

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 789: Lunatic

Dong Xiyun wanted to leave. She did not even resist the coachman's pull.

However, she did not have any strength left. Fear and disgust made her legs go numb and her mind go out of control. It was as if someone had hit her acupoints and she could not move even half a step.

The coachman had no choice. He gritted his teeth, carried her up, stuffed her into the carriage, and sped away!

The people were all stunned.

"Is this girl crazy? She seems to be from a noble family."

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. She even peed herself. If my family had a daughter like her, I wouldn't dare to let her out in the future. How could she get married in the future? She should stay home and be a nun!"

" ..."

"Young Master Meng, that person just now... was Young Lady Dong, right?" A few youths stood not too far away.

The few of them had been eating in the restaurant when they heard the noise outside. They said that the girl had gone mad, so they came out to take a look.

They never expected to see Dong Xiyun, the capital's number one talented girl, the former Princess Consort of the Fourth Prince!

Meng Jifang looked dumbfounded. Clearly, he did not expect to see such a scene.

Just before he saw Dong Xiyun, the few of them were chatting and discussing the matter of the Fourth Prince breaking off the engagement.

What did they just say?

The brothers at the side said that Young Lady Dong was a rare virtuous person. Now that the engagement had been broken off, she definitely did not have to worry about marriage. If it were not for the fact that they knew that they were not worthy of this girl's talent, they would have asked the matchmaker to come and ask for her hand in marriage.

At that time, he had also been moved by those comments.

It was time for him to marry. It would not matter who he married, right?

Since he was going to marry a wife, he naturally had to find someone who was talented, famous, and good-looking!

For instance, Xie Qiao. However, since Xie Qiao was going to be the Princess Consort in the future, he naturally could not think about it. Dong Xiyun was not bad either. It was just that her personality was too old-fashioned. If the marriage was really successful, he would probably not be able to leave the house...

Nevertheless, he let his imagination run wild. He did not expect to see her right away...

Dong Xiyun was on the street...

Meng Jifang felt like he was going blind.

“Is her brain sick again? It’s quite severe!” The young man’s mood was affected, and he was a little flustered and exasperated. He could not help but despise her.

“Young Master Meng, do you think that she was forced out of the marriage? She could not take it, so... she ended up like this?”

“If that’s the case, it would be a pity for this young lady. She was fine, but she was forced out of the marriage for no reason...”

“You pity her, do you want to marry her, then?” Another person could not help but tease.

The few of them were profligate young men, so they did not feel much sympathy in their hearts. However, they felt that it was quite a pity for a talented lady to become like this. Moreover, they were actually interested in the reputation of talented ladies, however, they did not like the personalities of talented ladies...

Talented ladies were all proud and arrogant, and they would not even look at the profligate young men like them.

“I’m not a fool. I was just saying at the restaurant just now. If I really married such a person, where would I put my dignity?”

The few young masters continued to chat amongst themselves.

Due to what they said, the people nearby who had accidentally heard understood it clearly.

The young lady who had just had an accident was the Fourth Prince's former Princess Consort.

The eldest daughter of the Dong family.

Dong Xiyun was famous. Compared to the reputation of being the number one talent in the capital, this bad news spread far and wide. The name of this lunatic who peed on the streets was clearly even more resounding!

That night, she became the topic of discussion among all the major aristocratic families in the capital.

Many aristocratic madams were thinking that since the Fourth Prince had broken off the engagement, they might be able to fulfill the wish of their own sons. Therefore, they were already considering letting a matchmaker come to their door. Who knew they might be able to pick up some scraps and marry such an outstanding young lady.

However...
