

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 767: Didn't Listen to Her Advice

In the end, Dong Yiyun chose to get her sister to stand up.

Dong Xiyun repeatedly acknowledged her and kept saying that she knew she was wrong.

Dong Yiyun had been shocked and tired all day and felt a huge weight lifted from her heart. Thinking about what happened today, she thought it was a blessing and a curse... For a moment, her feelings were very complicated.

However, the moment she left, Dong Xiyun's gaze turned cold.

She believed that the Fourth Prince would look for her sister because of her. However, she did not believe that her sister would speak well of her in front of the Fourth Prince!

Ever since the incident with Yuan Lingyin, this sister had always treated her indifferently. Moreover, why did the Fourth Prince still not come to look for her after that?

It was probably because her sister had said many bad things to the Fourth Prince, right?!

She wanted to stay in the capital and get married successfully?

It was impossible.

That Xie Pinggang actually personally betrothed her and did not care about what happened to her at all. It was clear that he was also captivated by her younger sister's beauty.

Her sister was behaving now, but what might happen in the future? If she secretly collected evidence and turned the tables on her in the future, would all her hard work not be in vain?

...

Xie Pinggang was a man of his word. He remembered his promise when he returned home.

He stood in front of his father and said, "Ask the matchmaker to go to the Dong Residence tomorrow to propose the marriage. I accidentally tore her clothes today."

Xie Niushan frowned. "The person who raped her at night..."

"It wasn't me. Who knows which little thief it was? But it's not a big problem, as long as I don't have to raise someone else's child." Xie Pinggang did not care.

It was just a marriage engagement. He quickly changed the invitation and skipped all the steps that could be skipped. Then, he arranged the marriage to happen within two to three years. The young lady could go back on her words in between. He only wanted to solve the urgent problem first.

Now that he was on the Crown Prince's side, he could not give others the chance to attack the Crown Prince.

If he did not want to marry, others would think that he relied on the Crown Prince's favor to harm the young lady. It would be terrible.

"Alright then, I'll get someone to do it." Xie Niushan was very calm.

He had already married three times. What was so strange about that?

Everything moved fast on the Xie family's side.

The selected date, names, hour and registrations were done within a day. The reason why they were so fast was because they wanted to avoid some unnecessary rumors.

The Dong family could not wait to get rid of their daughter as soon as possible.

Now, anyone who was passable would definitely not take a fancy to his daughter. Who else could he give her to other than the Xie family?

Dong Yiyun was in a daze. She was nervous, happy, and felt that her innocence was ruined. She did not deserve it.

The young lady was too naive. She had forgotten what the master said.

Xie Qiao only found out about it on the second day of the engagement. When she heard Fang Muxue mention it, she was shocked.

Xie Pinggang, that idiot, was engaged?!

Did she not ask Dong Yiyun to seek refuge within three days?!

Xie Qiao frowned and felt helpless.

She could not believe that someone would not listen to what Master Mo had said. Was she taking her own life as a joke?!

Xie Qiao's face was full of worry. When Qin Liu saw her like this, she thought that it was because she did not like her sister-in-law, so she comforted her, "Dong Yiyun is different from Dong Xiyun. She's more lively and kind. She went to school at the Gulan Academy and has a good relationship with people. If you are worried, I will take you to meet her. You and this future sister-in-law should be able to get to know each other better."

Xie Qiao shook her head. "I know. This Second Young Lady Dong is naive. I've met her."

She was just a little naive and foolish.

Be her sister-in-law?

She probably would not have the fate to do so...

Dong Yiyun was currently in the midst of a calamity. At that time, she had clearly calculated that Dong Yiyun's fate was already on fire. To her, Xie Pinggang was her jinx this year. If she wanted to get involved with him, that would be adding fuel to the fire! He would really burn her to the bone.. Why did this foolish lady not listen to her advice?!
