

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 858: Dao of Yin and Yang

Xie Qiao looked at him and was stunned for a moment.

Why was he such a great man? How could a group of mischievous spirits be taught to be like this?

In the instant she was distracted, she was shaken by the soul-summoning bell of the ghoul and lost her balance. She almost lost her life.

Fortunately, she had enough tools on her.

Xie Qiao did not dare to be distracted and continued with her work.

The ghouls that followed the Crown Prince had no evil energy at all. Moreover, they were nourished by his dragon energy. Their soul power was powerful and was totally useful. They were not like the messy hovering spirits on the mountain peak, whose aura was chaotic.

“Seven governance and eight spirits, Grand Supreme will chase away the evil and long-headed giant beasts... Ten thousand souls have returned. Hear my command! Go!” Xie Qiao waved her talisman and chanted.

The ten yin soldiers’ auras soared, and for a moment, black fog covered the sky and stirred up dust.

Xie Qiao glanced at Zhao Xuanjing, she suddenly came to a realization. “Five emperors and five dragons, God of Flame... The Supreme has an edict, fierce officials have silver teeth. Protect the righteous energy and cleanse the evil!”

Xie Qiao's incantation combined with the talisman inscribed with Zhao Xuanjing's blood, and she looked up again. It was as if a fire dragon flew out from Zhao Xuanjing's head and burned the little wooden figure.

Xie Qiao silently buried her head.

The aura of an emperor was indeed different. This was only the Crown Prince...

Use It sparingly, use it sparingly.

She had used one on the county road, and now another one. The rest...

Xie Qiao searched and touched the thickness of her talismans. She felt her heart ache, and she looked at the ghoul in front of her. Her eyes became cold.

Zhao Xuanjing could feel that there was something different about him. It was as if... anger had risen out of thin air. The bugs under his feet had instantly avoided him and did not dare to come closer.

He closed his eyes slightly and vaguely felt that he saw...

A wooden figure on fire?

However, it also felt like it was his imagination. It was not real.

One after another, thunder, ghouls, and the fire dragon burned the wooden figure away from the ghoul and turned him into ashes.

The small wooden figure in the sky above the tomb fell directly and crashed into the dark black water. It was useless now.

Xie Qiao heaved a sigh of relief.

Meanwhile, the ghoul was trembling, and it was charred on the outside and tender on the inside by the lightning.

The ghouls under Xie Qiao's command tied up the ghoul and brought it to her.

They knelt in unison. "The culprit has been brought to be punished. Master, please instruct us!"

Xie Qiao gulped and was stunned.

She thought these ghoul guards were more passionate, righteous, and promising than Zhao Xuanjing's living guards...

"W-Well done. Please get up..." Xie Qiao had never seen such a scene before. It was quite rare.

The corner of Zhao Xuanjing's mouth curled.

It seemed that she was very satisfied.

He did a good job, right?

"Master, if you don't have any other instructions, we'll stand guard!" The ghoul guards said again.

Xie Qiao nodded repeatedly. "Yes, yes. Go quickly..."

They were too sensible. Moreover, these ghouls were not ugly. They were dressed in human-like clothes and looked awe-inspiring. They were really amazing.

After obtaining Xie Qiao's permission, the guards respectfully said good-bye to Zhao Xuanjing.

Of course, Zhao Xuanjing did not hear anything. They followed the rules and hovered away...

Xie Qiao looked at Zhao Xuanjing with a complicated gaze.

"I am the son of Heaven. I follow both the dao of yin and yang." Zhao Xuanjing stood there elegantly. His white clothes were spotless. The more Xie Qiao looked at him, the more she thought he was... very flirtatious..
