

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 650: Not Having Her Infatuation Acknowledged

Xie Pinggang was extremely upset.

These two young ladies were too insensible, were they not?

They should at least say thank you before dying. No, if they wanted to die, they should go home to do it. Why were they dying in his hands?!

Young Lady Yuan was so scared that she did not dare to breathe, but Dong Yiyun lowered her head in shame.

Master Xie had saved her twice.

“You’re still young, but you sure have many plans in your head. Isn’t it better to live well than anything else? You did not even leave a legacy for your parents. Don’t you feel guilty about that?!” Xie Pinggang snorted.

Her sister was short-lived, but did she not pull through and live until now?

Xie Qiao nodded. “Master Xie, today’s matter concerns the reputation of the two young ladies. If someone asks you how the two young ladies are doing, I wonder what would you say?”

“What else should I say? Aren’t they doing fine?” Xie Pinggang said matter-of-factly.

They were only hit twice, but it was not severe. They did not die, right?

They were still virgins. When he kicked the door, that jerk had taken off his pants and showed his private part. It was just a piece of meat. It was not a big deal.

“If someone asks you if these two young ladies were...”

“Impossible. I saved them with my own hands. If this were to be spread, wouldn’t I lose my dignity?” Xie Pinggang was very direct. At this moment, he understood what Master Mo was trying to say. He said to the two young ladies, “Don’t worry. The people that I brought here are all tight-lipped. If anyone asks, I’ll get them to explain for you guys.”

They would tell people that they were lucky to be saved and no one was hurt.

That was how it was!

“Master Xie.” Dong Yiyun suddenly called out.

Xie Pinggang stood there. “What’s the matter?”

Dong Yiyun looked up at him and felt at ease. “Thank you so much. This is the second time that... you’ve saved me.”

Xie Qiao saw that there was light in this young lady’s eyes.

“Then you can ask your father to send me some gifts later. Make it a double. It’s not a big deal.” Xie Pinggang said calmly.

Xie Qiao was silent for a moment.

“Yes, make it a double. I’ll remember that.” Dong Yiyun nodded hurriedly. “But... if it were Master Xie... would you mind marrying a woman like me, who was almost bullied and whose reputation was almost tarnished?”

Xie Qiao could already hear the obvious hint in these words.

She praised this little young lady for her boldness.

“I wouldn’t mind that.” Xie Pinggang was speaking the truth.

Dong Yiyun felt her heart stop beating. At this moment, she could not help but smile and shed tears of joy.

He would not mind that.

Xie Qiao thought this young lady had probably misunderstood her eldest brother’s meaning.

She sighed.

A person’s fear included not having their infatuation acknowledged...

Not to mention that Xie Pinggang was a straightforward person, not knowing how to coax a woman, nor would he fall in love easily, even if he really wanted to get married...

It was probably not a good thing for the other party.

She had only managed to suppress her fate of bringing about a lethal fate to her family for so many years by inscribing many powerful talismans together with her master.

However, Xie Pinggang's fate could not be changed. Unless he met someone who was very compatible with his birth details and neutralized his fate. Otherwise, if he really married an ordinary lady, the other party would either die or be injured.

Xie Qiao was very hesitant. She was not sure if she should intervene now and let Xie Pinggang explain clearly.

However, she was also afraid that this Young Lady Dong would not be able to take it and would seek death in a while.

After thinking about it, she thought it was better for her not to say too much.

At this time, it was really inappropriate to make this young lady's situation worse.

She only reminded her, "Master Xie is a forthright person. Regardless of whether he likes the lady or not, he would not randomly make up insults. There are many men like him in this world. Young Lady Dong, protect your life well. You will definitely be blessed in the future."

After Xie Qiao finished speaking, she took a closer look at Young Lady Dong's face.
