

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 866: Taken Advantage Of

Before Xie Qiao could speak, Xie Pinggang had already told him the cause of the illness.

The man was dumbfounded when he heard that his nephew had brought something dirty home.

“My nephew... is he alright? You guys came at the wrong time. He went out just now. I noticed that he looks a little off lately... Master, why don't you wait a moment? I'll go and call him over now. Please treat him...”

As he spoke, the man was about to leave, and he looked very anxious.

“There's no need. This penniless master already saw your nephew just now. His condition is incurable,” Xie Qiao said.

Although these three people were terminally ill, they were only affected by the ghouls. Other than the ghouls, there was still hope for them to get rid of their bad luck. At most, they would lose some Yang energy. In the future, their physical fitness would not be as good as before, the more serious problem would be their lifespan.

However, Li Yan was different. He had been punished by the ghouls, feng shui, and bad karma. It was too severe.

When Xie Qiao said that, the uncle was stunned.

“M-My sister only has one child...”

“Your nephew knew that something was wrong, yet he took it home on purpose. He did not have good intentions, so you don’t have to feel sorry for him. He deserved it,” Xie Pinggang said mercilessly.

These words were like knives cutting people.

The entire family was stunned. They could not believe it.

After Xie Pinggang confirmed to the master that the three of them were fine, he did not stay any longer and escorted her away.

As soon as they left, a few wails sounded in the house. When the aunt thought about how she raised a wolf and almost killed her children, she also cursed loudly.

However, the uncle still did not believe her and went out to look for Li Yan.

He questioned him.

Li Yan did not admit it at first, but the uncle threatened and forced him. In the end, he told the truth.

He wanted to inherit his uncle’s family business.

However...

He had three cousins. He had to make them disappear. Moreover, that was not enough. He was an outsider after all. Even if his uncle’s family did not have any descendants, it could only be inherited by the clansmen. It would not be his turn.

Therefore, he had already thought it through. When all his cousins left, his uncle and aunt would be so sad that they would want him to marry his cousin sister.

He was scared of making such a decision.

However, a ghoul was illusory. It was neither poisonous nor did he need to use a weapon. No one would be able to discover it...

He did not expect...

After Li Yan told them the truth, the uncle's family's hearts turned cold. They immediately chased him out.

They could not even report this matter to the authorities!

However, after all these years of hard work and effort to raise him, this was what happened. Fortunately, he was already 19. Even if they chased him out now, others would not say that they were cruel.

Li Yan also had some private money. After he left his uncle's family, he did not feel too sad. That day, he found a small courtyard to settle down in, but he directly fell ill.

This illness made all the doctors helpless.

The owner of the rented courtyard thought he was a jinx and chased him out.

The neighbor went to his uncle's house, but they were unwilling to be taken advantage of again. They were ruthless and ignored him. The neighbor thought that the three sons of the family were sick earlier, and in addition, the uncle's house intentionally or unintentionally pushed the blame onto Li Yan, as a result, the neighbors understood the whole story, so they naturally did not force the family to take him in.

No one cared, no one asked. Li Yan really died three days later.

Xie Qiao even deliberately stayed nearby to watch. Seeing that Li Yan's ghoul had left, only did she let the matter go completely..
