

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 718: That Heartless Man

“This matter... was quite frightening. It was said that there was a woman in the capital who had difficulty giving birth. The baby would not come out. The in-laws then cut open the woman’s womb and took the child out. However, the moment the child was born, the in-laws discovered that it was actually a pair of baby girls that were connected together. They were quite frightened, and the babies died after crying for a while...”

“It’s so pitiful to lose the life of a pregnant woman for nothing. The servants talked about it and Madam accidentally overheard it. At that time, she felt very sympathetic, but she was also afraid that something might go wrong when she gave birth. She couldn’t sleep well for a few days, so this old servant kept her company,” the granny told the truth.

“However, after all, it was something that happened by chance. They don’t even know who the pregnant woman was.”

After the granny finished speaking, Yan Ruzhuang asked her to leave.

Then, she looked at Xie Qiao anxiously.

“Master, will the granny’s words be of any help to my mother’s illness?” Yan Ruzhuang was very worried.

Master Yan was a little confused. He did not expect that such a person actually existed.

It was just that...

This person had no relation to his Yan family at all, right?

Even if she died horribly, she should have looked for someone else to seek revenge. Why did she look for his wife?!

Xie Qiao stared at the ghoul. "Your children were innocent, and so are you. But Madam Yan has no enmity with you. Why did you harm her?"

Xie Qiao could not figure it out either.

The ghoul's mouth was wide open. She was full of resentment. Although she was not a vengeful spirit, she was close to it.

She just refused to get out of Madam Yan's body.

She ignored Xie Qiao.

Xie Qiao was upset.

"I've shown you mercy." Xie Qiao's voice was solemn. She picked up a whole stack of talismans and threw them out. "I'm asking you a question. Answer me properly!"

The ghoul shrieked, "It's none of your business. Go away! D*mn Taoist master!"

Xie Qiao chuckled. "I saw many weak, unconscious ghouls in the courtyard. These ghouls should be children who died when they were born, right? Are there any of your children here?"

When she said this, the spirit's expression changed.

"My daughters! My daughters died so tragically!

"They were not connected at all! They lied and caused my children's death. They deserve to die!" The spirit suddenly broke down.

Madam Yan could not bear such a strong evil energy and fainted.

"I can help you." Xie Qiao's gaze was firm. "The reason why the little ghouls here have not gone down to reincarnate is because they're too weak. They're hovering here and there. Sooner or later, they will be finished. I can help you. Put them away and raise them. Send them to reincarnate so that their souls will not be scattered."

The ghouls were moved when they heard that.

Master Yan was a little dumbfounded.

He understood these words individually, but when they were put together, why could he not understand them?

What ghouls? What reincarnation?! Who was Witch Mo talking to?!

"Can you really... help me?" The ghouls did not believe it.

"Tell me first, who harmed you? I might be able to avenge you." Xie Qiao pointed at her stomach.

The ghouI actually started howling at the top of her voice, "That heartless Bao Lunsheng! I was married to him for seven years and couldn't bear a child. He would either beat or scold me! I finally got pregnant, but he didn't take care of me. I couldn't eat or sleep well. In the end, I had a difficult child birth!"

The ghouI cried and explained everything to Xie Qiao word by word.

Bao Lunsheng was the ghouI's husband, but he was not the one who cut open her stomach.

Bao Lunsheng had an aunt. She was a midwife, and she was famous.. Her skill was great, so the Bao family respected her very much
