

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 921: Kind Enough

Xie Qiao did not suspect Meng Xiande. She thought he was just worried about his grandson.

However, now...

It was obvious that Meng Xiande cared more about his years of hard work and the opinions of others. How could such a person not want something from a Taoist master who could be capable of the substitute technique?

When ordinary people met a capable Taoist master, they wanted to ask for help in fortune-telling and make a small fortune...

"You're really smart. You're as smart as that annoying Mo Lingzi from back then!" Master Hu shivered and said to Xie Qiao in disgust.

This female Taoist master who appeared out of nowhere was right. The boy that Meng Xiande adopted had a fate of good fortune. Raising that child would only bring him benefits and no harm.

That boy was not the child of Meng Xiande's savior, but was bought from a farmer's family.

After all, it was a boy, and the farmer's family was not actually willing to sell it.

However, the Meng family was a large family of this generation. How could the family dare to refute Meng Xiande's request?

That child was four or five years old and already knew many words. Meng Xiande made up a lie and deceived him for a long time. When that child grew up, the lie would naturally become true. As for his biological parents, they would definitely be forgotten, he would never be able to remember them.

Master Hu also knew that he would not have a good ending, so he was kind enough to speak the truth even though he was about to die.

After saying that, Xie Qiao looked at him and said, "You and I have already fought, but I forgot to tell you who I am.

"This penniless master is the descendant of the Water Moon Temple, Mo Chusheng. The Mo Lingzi you spoke of... is from the same sect as this penniless master," Xie Qiao said proudly.

They were from the same sect, but they were not brothers and sisters on the surface. Instead, they were master and disciple.

As soon as she said that, Master Hu widened his eyes and spat out another mouthful of blood!

He pointed at Xie Qiao and trembled all over.

His mouth was trembling, and he was so anxious that he was unable to breathe. In just a moment, he actually fell down!

Thud. The sound of him crashing onto the ground, caused one's entire body to go numb. It was unbelievable.

Even Li Shiyan did not expect that this esteemed Taoist master would be angered to death by his disciple!

Was he not angered to death? His eyes were wide open, and there was not the slightest movement in his body!

“It’s not my fault. His life has come to an end.” Xie Qiao was shocked as well. Then, she looked at her teacher with an aggrieved expression, “It’s true. This substitute technique has failed and he has done other bad things before. The damage to his morality is too severe. If it backfires, he will definitely die...”

Now that he was triggered, he died even faster.

However, she could not let this person die without a reason, right?

He was the one who did the bad things first. He deserved it.

Although Xie Qiao looked aggrieved, her gaze was very firm.

Li Shiyan frowned. “Drag him out first. Don’t scare your senior sister...”

Xiao Yurong suddenly became much more timid.

‘Teacher... I’m afraid too.’

Zhao Xuanjing’s face did not change. The guards were very busy.

Old Master Meng was also frightened by this scene. He looked at Xie Qiao with hatred and some fear. Apparently, he did not believe that Xie Qiao’s simple words could anger someone to death. In his opinion, this Taoist master must have used some powerful spell to kill him!

“Master Li! I’ve taken good care of you during this period of time. Could you please save me some dignity...” Meng Xiande was smart. When he saw that Master Hu was dead, he immediately crawled out from the pain of losing his grandson and began to beg for mercy.

Li Shiyan sighed. “I won’t do anything to you.”

As there was already retribution..
