

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 785: What's Different

The boss had always been polite to others. Even if she met some insensible and aggressive customers, she had always maintained a good demeanor and would never be so cold and direct.

This young lady had probably offended the boss quite badly?

Look, she had even angered an unfathomable master to the point of shamelessness.

He was quick to use his hands. He immediately grabbed the person, flipped her over, and pinched her two arms, causing Dong Xiyun to be unable to move.

Dong Xiyun was very angry. "What are you doing! Aren't you afraid that I will report you to the officials? I am the daughter of an official of the imperial court. How dare you be rude to me in broad daylight!"

She spoke as if she was the only daughter of an official of the imperial court.

Xie Qiao pursed her lips. "Be obedient and don't move. It will be quick."

Xie Qiao's hand, which was stained with cow's tears, pressed against her eyelids.

Her precious cow's tears were almost used up. Where was she going to find that old cow who loved to cry even after a lifetime of hard work?

“What are you doing?! If you dare to poison me, I won’t forgive you!” Dong Xiyun really did not expect that this witch would be so rampant!

She did not bring a maid servant with her when she went out today. Now, the witch was allowed to do as she pleased and could not resist!

Could it be that she was going to die here today?!

Dong Xiyun was in despair. Her eyelids turned cold. The short moment was extremely long for her!

After doing all that, Xie Qiao smiled gently. She took out the talisman water and sprayed it at her.

“This is the retribution for your viciousness. I’ll give you a wonderful feast. Your sister is so pitiful. How can I watch her by myself? You’ve soiled my eyes and scared my weak heart. You’ll have to be her company,” Xie Qiao said. She pursed her lips and smiled gently. “Shopkeeper Chang, send this lady to the carriage.”

Shopkeeper Chang did not understand.

What happened?

He thought the boss was going to slap her. He did not expect that she would just tap her eyelids and then spray talisman water on her?

The boss was indeed an expert. Even when she was angry, she looked so harmless.

Shopkeeper Chang hurriedly nodded and pushed her to the carriage outside.

Xie Qiao stood at the door and waved at the carriage. "I wish you good luck."

"Crazy!" Dong Xiyun hurriedly rubbed her eyes. "Coachman, go to the medicine hall! Hurry up!"

She was really unlucky today!

Dong Xiyun was no longer as reserved and gentle as a lady from a rich family. She was impatient and did not look easy to deal with. As for Xie Qiao, she was still calm and did not seem to be affected.

She would have to release Second Young Lady Dong's soul, but she had to satisfy her.

With Second Young Lady Dong's resentment, she definitely would not go with her willingly. If she was full of resentment, she might suffer a lot down there. If she could not even get in the queue for reincarnation, would it not be a pity?

Thus, she vented her anger on her first.

"Boss, what did you tap on her eyelids just now?" Shopkeeper Chang was very curious.

"Cow's tears, let her have a look at it," Xie Qiao replied.

"Cow's tears? I've heard of that. It's said that one can see ghouls after applying it, right? If it's really that magical, this humble one would like to give it a try," Shopkeeper Chang could not help but say.

Xie Qiao stopped in her tracks. "You wish. It's very rare."

Shopkeeper Chang was a little helpless. "Boss, is this kind of thing really useful?"

“You actually don’t believe it?” Xie Qiao frowned. “You’ve been in the Fortune Pavilion for quite a long time, but you haven’t felt... anything different?”

Did he think that she went upstairs every day just to slack off?

“There’s nothing unusual...” Shopkeeper Chang did not quite understand what the boss meant.

The boss knew feng shui, and she was also good at inscribing talismans, but he did not know exactly what was good about it. It was just that it was more popular than the things sold in those Taoist temples. Other than that... There was nothing else, right?

What did the boss mean by asking that?
