

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 645: Save Her

Xie Pinggang had already made up his mind to make good use of Mr. Yu.

He even thought it would be a pity for such a powerful martial artist to only be a martial arts master!

In the future, he would learn more about this person's character. If he was an honest and sensible person, he could help arrange a lowly position for him. He could even send him to his father's military camp.

With this skill, he would be able to make a name for himself sooner or later!

Xie Pinggang patted Yu Xian's shoulder with his big hand and said, "Mr. Yu, the steward will take you to the side room in a while. If you need anything, just let me know. There's no need to be shy."

Yu Xian nodded and said, "Alright, thank you!"

However, she still had something to do today.

It was thanks to that Taoist master from before that she had good luck. Of course, she had to look for her today. If she could meet her, she would have to thank her properly in person.

After Xie Pinggang gave his instructions, he immediately went to the criminal division. Xie Qiao stayed behind and chatted with Aunt Lin before going to the academy.

Yu Xian introduced herself to the Xie family, then she quickly went out.

She went to the street yesterday and looked around. Unfortunately, she did not see a single shadow.

Yu Xian's heart was beating fast.

Her experience was very similar to what was described in the storybook...

When she was out in a desperate situation, she met a mysterious expert. That expert saw that she was simple and honest, so she specially gave her some pointers and then disappeared without a trace!

Once this thought got into her mind, she could not get it out of her mind.

She thought that she had traveled a long way and was really pitiful. The heavens must have sympathized with her, so they sent an immortal to give her pointers!

Thank you, immortal!

Yu Xian's heart was filled with gratitude.

Little did she know that the master was sitting obediently in the classroom, listening to Master Lu's lecture. She looked sleepy, but she was holding a brush in her hand and writing something.

The classroom was very quiet, and Xie Qiao was enjoying the class.

However, a ghoul suddenly floated out of the window. It was fuming all over and looked anxious. It rushed into the Orchid Courtyard, flew around, and said in despair, "Master?! Master! Help me quickly..."

She had gone to the Fortune Pavilion to ask for help, but the master was not in there.

Later, a ghoul mysteriously told her that the master actually had another identity. If she wanted to find her, she would come to the Orchid Courtyard of the Royal Academy.

However, the Yang energy of the Royal Academy was too strong. When she got close, her soul was trembling. She felt as if her whole body was burning, and she was in great pain.

Xie Qiao slightly raised her eyes and looked to the side.

Only she could hear the voice of the ghoul. Seeing that she had a reaction, the ghoul hurriedly said, "Are you the Master?! Master, Please, my daughter is in trouble! Save her! Save her!"

Xie Qiao frowned slightly.

This ghoul was a little silly...

She could save someone for her, but she should at least talk about what happened, right?

As for the ghouls who knew that she was Xie Qiao... She was not surprised. Some ghouls had strong observational skills and could fly around, so they would know more.

"Tell me more," Xie Qiao muttered helplessly.

Qin Liu was stunned for a moment. Seeing that Xie Qiao was looking elsewhere, she did not pay too much attention.

“My daughter didn’t go to the Gulan Academy today. She was at a weaving house with a girl. She was sent into a carriage with her mouth covered! She was taken away! I followed her all the way to the outside of the city. She’s now locked in a broken house near the Taoist temple outside the city. She’s very scared. I can’t do anything. I beg Master to save my daughter!” The woman said while enduring the pain.

Xie Qiao looked at her body that was emitting smoke. It was like a piece of paper that had been lit on fire. It was about to be burned entirely.

She gently pointed quickly and casted a talisman without a trace. She captured the ghou.
