

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 825: Unreasonable

After Yu Xian got up, she immediately stepped onto the stage.

The performers on the stage were all shocked. They turned to look at the shopkeeper, who was also a little dumbfounded.

“Stop singing, please. This spear is so soft and weak. Go backstage. I’ll teach you how to use a spear on the battlefield myself!” Yu Xian shouted and pushed the people behind her.

Feng Yingying was stunned.

Xie Qiao did not expect Yu Xian to be so direct. Not only did she want to chase them away, she also gave them the cold shoulder.

They were actors who learned to sing. The weapon in their hands was not a real spear. It was already good enough for them to be able to perform with it!

However, since Yu Xian had gotten onto the stage, it would be terrible for Xie Qiao to just sit there as she was also one of them.

“We need to step back a little more.” Xie Qiao also stood up and stared at those people. “If anyone goes on stage again, I will ask my father to come here more often in the future and scare you to death.”

The corner of Yu Xian’s mouth twitched.

The shopkeeper was anxious. "What are you doing?! Young lady, do you really think that there is no one behind our Hede Garden? If you dare to stir up trouble again, don't blame me for calling someone to throw you out!"

"My father is Xie Niushan." Xie Qiao stood there as if the wind would blow her over, but the words she said were extremely frightening.

The shopkeeper's legs gave way, and he turned around to glare at her.

He was stunned for a moment.

He gulped. "I don't know what we did wrong here, but I will definitely prepare a gift to your residence to apologize some other day. It's just that my business... I hope Young Lady Xie can be merciful!"

He did not doubt Xie Qiao's words.

In this world, no young lady dared to impersonate the future Princess Consort or the family member of the Princess Consort.

He worked in Hede Garden, and among the people he dealt with every day, there was no lack of high officials and nobles. Even if it was someone who wore plain clothes, he would try his best to be polite. If he was not sure of their identity, he usually did not dare to offend anyone.

Unless, Hede Garden was in the right.

"They've sung for too long. I just want them to rest, can't I?" Xie Qiao's voice was like a clear spring, and it did not sound warm.

The other guests in the garden were also a little unhappy.

This young lady said that her father was Xie Niushan, so there was no need to guess who she was.

It was said that the future Princess Consort was very talented and kind, but now that they looked at her... She was simply unreasonable. The actors on stage were singing well, but she actually started to make a scene. It was really unreasonable!

The shopkeeper looked helpless and secretly grumbled. After holding it in for a while, he only dared to say, "I wonder how long Young Lady Xie will let them rest?"

"Until the thing above them fall." Xie Qiao looked calm.

Not to mention the shopkeeper, even Yu Xian thought Xie Qiao's words were oppressive, but...

There must be a reason!

"Young Lady Xie... it's difficult for us to run a business here. I beg you to be merciful..."

Bang! Before he could finish his sentence, he suddenly heard a loud sound. He looked at the stage and saw that the board that had been hanging above his head had really fallen down and hit the center of the stage!

Yu Xian happened to push the actors in the courtyard somewhere else.

The thing had fallen next to their feet. It was close!

The shopkeeper was a little stunned, and the other customers were all shocked.

Yu Xian's eyes lit up. "It fell, it fell. It really did fall, didn't it? See, why would Young Lady Xie? One, two, three. The three of you got your lives back. Aren't you going to thank Young Lady Xie?"

Yu Xian looked a little too happy the way she behaved.

The stage had been smashed, how could they open for business today?
