

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 920: Follow Him

Meng Yin had never seen Sang You before. Now that he was hovering in the air and looking down from above, it was his first time seeing this person.

However, he felt as if they were old friends at first sight.

He had to admit that this Meng Yin was really smart.

This ghoul had been imprisoned and tortured for too long. After the substitute technique backfired, his soul became even weaker. If he hovered for a little longer, it would take three to five years. If it was short, it would take a few months. It was hard to say when he would completely disperse.

He could be nurtured, but if he was to be nurtured well, it had to be placed in a dharma instrument. It also had to stay in a place where the five element energy was evenly distributed. It was also equivalent to imprisonment.

However, Xie Qiao still told Meng Yin about the matter of nurturing the soul.

“You can follow me. I’ll put you in front of the god. After ten years, your ghoul will be like a normal ghoul. If you follow him... that’s fine too. You can only stay in the dharma instrument beside him. This way, it will take a longer time to nurture you. If you hover around frequently, you shouldn’t be able to last for too long. Even if you have a dharma instrument, you have to take great care of your body. At most, it will only last for a few decades. If you want to be reincarnated halfway, you can find a Taoist temple. You can also cross over and leave. But if you want to be an old monster for a long time, that’s impossible,” Xie Qiao explained in a well-behaved manner.

If she wanted to keep him, it would definitely be that pine crane longevity white jade artifact.

This artifact was good enough, which was why it allowed this ghoul to hover for a few more days.

“But if you stay in the artifact, you can only hover within the range of the artifact. You can’t go far,” Xie Qiao added.

Meng Yin’s ghoul was too fragile. He thought he would either hide in the jade or he would vanish within three steps. He probably could not do anything else. After a few years, it might be better.

“That’s good.” Meng Yin nodded. “I’ll have to trouble you to tell him that I won’t force him. If this guy thinks that it’s inappropriate, I’ll find a bookstore. It’s the same if I’m hovering inside.”

It would not matter if he was wandering around for a few years less.

He just felt that he really owed this guy by insisting on stealing his life.

If he followed him, he might be able to protect him a little. Of course, if he would influence him, then he definitely would not be willing to do so.

“I’ll let you in first. When third junior brother wakes up, you can ask him,” Xie Qiao replied.

Immediately after, she kept the ghoul into the white jade.

Old Master Meng suddenly aged by more than ten years.

He could not hear Meng Yin’s words, but he could guess from half of what Master Mo said. He was angry and resentful.

It was all because of Master Mo's appearance that all his efforts were wasted!

"Don't you cultivators have to do good deeds to accumulate good karma?! I've already spent 60 years! My son is crippled, my grandson is dead, and I don't even have a descendant! I've made so much money, who can I give it to in the future?! It's all the clansmen's! I've worked hard all my life for the sake of someone else's child!"

What a joke, what a joke!

His grandson could have lived, he could have lived... Who would have thought of letting him die!

"Didn't you adopt a son?" Xie Qiao did not have any sympathy as she looked at this person's crazy appearance, "If my guess is correct, you probably have other motives to have adopted this son, right? Is he compatible with the eight characters? Who is he compatible with? Is it you or that crippled son of yours?"

Old Master Meng was stunned.

Master Hu's confused eyes also became clearer. Suddenly, he grinned sinisterly. "Ruined, it's all ruined!"

Xie Qiao thought for a moment. "Although this ritual wasn't performed by you personally as the grandfather, this person was chosen by you. This bad deed was also done by you. If my guess is correct, your adopted son's birth characteristics should be extremely prosperous for you. To you, adopting him is a good deed.. It can help you offset some of your sins and accumulate some good karma, right?!"
