

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 719: The Whole Story

Bao Lunsheng never had a son, so his aunt who was also a midwife was worried about her nephew.

When the niece-in-law was giving birth, she would personally watch over the situation and deliver the child.

Although the midwife was capable, she was rational when she delivered other people's babies, but how could it be the same for her to deliver a relative's baby?

She ignored the mother and only thought about the child in her belly. Due to the difficult labor, she could not come to a decision for the time being.

If she continued to let the mother exert strength, even if she gave birth to the child, the mother would not be able to bear it. It was very likely that she would bleed to death and the child would be suffocated.

In the eyes of the midwife, this niece-in-law was no different from a dead person.

She said in the mother's ear that she wanted to save her child!

As there were two children in her belly, even if they gave up on the mother, it was probably only enough to give birth to one child.

However, the ghoul actually agreed at that time. She also wanted her child to live well.

She thought that the midwife wanted to give birth to the child, but she did not expect to deliver the baby through incisions.

The children were taken out alive.

At that time, the mother died, but after the children were born, it was a pair of girls. It was not what the family wanted at all.

Bao Lunsheng, the aunt, and the mother looked at them and despised them. It would be very tiring to take care of the twins. They did not have the energy and money to do so. They were young and Bao Lunsheng was worried that they would delay him from marrying the next wife, so they simply... drowned the two girls.

To the public, it was said that they were conjoined and that they would not live long after they were born.

This ghoul's heart was filled with hatred.

She had too many enemies. Her husband, her in-laws, and the aunt...

However, because the midwife said in her ear that she wanted to help her give birth to a child, she became one of the masterminds behind the children's death. She felt even more resentful. She did not know why, but she was attached to the sharp weapon and scissors that the midwife carried with her.

The midwife later came to the Yan family to stay for a long time, waiting for Madam Yan to give birth.

Women giving birth was like walking through the gates of hell. Her body would be weak, her spirit was unstable, and her spirit points were opened.

It was easy for misfortunes to happen.

Although the midwife was affected by the vengeful spirit, as she was not the only one delivering the child, nothing happened to Madam Yan in the end and she successfully gave birth to a daughter.

The midwife did not perform well and left with the money in a muddle-headed manner. She left behind an item in the Yan Residence.

It was the scissors that had cut off the umbilical cord of many babies.

Although that item was stained with many lives, it was also stained with the evil energy of many babies that had died young. Many small spirits that were too weak to reincarnate lived in the scissors and hovered in the courtyard.

Even the spirit of the pregnant woman was the same.

She had followed the pair of scissors here, and now she was stuck in the Yan Residence.

Madam Yan was initially going to be fine, but because of her poor physical condition and the many filthy things that had entered the house, she would occasionally see some strange things and feel that something was not right.

This made things even more wrong, and the pregnant woman was also jealous of Madam Yan.

They were both women, but why was she cut to death while giving birth to her children? Meanwhile, Madam Yan's husband loved her, and she gave birth to a child!

Since being a ghou, there was still resentment in her. Even if she was initially kind, it was inevitable that she would get into a difficult situation. She could not help but want to be jealous and harm others.

Once that thought appeared, it was deeply ingrained in this ghoulish and could not be erased.

Thus, she followed around Madam Yan.

Her children were hovering in this courtyard, and she was also there, protecting them every day.

As there was more dark energy in this place, there would be some lonely spirits around to join in the fun.

This way, it would have an even greater impact on Madam Yan.

When Madam Yan was awake, it should be when this ghoulish was far away. However, once this ghoulish approached, the resentment would affect her and she would almost be possessed. She was like a person with bad eyesight who saw a ghoulish again.

She could not see clearly but she knew how terrifying her surroundings were.

She was tortured every day.

However, normal people could not see it. After a long time, she could not take it anymore. She became irritable and snapped easily. She could not be triggered.
