she left the Xie family, she took quite many things, did she not?

Ms. Lu was also at a loss.

She was just a little muddle-headed and wanted to come here to take a look. Now that she saw Xie Qiao, she felt a little ashamed. "Young Lady... I-I just came to see how you are doing."

"Pretty good." Xie Qiao's tone was indifferent. She did not deliberately target her nor was she particularly enthusiastic.

“I’m sorry for what happened in the past... It’s all my fault, it’s all my fault... I didn’t teach my child well...” Ms. Lu could not help but wipe her tears.

Xie Qiao watched quietly. She even ordered someone to refill a cup of tea for Ms. Lu.

Ms. Lu looked much friendlier now. However... she might not be at peace with her child. Xie Qiao guessed that she must have suffered some grievance from Pei Wanyue.

You reap what you sow. It was too late for regrets now, right?
