

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 933: Carry the Rooster

The three brothers could not figure it out either, so they decided not to think about it.

Sang You could not recover from his illness in a few days. Xie Qiao would have to stay in Mengjiabao for a while, but it was impossible for her to guard the courtyard and not go out. After inscribing many talismans a few days ago and saving up all her money, she carried her bamboo basket and went out.

“Is Senior Sister going out to tell fortunes again?” Jiang Jinlu felt strange when he saw Xie Qiao holding the bamboo basket with one hand and holding the “Sage Mo Who is Neither Dead Nor Alive” divination banner with the other.

Could it be that senior sister was short of money?

He was the poorest among his fellow senior brothers and sister, but he was a graduate after all and had quite some money. As long as his senior sister asked him to give her some, it would definitely be enough for her to spend!

“If you are curious, why don’t you go with her?” Xiao Yurong thought for a while and said, “Teacher wants you to make up for your mistakes. If you hide yourself and don’t dare to see senior sister every day, I’m afraid you will never be able to make up for your mistakes.”

Xiao Yurong had finished his apprenticeship after all, so he could see things clearly.

His teacher’s intention was probably to show him his senior sister’s ability to capture ghouls and monsters.

He was just guessing and doubting whether he believed in Xie Qiao's ability. If he wanted to confirm if it was true, he had to understand it personally and see the proof with his own eyes.

"I'm afraid that senior sister is really annoying me now." Jiang Jinlu felt a little helpless.

"That's also because a person like you who acts recklessly is really annoying to senior sister." Xiao Yurong was telling the truth. "You just have to perform well and try your best to change senior sister's opinion. Isn't that enough?"

Jiang Jinlu thought it was difficult!

However, if he did nothing, he could only wait to be kicked out of the sect.

Thinking of that, Jiang Jinlu decided to bite the bullet.

Xie Qiao had not gone far when he quickly chased after her. It did not take long for him to walk side by side with Xie Qiao.

Xie Qiao came out to work because she was looking for a person whom she was fated to meet or a ghou. It was not good for her to bring a guard with her. After all, who had ever seen a fortune-teller who brought a parade with her?

She was alone, holding something that looked heavy. She looked a little down.

Her appearance was quite simple and pure.

"Senior Sister, let me help you with your basket." Jiang Jinlu stepped forward and immediately took action. He was ready to take Xie Qiao's bamboo basket.

Xie Qiao pulled it back with a flip of her hand.

“All the things I have here are life-saving equipment. Some of them are extremely expensive. You don’t believe me. If I meet with an emergency, I might lose them again. Trying to sabotage my livelihood? No way.” Xie Qiao snorted.

Jiang Jinlu could not maintain his smile any longer. With a bitter face, he said, “Senior Sister, I really know my mistake.

“You’re just saying it. All mortals can do that too.” Xie Qiao snorted.

So what if she was an expert? Even an expert could hold a grudge!

However, seeing that he was looking at her pitifully, Xie Qiao opened the bamboo basket and carried Da Xiong out. Then, she stuffed Da Xiong into his arms. “Help me carry this rooster. It will feel bored if it stays in the basket all the time.”

Rooster?!

Jiang Jinlu’s entire body froze. He felt the hairy, prickly feeling in his arms and the bright red comb. His heart almost jumped out of his chest.

He had been poor since he was young and he had kept roosters.

However, he had never hugged a rooster like this before.

“Senior sister, why did you bring a rooster? But this rooster is really strong... Ordinary people can’t raise such a mighty rooster. With its high spirit, it can definitely be sold for a good price. However, we don’t need to sell this one. If we send it to the kitchen, we can finish it,” Jiang Jinlu said with a flattering smile. He tried his best to praise his senior sister that she did a great job even in keeping a rooster..
