

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 659: Good and Evil

Xie Qiao did not think too much about it. There were quite many restaurants on this street. She found a random restaurant and sat down. Beside him, the ghoul had a satisfied look on his face.

“In the past, when I was alive, I spent a lot of money on this gambling house. Now, I’ve finally made it back!” Although he did not win the bet with his own hands, he was the one who decided the result!

This restaurant had a menu. It was not too expensive.

Xie Qiao ordered a table full of delicious dishes according to the ghoul’s wishes.

The waiter was a little confused.

“Madam... how many people are coming?” There were only two people at this moment? The dishes she ordered were enough for more than ten people!

“Just serve the dishes.” Xie Qiao took out a silver ingot and put it on the table.

“Yes, yes, yes! This is how it should be! I came to this restaurant when I was alive. That jerk looked down on me and was afraid that I wouldn’t pay for the food. He actually guarded me like I was a thief! That was too much!” The ghoul shouted!

“See? I have silver too!

“Now you’ll have to serve me well, don’t you?!” The ghoul sat in one of the seats and crossed his legs as if he was still alive.

The waiter saw the silver and said nothing. He immediately rushed to serve the dishes.

After waiting for a while, Zhao Xuanjing finally came back.

Xie Qiao looked up and was slightly stunned.

Zhao Xuanjing was wearing black clothes before and looked a lot more calm and indifferent. However, he was wearing an ice-blue robe with bamboo patterns embroidered on it. He looked more carefree now. She felt that the room was instantly lit up.

She wanted to get her hands on him.

Xie Qiao restrained herself for a moment and slightly looked to the side.

At this time, the waiter had already served the dishes one after another.

In a short while, the table was filled with dishes.

The ghoul floated on the table, pursing his lips and sniffing, looking like he was enjoying himself.

Usually, ghouls would not come to eat the dishes as long as they were not arranged in the manner as if they were offerings. Only some naughty ghouls would come over to make a scene and secretly sniff a few mouthfuls occasionally.

No one moved their chopsticks.

Zhou Weizong looked at the table full of dishes and his taste buds were tingled. He was eager to eat.

“Master... Can we eat?” Zhou Weizong had a curious look on his face.

Xie Qiao pointed at a fish head and said with a smile, “He has finished this dish. You can try it.”

Zhou Weizong hurriedly tried it.

“Bah!” He spat out the fish directly. “Why is there no taste at all?!”

“Because he has finished eating. If you eat again... it will be like chewing wax,” Xie Qiao explained faintly.

Zhou Weizong put down the bowl and chopsticks helplessly.

However, the three of them were out for so long and were hungry indeed. They ordered a few more dishes and placed them on the table next to them, eating slowly.

“Master, this ghoul... is an evil person. Isn't it bad for us to satisfy his wish so easily? Won't it affect the Crown Prince?” Zhou Weizong could not help but ask again.

“He's not the client,” Zhao Xuanjing said directly.

Zhou Weizong was stunned for a moment, then he remembered that the master was looking for the culprit who caught Young Lady Yuan.

“I’m responsible for solving the ghouls’ wish and sending them to reincarnation. I don’t care whether it’s good or evil,” Xie Qiao said lightly.

It was impossible for her to destroy the ghouls directly with a wave of her hand just because the ghouls did evil. It was too exhausting, and she would be crossing the line.

Whether it had done something wrong or not, there would be judgment in hell. It was possible whether he would suffer or have a terrible life in his next life.

As for her...

At most, she would have a worse attitude toward the evil ghouls that she looked down on without offering the nice, aftercare services.
