

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 769: He Must Be Mourning, Right?

Qin Liu was dumbfounded. She had thought that Xie Qiao would blame her brother for hitting someone, but she did not expect that she thought he was not good enough!

“Your brother seemed to have red eyes when he hit someone. He looked as if he had suffered a great grievance. Others have said that they don’t know what kind of outrageous thing Qi Huai did to provoke your brother to do that.” Qin Liu was extremely curious.

She was interested in everything in the academy and there was nothing she did not know.

Xie Pinghuai was different from the others. He was completely impervious. She did not know how much punishment he had received from Teacher Xiao, but his attitude had never changed. He had always been thick-skinned and indifferent!

She heard that many strands of Teacher Xiao’s hair had fallen off!

How could such a brat be bullied by Qi Huai and cry?

It was clearly abnormal!

Unfortunately, she could not go to Second Young Master Xie and ask him why he was crying...

“Crying?” Xie Qiao raised her eyebrows and then smiled. “He must be mourning, right?”

Qin Liu was puzzled.

She was about to ask more, but the teacher came to class. She immediately behaved.

At the moment, Xie Pinghuai was kneeling in Teacher Xiao's courtyard. While kneeling, he also had to recite poems.

In a fight in the academy, regardless of whether they won or lost, they would inevitably be punished.

Qi Huai's teacher only punished him to copying articles, but Teacher Xiao was much stricter. He had to kneel these few days.

"Junior brother, why did you do that? That Qi Huai is a little vicious with his words, can't you just ignore him? How can a gentleman fight with a villain? You would've made yourself into a villain too, causing others to talk behind your back." As the first senior brother, Chu Jian looked at Xie Pinghuai, still unable to understand.

Taking Teacher Xiao as a master, how exciting and proud was that?!

Only this Xie Pinghuai was unconvinced and dissatisfied in every way.

However, the punishment this time... seemed to be different from before.

In the past, he would always shout and talk about resistance, but this time, he was obedient and did not say a word!

It was really strange.

Xie Pinghuai did not say a word and was extremely silent.

Teacher Xiao looked outside and was a little puzzled.

Especially...

Looking at the homework that Xie Pinghuai handed in this time. He felt a little uneasy.

The handwriting was indeed Xie Pinghuai's, but the degree of seriousness was like a completely different person. The handwriting was neat, the pages were clean, and all the homework was actually completed!

He had taken two days off before, and he was injured when he returned...

Could it be that the Xie family members had hit him to teach him a lesson again?

Using force to punish him actually had such a miraculous effect?

Teacher Xiao was confused, and his gaze faintly looked at his precious ferule.

"Junior brother, what happened? Tell me! I'm not afraid of that Qi Huai. I can stand up for you!" Chu Jian was very loyal. He was originally a gentle person, but now he was anxious.

In the past, he did not like Xie Pinghuai, but since they were both disciples, they were almost like blood brothers. They had to take care of each other.

"It's none of your business." Xie Pinghuai suddenly spoke as if his words were gold.

Chu Jian thought it was very serious. “But what happened at home?”

When he said that, Xie Pinghuai’s eyes turned red again.

Chu Jian thought about it. Based on his understanding of Xie Pinghuai, this kid... did not care about many people. There were even fewer people who often talked about him. Other than scolding Xie Pinggang, he only mentioned Young Lady Xie.

However, he had not heard anything about Young Lady Xie?

She was the Princess Consort.. If something really happened, everyone would get the news.
