

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 644: Revenge

Yu Xian could not tell that Xie Pinggang was a fierce-looking man at all. In fact, she even thought that this man was very considerate.

“I used to live in a small shabby house. It is indeed... quite far from here. It would be best if I can stay here.” She did not refuse.

Xie Pinggang heaved a sigh of relief.

At first... He did not plan to let anyone stay in the residence.

However, he thought it would be better if he stayed there. He would have someone to practise his blade with.

He had no idea how much Xie Pinghuai, that piece of trash, could learn from this person. Therefore, before this person left, he had to squeeze him every day to learn his tricks.

The Xie Residence and the Lin Residence were not very far from each other, so Lin Yaxiang did not stop them.

“In that case, from now on, my family will be responsible for the food, drinks, and accommodation. I’ll have to trouble Aunt Lin with the monthly payment.” Xie Qiao smiled at Lin Yaxiang.

She knew that the Lin family always wanted to do something for the two children.

When Lin Yaxiang heard what Xie Qiao said, she was over the moon. "Sure, as long as Master lives comfortably."

As soon as Xie Qiao spoke, Xie Pinggang finally remembered her existence.

"Mr. Yu, my Eldest Sister is the future Princess Consort, so you should be more careful. If you accidentally bash into her, I will chop you up." Xie Pinggang glared at him again and reminded him.

Yu Xian actually never dared to look at women.

She knew that she was disguised as a man now, so after coming in, she tried her best to keep her head down. Even when she raised her head, she was also looking at Xie Pinggang.

Now that she was reminded by Xie Pinggang, she subconsciously took a glance at Xie Qiao.

When she looked over... she could not look away.

She was stunned.

This younger sister was really good-looking... Her skin was fair with a tinge of blush, and her facial features were like those in a painting. The most annoying thing was her charisma. She leaned against the railing. She seemed like she would be blown away when the wind blew, becoming an immortal with the wind!

"Your family members are really good-looking!" Yu Xian was eager to show her sincerity. She could not help but praise her.

The man was brave, and the woman was immortal-like. She had never seen anyone more beautiful than this family!

Lin Yaxiang and the Xie family's servants who stood by the side thought they had heard wrong.

This family?

Could she be referring to everyone, including the first young master?

This Mr. Yu might be very capable, but his eyes... something was wrong with that. Everyone knew that the first young lady was good-looking, but the first young master...

Tsk, it would be wrong to use the term 'good-looking' on him!

"You're also good-looking." Xie Qiao smiled, her eyes sparkled.

Xie Pinggang thought the two of them were full of treachery and passion.

"Behave yourself, there are people watching." Xie Pinggang rolled his eyes at Xie Qiao, but he was still worried, so he walked in front of her and he said in a low voice, "No matter how much I like him, it's impossible now. Who asked this guy to come one step late? Our family has already made an agreement with the Crown Prince. The royal family is powerful, so it's impossible for us to go back on our words."

Xie Qiao chuckled.

What did he know?

She simply liked the way Yu Xian beat up her eldest brother!

Her anger was vented! She had avenged her!

“Eldest Brother will spar with Mr. Yu every day from now on, right?” Xie Qiao’s expression was gentle as she said with great anticipation.

Yu Xian could not help but glance at Xie Qiao.

Why was she not her biological sister? Her little face and nose were really cute... The Crown Prince was really blessed. If it were her, she would be so happy to have a wife who looked like this...

The atmosphere in the courtyard was strange.

Even a fool could see the mutual admiration between Mr. Yu and the first young lady. They could not help but be moved.

Their hearts were beating fast. They thought the scene was too exciting and did not dare to watch them for too long. They were afraid that if they knew too much, they would lose their heads.

Xie Pinggang did not notice the others’ reactions. At this moment, he even carefully responded to Xie Qiao’s words, “I do want to practice with him, but I have been busy with a case recently, so I am only free early in the morning. I wonder if this guy can get out of bed...”

Actually...

Even if he could not, he would still think of a way to force Yu to get up and practice with him!
