

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 830: They Deserve A Beating

Yu Xian was a little confused. The place was not that big, was it? They would not get lost, would they?

On second thought, the flowers and plants in the wild looked different. Sometimes, when they walked, they would not be able to tell the north from the south. Perhaps they had recognized the wrong direction just now?

“You guys wait here. I’ll go and scout the way first,” Yu Xian said after thinking for a while.

Xie Qiao and Feng Yingying were not as strong as her. If they really got lost, they would have to conserve their energy.

Xie Qiao did not stop her.

Yu Xian went to scout the way, and Xie Qiao tidied up the things in the carriage.

They had a picnic on the spot.

Feng Yingying was a little nervous at first, but when she saw Xie Qiao’s calm expression, she felt relieved again.

“Young Lady Xie, why do you have everything in the bamboo basket?” Feng Yingying was shocked when she saw Xie Qiao take out a knife from the bamboo basket.

Young Lady Xie was a woman, and she actually brought something like this with her when she was out...

It was not quite what she thought.

“It’s just a knife. I don’t have enough strength, so the things I carry with me are carefully selected. If I was as brave as my eldest brother, I would have brought my tent with me when I am out. We would not have to sleep in the carriage at night.” Xie Qiao sighed, she thought it was a pity.

They were both born from the same mother. Her mother had given birth to her eldest brother who was strong, but what about her?

It was not easy for her to even catch a breath.

The difference was too big. It was another day she was jealous of her brother.

“Tent... We were only going out to shop today...” Feng Yingying was secretly surprised.

A tent was huge from what she remembered. After all, they were used for marching and fighting, and the prices were high. Moreover, it seemed quite troublesome to set it up.

“I made a simpler one with the materials of the sheepskin raft earlier, but unfortunately, I didn’t bring it out. However, the carriage can make do with it. If you feel bored at night, you can come out to take a breath. But I don’t think I’ll be able to sleep tonight.” Xie Qiao sighed, she felt a little guilty.

“I’m not that timid,” Feng Yingying said quickly.

Xie Qiao could see that Feng Yingying was definitely more courageous than the average person.

Otherwise, she would not have followed her here.

“But Young Lady Xie, the filthy thing you felt just now, is it on this mountain now? Could it be a mountain monster?” Feng Yingying asked curiously.

Previously, she thought that Xie Qiao was a weak woman, but now she thought...

She was like a bandit.

She did not mean ill. Instead, she was thinking that Xie Qiao’s personality was quite similar to the Uncle Xie that she saw today.

When she said that she wanted to chase after the ghouls, her eyes lit up. At that moment, she felt that Xie Qiao was not chasing after a filthy thing, but money.

Moreover, rumors said that she was a short-lived person, but when she was looking for the path just now, her footsteps were even lighter than hers!

“Actually, the dead are almost the same as the living, especially the spirits with some intelligence. Perhaps their lives are no different from when they were alive,” Xie Qiao said truthfully, “However, even among the living, there are villains who are so bad that people don’t dare to look at them, let alone the dead.”

“That’s true. Just like what the storyteller said, many monsters are actually quite nice.” Feng Yingying nodded in agreement.

With that said, she was indeed not so scared anymore.

“But why are you chasing after them? That filthy thing that did bad things just now is definitely a bad person. Why are you chasing after them?” Feng Yingying did not quite understand.

Xie Qiao was silent for a moment.

“I just can’t sit still. I think they deserve a beating.” Xie Qiao said that casually..
