

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 734: You Guys are Fighting? Go Ahead!

When Xie Pinggang finished speaking, Xie Pinghuai was dumbfounded.

Was Xie Qiao... going to die of anger?!

“That can’t be... Eldest Brother, you’re lying. Eldest Sister’s health is quite good now, and she’s coughing less...” Xie Pinghuai asked in a daze.

Then, he looked at Yu Xian.

He did not believe his eldest brother. He would rather listen to his master.

Yu Xian looked at Xie Pinghuai’s pleading gaze and thought for a moment, then she checked Young Lady Xie’s breathing and looked at her face.

She was also a little flustered. “I-I don’t know how to treat a patient, but Young Lady Xie’s breathing is really, really weak... Moreover, her face is very pale. It’s scary, and her hands are especially cold... What’s wrong with Young Lady Xie?”

With that said, Xie Pinghuai immediately pounced on her. “Eldest Sister! Eldest Sister, wake up!

“What are you angry about?! Isn’t it just a shabby house and a few crickets?! I’ll return it to them. I don’t really want it!” Did he not accept the gift out of the principle that it was given to him for free?!

Up until now, he had never played with the crickets!

“Ask the steward to come over. Let’s prepare for a funeral.” Xie Pinggang’s face was cold. Then, he asked the maidservant to come over and help Xie Qiao back to the house.

It would be a funeral, but it was not for Xie Qiao.

“What funeral! Eldest Brother! Hurry up and call the doctor. My sister is still alive. She’s not dead yet!” Xie Pinghuai was anxious.

He knew that his eldest brother was a man of his word. If he really got someone to hold a funeral, he would really disregard his eldest sister’s life and bury her in a coffin!

Xie Pinggang’s face was cold. “What’s there to save? If she’s alive, she’ll be angered to death by you. Moreover, if we really go to break off the engagement, our lives will be gone. We might as well let her die tonight. After she dies, the engagement will naturally be gone as well. We don’t have to worry about you causing more trouble.”

That was not the case. He could not do it this way!

“Xie Pinggang! What are you talking about? That’s my eldest sister!” Xie Pinghuai jumped up in rage, pointing at Xie Pinggang and cursed.

Xie Pinggang chuckled, then he said to Yu Xian happily, “Look at this useless piece of trash shouting at me. He can’t even beat me in a fight, so what’s the use?”

“Give me a break. Your eldest sister doesn’t have a long life to begin with. What’s the difference between dying today or tomorrow?” Xie Pinggang said calmly, “Alright, you should get ready too. In a while, cry a few more times in front of your eldest sister’s coffin to show your sincerity.”

Yu Xian frowned.

After thinking for a while, she thought Xie Pinggang was probably educating his younger brother.

However, this method... was a little strange, and she had never seen it before.

Nevertheless, it was inappropriate for her to interfere when someone was educating his younger brother, so she nodded obediently at the side.

She was still a little worried about Young Lady Xie. This lady's body seemed to be really weak. Were they really not calling a doctor for her?

After being provoked by Xie Pinggang, Xie Pinghuai picked up the large blade beside him directly and hacked at him.

Xie Pinggang would not let him off easily.

Not long after, the two brothers started fighting.

Rather than saying that they were fighting, it was more appropriate to say that Xie Pinggang was torturing Xie Pinghuai significantly. His attacks were not particularly ruthless, but every slash landed on Xie Pinghuai's skin. His skin was torn and some flesh was cut. Not long after, Xie Pinghuai's body was already covered in a few wounds. It was a shocking sight!

When Xie Niushan returned, he saw it too.

He raised his eyelids and said, "You guys are fighting? Go ahead. I'm going to rest."

In the blink of an eye, he left without stopping them.

Yu Xian initially thought that the two of them were just fighting for fun!

However, it was still going on now that there was blood. It was a little scary!

However, she could also see that Xie Pinggang had no intention of killing him at all. Otherwise, his younger brother would have been gone long ago!
