

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 801: The Power of Love

To Dong Yiyun, what happened when she was alive seemed really far away.

It was only a few days ago, but it was really a lifetime apart, and she could never turn back.

Xie Qiao glanced at Xie Pinggang beside her and said in a low voice, "Do you have anything to tell her? If not, I'll put her soul away."

Xie Pinggang thought for a moment and said, "I have nothing much to say. Since you're dead, there's no point in staying in the human world. Go down as soon as possible and find a kinder family in your next life. When you're down there, remember to protect me. After all, you're still my wife. I'll burn some joss paper for you during the holidays."

Xie Qiao rolled her eyes at Xie Pinggang.

However, Dong Yiyun actually nodded!

Xie Qiao knew that it was the power of love.

Dong Yiyun withdrew her gaze from Xie Pinggang.

Xie Qiao put her soul away successfully.

She had a complicated feeling. Dong Yiyun could still live a good life, but she had walked into a dead end in the end. This truly upset her. However, although she had only lived for a short dozen years, she had seen countless life and deaths since she was young, therefore, she did not feel too emotional at this moment.

After collecting Dong Yiyun's soul, Xie Qiao looked at the one hanging on the aunt's leg.

"What about you? Are you coming?" Xie Qiao asked in that direction.

Hearing that, Master Dong was startled.

He had heard that Witch Mo could communicate with both worlds. Could it be that other than his daughter, there was other... dirty things in his house?!

Master Dong looked at his concubine.

Aunt Dan was kneeling on the ground with tears streaming down her face. She was also very sad. However, she was not sad about the deceased second young lady, nor was she sad about Dong Xiyun. She was sad that from now on, she lost Dong Xiyun as her backer, and that Master Dong despised her now.

She could already predict her future. She would definitely be miserable!

Now that she heard the Taoist master's words, she did not care at all. "It's all because of you witch who have caused so much harm! None of you are good! I pity myself for being a slave in this family for more than ten years..."

She cried miserably like a raging storm. There was no beauty in her at all.

Master Dong was stunned at the moment.

In the past, this concubine was the most gentle and courteous. As she was the stepsister of his first wife, in his eyes, she was the second mistress of this house!

He did not expect that there would be such a... shrew side to her.

Master Dong had been stimulated enough today. This little bit did not affect him much.

Xie Qiao waved at the ghoul. The ghoul was young and quite naive. It actually walked toward Xie Qiao.

"I'm her younger brother. I've been dead for a long time... You're so powerful." The ghoul looked no different from an ordinary person.

His eyes were clear, but his face was pale.

Xie Qiao frowned and looked at Aunt Dan. "You have a younger brother?"

Aunt Dan fell into silence when she heard that.

Master Dong was also shocked and quickly said, "Before my first wife got married, she had a younger brother from the same mother. It was just that his fate was terrible and he died long ago. He fell into the water and died."

That child was young. As he was the son of his father-in-law, he was favored when he was alive. However, he did not expect that he would die so miserably!

Hearing the ghouls' words, Xie Qiao said, "He died unjustly. He said that when he was playing at the artificial mountain, he accidentally saw his sister having an affair with a servant. They were the ones who pushed him."

Master Dong was really on the verge of collapse..
