

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 658: Hard to Explain

Zhou Weizong only saw two people dressed in clean clothes. Their faces were tense, as if they were being forced by him. They walked in helplessly.

His Highness and Master Mo... walked in unison. Their faces were identical, and they looked extremely cold and terrifying!

Yet, they braced themselves and walked in.

This group of gamblers were immersed in gambling. How could they pay attention to whatever that was happening around?

“Let’s do it here...” When they arrived at one of the gambling tables, Xie Qiao felt that she did not have enough air. She quickly took out her chicken feather fan and fanned herself. She felt slightly better.

It was not that she was being pretentious.

It was that her health was lacking and she had a higher requirement for air.

Moreover, although her sense of smell was not as good as a dog’s, it was still better than an ordinary person’s. Therefore, these smells were like poisonous fog to her!

Zhao Xuanjing frowned, as if he did not expect such a day to come.

He still had to protect Xie Qiao by the side with his stiff body, afraid that someone would accidentally push her.

At this time, Zhou Weizong could only be the villain. With a fierce look, he quickly opened a path for the two of them.

“You did great.” Zhao Xuanjing tried to be brief and praised Zhou Weizong.

At that moment, the troubles were finally relieved. There was no one pushing around, it was more comfortable.

The bet was made by the gambling house, it was just an ordinary bet. Xie Qiao looked at the ghoul.

“Go big, go big!” The ghoul flew around, his eyes were glued to the dice, he shouted after seeing it clearly.

In order to not lose money, the gambling house put something in the dice. Logically speaking, it was impossible to win, but the ghoul blew at it, trying to change the points.

After Xie Qiao relayed the information, Zhao Xuanjing put the silver on the “big bet” expressionlessly.

The other people at the gambling table also saw Zhao Xuanjing’s noble clothes at the moment. They were all well-behaved and did not dare to approach him.

Even a fool could see that among the three people, apart from the Taoist master, the other two must be rich young masters of some family. They came out to have fun. If they accidentally offended them, they would be in big trouble.

However, what made them feel strange was that this Taoist master... was also gambling? Could she be a swindler?

The ability of this Taoist master to swindle people was too high. Look at her. She had an unfathomable look on her face. Although she was a woman, she seemed to be an expert!

It was as if she could really foresee something. She was really great at scaring people!

While everyone was suspicious, the result was revealed.

The moment the dice was revealed, the surroundings of the gambling table fell silent!

This customer had bet a hundred taels of silver!

He had won the bet!

The person from the gambling house was stunned for a moment. He thought something was wrong. After all, the dice had been tampered with. If he wanted to go big, he could go big. If he wanted to go small, he could go small. How could it be...

However, this person's identity looked extraordinary. He did not dare to renege on the promise!

A hundred taels of silver became 200 taels of silver in the blink of an eye.

These gamblers did not have that much money in their hands, so they looked at them with envy. They even thought that they would follow this rich young master's luck wherever the three people placed their bets!

However, Xie Qiao and Zhao Xuanjing almost rushed out as soon as they got the silver!

Without any hesitation, they left.

“Phew...” Xie Qiao exhaled. “The smell is really...” It was hard to explain!

Zhao Xuanjing frowned and raised his hand slightly to sniff at his body. Then, his expression changed slightly. “You two wait for me at the restaurant. I’ll be back soon!”

Xie Qiao... was picky and careful with her image. He had a feeling that his body was tainted by the odd, rotten smell from the gambling house...