

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 620: Make Me His Father

This girl's voice was soft and gentle. Both men and women could not help but feel irritated when they heard it.

Xie Niushan felt that it was impossible for him to say that he did not feel anything when she touched his leg. He was indeed charmed, but when he looked at her pitiful face, his brows furrowed tightly.

However, Xie Qiao still provoked him, "Father, if you say that she looks like Lin Erniang again, I'm afraid that my Younger Brother and Sister will cut their ties with you."

Xie Qiao took her time.

Lin Erniang merely looked weak, but her character was not like that, right?

Back when her father robbed the mountain, Lin Erniang had once sought death. However, her father was a bandit at that time and was really a b*stard. How could he send back the woman he stole?

Moreover, this woman would not be able to live on if he sent her back, so he forcefully kept her by his side.

Later on, when the woman got pregnant, her father poured his heart and soul into her, so she did not think about leaving. However, even so, Lin Erniang was still depressed, so after giving birth, she passed away.

That was a truly strong woman, and this woman in front of her...

Could she be compared to her?

Was her father really blind?

With a thud, Xie Niushan kicked her to the side, "I see that you aren't thinking straight! I was going to think of a way to get you some money so that you could live a good life, but I didn't expect you to be so tactless! In this case... Steward, throw her back to her father!"

Unfortunately, he had lost his money!

He had already redeemed her. The government had already removed the files, so it was impossible to send her back to the brothel.

The girl looked at Xie Niushan in shock.

Before she could recover from the pain, the steward quickly called for help and immediately dragged her away!

He was afraid that if he was a breath late, this girl would make the old master lose his body.

He did not leave any chance to that.

Xie Niushan brushed his clothes with disdain. "Why are you looking at me?! Do you think I'm that kind of person who would just sleep with anyone?!"

Xie Qiao shook her head. "Father, you're not like that."

Only then did Xie Niushan snort with satisfaction. "I only helped her out because I genuinely felt sorry for her. Who would have thought that she would actually touch me... The daughter of a good family wouldn't behave like this. I'm not a fool. That procuress said that this girl was just sold to the brothel and hadn't even been trained. How could she be so good at serving others? Her little hand..."

He stopped halfway through his sentence.

Those words were not appropriate to say in front of his daughter!

This girl was pinching his leg, and she even scratched him twice. The way she looked at him did not seem like someone who had not been through a lot. Even if she was still a virgin, she must have been trained by someone for a long time. He had been deceived!

"Oh right, that girl from the Pei family is now Wen Lancheng's concubine." Xie Niushan thought that Xie Qiao did not know, so he added.

Xie Qiao nodded. "I know."

"That girl is really ruthless. She actually tore her own clothes in public. Fortunately, my godson immediately thought of making her a concubine. If the rumors spread out there for a few days, perhaps she would even become his wife!" Xie Niushan added.

"Godson?" Xie Qiao looked at him in surprise.

"That's right. I like Lancheng so much. He's obedient and sensible. He's much better than your Eldest Brother. Since he can't be my son-in-law, then he can be my godson. We've agreed to find an auspicious day for him to make me his father!" Xie Niushan was so happy that he could not stop smiling.

Xie Qiao really did not expect these two to be together.

They had completely different temperaments...

Thinking about it again, it was understandable. Wen Lancheng's temperament should be more gentle. Moreover, because the Xie family had saved his life, he would definitely do anything for her father.
