

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 954: Come Up for a Solution

Zhao Xuanjing was quite thick-skinned. After praising himself, he said, "It's time to praise Senior Sister."

Jiang Jinlu was really stumped.

He had been praising his senior sister since he was young, and he had said a lot of it. At that time, he had only said it to her teacher, and the words were very simple. They were aimed at three things—appearance, bearing, and talent.

They were all boastful. He used to be thick-skinned enough to say something like she could overrun cities and ruin states, and he believed it without a doubt!

However, now.

He was facing his real senior sister, not an imaginary one.

He would be really stuck if he said she could overrun cities and ruin states.

"Senior Sister, you..." Jiang Jinlu was in a dilemma. When he was hesitating, he saw his senior sister looking at him with resentment, and he blurted out, "Senior Sister is abnormally fierce..."

"No... I didn't mean that..." Jiang Jinlu was anxious, "What I mean is that Eldest Senior Sister is very brave. She can connect with the ghouls. In addition, Eldest Senior Sister is also very kind and helps the ghouls to fulfill their wishes. Although Eldest Senior Sister has a cold personality, she also cares about her junior brothers very much. I know how kind she

After saying that, Jiang Jinlu gulped, afraid that he would be beaten up.

He could not help but say the word "fierce".

"It must be hard for you to say that." Xie Qiao snorted.

"It's true. Senior Sister is the most special person I have ever met," Jiang Jinlu said honestly.

Xie Qiao felt that the word "special" did not mean anything good. However, this kid was more or less the same.

"Do you believe that there are ghouls in this world?" Xie Qiao asked faintly.

"Yes... I do, I think?" Jiang Jinlu smiled bitterly. "But... if there's a chance, I hope I can... take a look for myself."

"Sure, go find cow's tears yourself, and I'll open the Heavenly Eye for you to look at them," Xie Qiao said immediately.

"Cow's tears?" Jiang Jinlu was a little curious.

"The tears of an old cow that worked hard for its whole life before it died," Xie Qiao added, "A old cow that worked his whole life. I heard that before it died, it would think about its whole life, so its tears were also very sad. After getting the tears of a cow, I'd add some other medicines and squeeze some of it on your eyelids. Then, you will see... a different world.”

Hearing this, Jiang Jinlu felt complicated.

An old cow that worked its whole life... He already felt sorry for the cow.

“I try to find some.” Jiang Jinlu nodded seriously.

He thought it was not enough to judge whether there were ghouls based on those gloomy winds and candles!

He had to see it with his own eyes!

Seeing how persistent he was, Xie Qiao even hesitated whether she should share a drop of the remaining cow tears with him... However... she really could not bear to. There were not many drops left, and now she was so poor, it was better to save them. Jiang Jinlu would have to find it himself!

As she spoke, she arrived at the hall.

She also asked someone to invite the fraud in.

The fraud entered the big house. The deeper he went, the more he believed in Master Mo’s ability.

If she was not a master, she definitely would not live in this kind of house, right?!

‘When he saw the master in person, the fraud was immediately subdued by her bearing. He immediately knelt down. “I was blind to have offended you. I hope that Master won’t take it to heart!”

“You’re too polite,” Xie Qiao said indifferently. “You came to me to ask me to get rid of your bad luck?”

“Yes!” After the old man got up, he said with a trembling voice, “Today, my luck was not good. I was beaten by someone, and my hand was injured. I lost some money. This money... is not important. But I thought of Master mentioning my son... He is innocent. I don’t want him to have a hard time in the underworld. I hope that Master can help me come up with a solution..”
