

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 799: Terrible Luck

Master Dong was stunned, while Xie Pinggang dragged Dong Xiyun out of the room and sent people to search.

Boxes, cosmetics, bottles, jars. All of them had to be searched.

It was difficult to obtain the silver ring powder, and this thing could harm people, causing them to be in a trance or even die. However, it was extremely useful, so Dong Xiyun probably would not be willing to throw it away!

Moreover, as the daughter of a wealthy family, Dong Xiyun probably did not think that she would be searched.

The things in the room were soon turned upside down.

They really did find some medicine.

Xie Pinggang brought the imperial physician and Xie Qiao over.

The imperial physician went forward to examine them. A moment later, he said, "The pills in this box are indeed silver ring powder, and there are quite a number of them... Also, the small bottle here should contain some medicine that can cause people to break out in hives."

Once these words were said, Dong Xiyun's entire body went limp.

At the next moment, she looked at her father frantically. "Father! Father, save me! It wasn't me, it wasn't me! Aunt, aunt, please save me..."

How could this be?! How could this be?!

She had clearly done an amazing job, and no one would have discovered it. Her sister had committed suicide, and her family had already concluded that!

Why?

Why had Xie Pinggang barged into the house? Even if he had come a few hours later that day, his sister would have been placed in the coffin. How could there be such a coincidence?!

Dong Xiyun thought she had terrible luck.

Every family had a child who died. At the back of the residence, fights were inevitable!

However, in other people's homes, there had never been anyone from the criminal division interfering, much less being targeted by the Crown Prince!

If the people from the criminal division and the Crown Prince had not shown up, she would still be the Fourth Prince's consort, and she would still be in the limelight!

Why did the heavens not help her? She had been outstanding in every aspect and had carefully planned everything since she was young. Why did Xie Qiao appear to compete with her and suppress her in every aspect? Why did the Xie family show and make all her efforts go to waste?!

She had never thought she was rash or foolish. She only thought it was someone else who had bad intentions against her!

In fact...

If it were not for Witch Mo making her sick and bewitching her, she would have gotten rid of those people such as Bao Jin when her father cared less about the family matters...

No one gave her a chance to fend for herself!

“You...” Master Dong was speechless.

Anger, regret, worry, and rage filled his head. He only felt a stifled breath in his chest. Suddenly, with a puff, he spat a mouthful of blood!

His daughter, whom he was proud of... was the murderer of his other daughter!

Sister killing another sister. How could he face his first wife when he died?!

As soon as this matter was settled, he would definitely be punished to have neglected his daughter. He did not know how many years it would take for him to be able to lift his head in the capital again!

The funny thing was that during these two days, he had been blaming his step-wife, thinking that she was vicious. Now that he thought about it, it felt like a slap on his face, a burning pain!

At this moment, he wanted to renege on his debt and protect the reputation of daughter. However, with this irrefutable evidence, how could he protect her?!

If he were to brazenly deny it and she was taken away anyway, his reputation would be ruined!

Master Dong felt dizzy and was held by the steward.

“You... sinister and vicious beast! If I had known this day would come, I-I wouldn’t have allowed your aunt to raise you. That b*tch influenced you to fail to distinguish right from wrong and taught you to kill your family member. You’re no longer my daughter!” Master Dong said.

When he said that, Aunt Dan was dumbfounded.

What did it have to do with her?! Usually, she would urge Dong Xiyun a little bit, but she really did not know about this murder!
