

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 911: I Already Have Someone in Mind

Li Shiyán's expression did not look too good. He was a little angry, but even if he was angry, he still looked like an elegant old man.

"Handle these two people first," Li Shiyán said. Then, he hunched his back and returned to the hall. He sat on the main seat with a cup in his hand. He took a sip to suppress his anger.

Xie Qiao and the other two followed him in and sat down obediently.

"If the lamps are activated, will your third junior brother's life be lost?" Li Shiyán asked.

"That depends on his luck," Xie Qiao thought for a moment and said, "If the talisman is removed and all the lamps are extinguished, then everything will be just like before I came. It depends on when Master Hu will take his life. When I went to look for Master Hu just now, he was almost done with the ritual. So, it's hard for me to tell what will happen to Third Junior Brother."

If one was still lit, even if it was just one, then even if the master completed the ritual, death could still be delayed.

Li Shiyán's expression became more serious.

Seeing that Li Shiyán's expression was terrible, Xie Qiao quickly said, "Teacher, a disciple is like your half-son. I see that you are in good spirits, so Third Junior Brother might be able to survive the disaster."

“I hope it will be as you say.” Li Shiyang sighed, “Your third junior brother’s temperament is a little strange, but he is very filial to me. He is also quite talented and plays the zither well. He is still young now. If he dies early... it would be too sad for me.”

“Teacher, don’t worry. Third Junior Brother will definitely be fine.” Xiao Yurong could not bear to see her teacher so sad at his age, so she quickly comforted him.

Li Shiyang did not dare to think too much about it.

Sang You was only in his twenties now. He had been following him around all these years and did not have the time to have a family.

“I have been keeping you guys from learning and seeing the world, but I didn’t pay much attention to your marriage. Now that I think about it, it is too late to regret. After your third junior brother is saved, you all have to arrange your marriage well. Find a nice person, have a son or a daughter so that you can have a descendant.” Li Shiyang changed his tone and he said again.

He really regretted it.

The disciples he had taught were all good, except for the fact that they were too good. Therefore, they had a noble character. When they looked at the ladies, they either complained that they did not study enough or that they were too picky.

Li Shiyang looked at Xiao Yurong.

Xiao Yurong was very nervous. His face immediately turned red. “Teacher... I-I already have someone in mind!”

The corner of Xie Qiao’s mouth twitched.

Zhao Xuanjing stopped what he was doing and looked at him coldly. "Senior Brother Xiao, have you read enough books? Do you dare say that in front of Teacher?"

Xiao Yurong was just worried his teacher would think that he did not want to have a family!

Whatever his teacher said, he had to follow immediately...

"Oh? Who is it? What's her temperament like? Sigh, people your age would have a child who can take the examination. Your life has really been delayed these years," Li Shiyan sighed.

Li Shiyan had high expectations of Xiao Yurong.

Although Xie Qiao was the eldest disciple, in fact, Li Shiyan treated her as his daughter and granddaughter. He treated his other disciples differently, some close, some distant.

Therefore, when he called Xie Qiao, his tone was close. In the past, he used to call her a good girl.

Then, he had his second disciple, third disciple, fourth disciple, fifth disciple...

As Xie Qiao's eldest junior brother, Xiao Yurong wanted to be the role model for the other junior brothers. Therefore, he had experienced the most rigorous academic career..
