

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 676: Her Soul is Gone

Ms. Lu buried Pei Wanyue in a place in the suburbs.

She was crying as she burned the joss paper.

“Don’t even think about revenge. I will be fine. If you’re a filial daughter, you would hope that I will die peacefully...”

After Ms. Lu finished crying, she left with her husband who was holding her.

She no longer have a biological daughter now...

Behind her, in front of the new grave, a gust of cold wind swept past. The leaves in the air fluttered, and the flames on the ground shook.

Pei Wanyue floated in the air, feeling a little lost.

She followed behind Ms. Lu and floated into the city. After that, she floated as she looked at the familiar street aimlessly.

“Ding, ding.”

When she floated to the Eastern Street, she heard a pleasant sound. She could not help but follow the sound. When she looked up, she found it very strange. It was a death shop.

She remembered that in the past, this place was called the Fortune Pavilion. Why had it changed?

“I want Master to help me hand over all the money I hid to my Mother. I’d consider doing my filial duty as a son.”

“Are you going in or not? If you’re not, don’t block the way. Master doesn’t like us jumping up and down. If you break the rules, no one will help you.”

In order to respect the master, they tried their best to queue to go upstairs.

However, this soul did not move.

They could tell that the soul was new from her smell, so they did not argue with her.

“Where’s this place?” Pei Wanyue asked.

“This is a death shop. Master Mo is here to help us fulfil our wishes. However, you can’t be too greedy when you make a wish. If Master completes it, you must obediently leave. You must have some unfulfilled wishes, right? Think about it carefully. What do you need Master Mo’s help for?”

“Will... Master do anything for me? H-How about killing someone?” Pei Wanyue quickly asked.

“Kill someone?!” Many spirits turned to look at her.

“Did you die unjustly? Were you killed by someone, or did you do something wrong and die on your own?”

“It is possible to kill someone, but the prerequisite is that the other party must be a very evil person. Do you have any evidence? You can’t lie to the Master. She’s very powerful. With just a simple calculation, she can tell your situation clearly. If you lie, she might capture you by force!”

Pei Wanyue buried her head.

Then, she obediently queued and went upstairs.

When she finally reached the upper floor, she saw the master.

The master’s eyes were fixed on her.

Xie Qiao looked at Pei Wanyue and felt helpless. She was already dead, yet she still refused to leave. She had never seen such a stubborn person!

When she was alive, she was competing with her. When she was dead, she was still competing with her. What was wrong with her?

Pei Wanyue paused and ran away in the next moment.

She heard that Master Mo and the Crown Prince knew each other. What if she figured out that she was killed by the Crown Prince? What would she do then?! She would just capture her, right?!

No, she would only reincarnate after taking revenge.

She would go straight to the Xie Residence.

Xie Qiao frowned, but she was not in a hurry.

Pei Wanyue was just an ordinary ghoul. Although she had resentment, she was not a particularly powerful ghoul. She would find her sooner or later, and she would not be able to escape.

She slowly registered all the ghouls that day.

When she returned home at night, she indeed found Pei Wanyue floating outside the Xie Residence.

Xie Qiao alighted from the carriage. Pei Wanyue immediately rushed over as if she wanted to strangle Xie Qiao to death. Xie Qiao suddenly looked in that direction.

“Go to hell! Go to hell, Xie Qiao!”

Xie Qiao did not move at all. There was a hint of a mocking smile on her lips.

The moment Pei Wanyue’s hands grabbed Xie Qiao, her entire body started to smoke. Xie Qiao took this opportunity to take out a small bottle and splashed the talisman water inside at her.

In an instant, her soul was gone.

The other spirits that had accidentally floated past the Xie family trembled and disappeared without a trace.
