

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 771: Doing Something Vicious

The heavens pitied him. This annoying junior brother had finally gotten over it. He was suddenly enlightened now?!

Chu Jian was very excited. He probed, "Since you want to return things... the small jade horse sculpture that you took from me earlier..."

Xie Pinghuai's footsteps paused.

He thought for a moment and nodded. "I left it at home. I'll give it to you tomorrow."

Eldest sister did not like him taking other people's things.

It would not matter if he would not have it. He did not want it anymore!

Chu Jian clapped his hands. "There's no need! I'm willing to give it to you now!"

Why would he still want the jade horse sculpture?

The quality of the jade was not good. It was just that the carving skills were not bad. He was just playing with it. Now that Xie Pinghuai's attitude was like this, as his senior brother, he had nothing more to ask for!

After returning, Chu Jian immediately told Teacher Xiao that he was happy to tell him about Xie Pinghuai's situation.

Teacher Xiao was also shocked. After seeing him return, he actually kneeled obediently and recited the book. He really did not slack off and pull any tricks. He was extremely gratified in his heart!

“Your grandmaster is coming soon. Previously, I was still thinking that with your junior brother's attitude, he might be kicked out of the sect after seeing the grandmaster. It's better to educate him first. I didn't expect him to grow so much overnight. If he can maintain this respectful and obedient appearance, then you and your senior brother can go and pay respects to the grandmaster.” Teacher Xiao sighed emotionally.

In fact, he was even more afraid that his master would think that he had bad taste and disrespected him after finding out that he had accepted such a useless disciple, and that he might chase him out as well...

Now, he could slightly relax his tense heart.

However, they still felt strange that Xie Pinghuai had inexplicably become better.

They were worried that he would reveal his true form in a few days.

They were ready to wait and see again.

Xie Qiao's pair of siblings were both abnormal.

Xie Pinghuai suddenly became diligent, but Xie Xi was completely different. She had become much livelier in the past two days. When she arrived at the academy, she even took the initiative to sign up for the music class. She spent almost all her time there!

There were not many people in the music class. The girls from aristocratic families almost never came to learn singing skills. They thought it was not suitable for their status. They only came occasionally to learn a few Buddhist songs.

However, Xie Xi was different. She stayed in the music class, singing all kinds of lyrics and tunes!

She would not stop even when her voice became hoarse.

However, many people thought Xie Xi had been bored for a long time, so she suddenly had more interest. They did not think much. There were a few young girls, they were happy to listen to Xie Xi singing. They even thought she sang well!

After Xie Xi finished singing, she did not run around. She obediently went home. She was quite sensible.

...

Although Xie Qiao stayed in Fortune Pavilion, she had to ask about her eldest brother's engagement.

Therefore, when she left the academy, she made a trip to the criminal division and met Xie Pinggang.

When Xie Pinggang saw her, he had guessed the reason, so he said straightforwardly, "That young lady's clothes were torn by me in broad daylight. I just accepted it casually. In the future, if I think it's not suitable, I will withdraw. It's not a big deal, so I didn't inform you beforehand."

"Eldest Brother, I... my senior aunty, Master Mo, told her fortune. I'm afraid that something bad will happen to her..." Xie Qiao looked at him and said.

She could not stop this kind of thing.

If a person was unlucky, even drinking cold water would make her teeth hurt!

Young Lady Dong did not live under her nose. How could she protect her at all times?

“Something bad will happen?” Xie Pinggang was surprised. “Isn’t she unlucky enough? Did this girl do something vicious at home? Isn’t her fortune too slim?”

He felt sorry for her? That was not the case.

He thought he was quite polite.. He saved her life and helped cover up her reputation. However, if she was still unlucky, she could not blame him, right?