

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 915: Repent

Jiang Jinlu did not think that all monks in the world were bad people. He had never had such thoughts. In his eyes, monks were just like commoners, ordinary people!

Or perhaps, they were just a little kinder.

Other than that, all their abilities were fake.

Guard Xia was a little speechless by Jiang Jinlu's words, but he still felt that it was terrible for him to be like this. Thus, he tried his best to organize his words and thought about it, he said, "Young Master Jiang's words may be reasonable, but my brothers and I have been following the Crown Prince. We have seen Master Mo capture ghouls many times. This thing... really exists. Master Mo's eyes can really see both worlds. I'm not sure if the lamps are useful, but I believe in her words.

"Young Master Jiang is Master Mo's junior brother. One day, you will definitely understand what she is doing now," Guard Xia added.

"Impossible," Jiang Jinlu said firmly. "I will definitely persuade senior sister to repent in the future."

His rumored senior sister was incredible, how could she believe such nonsense?

Guard Xia looked at Jiang Jinlu helplessly. "Later, no matter what happens, I will not interfere. I will only be responsible for taking care of Master Mo's lamp!"

The person was important, so was the lamp.

“As you wish.” Jiang Jinlu did not care about these things.

Just as he finished speaking, Old Master Meng returned with an anxious look. “Young Master Jiang, quick, quick, quick. The miracle doctor is waiting in the room. We have to go as soon as possible, or else the miracle doctor will leave...

“Oh right, the miracle doctor has a strange personality and doesn’t like to see too many people. So... you and I will bring Young Master Sang in, and the others will stay outside. Do you think that’s possible?”

Jiang Jinlu nodded.

Guard Xia thought for a moment and shone the lamp shade in the room on the lamp in his hand. Then, with a flash, he rushed out and leaped onto the roof.

“What does this young master want to do? This is the miracle doctor’s place, it’s not appropriate to offend him like this...” Old Master Meng was also a little anxious.

Jiang Jinlu also rushed out and looked at the roof in confusion.

“Young Master Jiang, I only listen to my young master and Master Mo. Master asked me to protect this lamp, so I will protect this lamp. As for other things... Please do as you wish. I will stay on this roof. The scenery is pretty good, and the lamp is more secure here,” Guard Xia shouted at the people below.

“This... What should we do?” Old Master Meng frowned. “What if the miracle doctor is unhappy and doesn’t want to treat Young Master Sang?”

Jiang Jinlu was put in a difficult position. “Let’s go see the miracle doctor first and give it a try...”

Guard Xia was the Crown Prince's subordinate. He did not have the ability to order him around. Moreover, he had already offended him just now, so it would be terrible for him to provoke him again.

Not only that, Guard Xia was not an ordinary servant. The people around His Highness were all of high status. They were not the same as the people around Old Master Meng.

Old Master Meng was furious, but he controlled his anger well.

He moved the people to the miracle doctor's side.

However, the miracle doctor's face was cold. "You went to my roof and you want me to treat you?! I have a temper too!"

"Young Master Jiang... Please ask that person to come down and apologize to the miracle doctor. Young Master Sang's illness cannot be delayed any longer!" Old Master Meng's face was full of regret. He seemed to be more worried about Sang You's illness than Jiang Jinlu.

Jiang Jinlu was also in a difficult position!

"Miracle Doctor, it's all our fault. Please be magnanimous and save this person first. After saving him, I can even stay behind to help you clean the roof," Jiang Jinlu hurriedly said.

Men had their pride. At this moment, he knew that his third senior brother was in an urgent situation. He lifted his robe to kneel and bow..
