

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 814: Break All of His Teeth

If this vengeful spirit was irrational and did all this with resentment, Xie Qiao might have been more lenient toward her.

However, this one in front of her was obviously not.

She had been around for several years.

She was different from those vengeful spirits who were trapped in one place. The reason why she was a vengeful spirit was because she had too much karma in her hands! Moreover, she was quite strong. She could even enter and leave the Royal Academy as she pleased.

Xie Qiao was cold.

The vengeful spirit looked very nervous, and it felt Xie Qiao's killing intention. It became restless.

Xie Pinghuai had been listening to Xie Qiao talking, but clearly, there was no one else there...

That was weird...

With a bang, the things on the table fell.

Xie Pinghuai's eyelids twitched.

What was going on?

“The king of Heaven and Earth, five soldiers from hell that shatters one’s soul, hear my command... Capture the soul, don’t let it live! Exterminate!” Xie Qiao chanted incantation..

She tossed a couple of talismans as she chanted. Within the blink of an eye, the ghoul dissipated. The resentful aura vanished.

Xie Qiao eyebrows relaxed. She felt slightly uncomfortable.

The incantation sounded simple, but it took strength to chant it.

Moreover, the ghoul grievance was very heavy. If not for the fact that it had been forcibly possessed in Xie Xi body these days and affected by her bells, the incantation would certainly not be enough. She would need to spend more effort.

Xie Pinghuai felt that something was different, but he could not pinpoint exactly what it was.

His eldest sister seemed to have chanted this spell before. At that time, he was smashed by the house, and he had even heard his eldest sister muttering to herself...

Xie Pinghuai was a little absent-minded. “Eldest Sister, you followed that old Taoist master and learned how to capture souls, right?”

Xie Qiao glanced at him. “It’s so scary. What did you say?”

Xie Pinghuai had a strange expression on his face.

Something was wrong with his eldest sister!

She was so fierce just now, as if she was killing someone. His premonition was definitely right!

“Why did Xi'er faint?” Xie Pinghuai was only caring about his sister now. Seeing that Xie Qiao did not stop him, he quickly went forward. He kept shaking Xie Xi, but she did not wake up.

Xie Qiao asked the steward to make some calming soup.

Then, she secretly placed a few talismans in her room to clear up the bad luck.

Xie Xi woke up two hours later.

“Eldest Sister is home?” When Xie Xi saw Xie Qiao, her gaze became much more energetic.

“Even you knew that Eldest Sister was alive and you didn't tell me?!” Xie Pinghuai felt it. Everyone knew about his eldest sister being alive, but he was the only one who was kept in the dark!

Xie Xi hid her head under the blanket, looking extremely pitiful.

Xie Qiao rolled her eyes at Xie Pinghuai. “Would Xie Xi have the guts to tell you? Aren't you worried that Eldest Brother would kill her too?”

“That's true.” Xie Pinghuai curled his lips. “All of you are cowards, what are you afraid of him for?! Isn't it just that you can fight better than me? I'm still young. In a few more years, I will definitely break all of his teeth!”

“Hehe.” Xie Qiao laughed.

Break all of his teeth?

Xie Pinghuai’s teeth were still fine now. It was all thanks to Xie Pinggang’s mercy!

He should be more grateful!

However, the lesson he taught Xie Pinghuai this time could be considered good. If he made such a mistake again in the future... Then, his eldest brother would probably really chop off one of his arms and legs as punishment.

Xie Qiao had not returned home for more than half a month. Now that she had just returned, the food at home was sumptuous. At night, the whole family gathered together for a meal.

“Father, have you gotten lucky with your love life recently?” Xie Qiao asked casually at the dining table.

When she said that, Xie Pinggang’s actions paused.

He looked at his father.

Xie Niushan had an innocent look on his face. “What kind of luck with my love life!”

He wanted to marry a woman, but thinking about the situation at home, he did not dare to marry casually. Many matchmakers had come, and there were even many women who took the initiative to approach him. This really annoyed him.

He had no one to serve him all this time, and he felt terrible!
