

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 960: Two Business Deals

On the way back, they brought a lot of things with them. Their journey was a little slow, and they were delayed for half a month before they arrived at the capital.

Li Shiyan had returned to the capital, and the scholars in the city reacted the most strongly.

There were many more scholars appearing on the streets than before. Not only those who were alive, but Xie Qiao had also seen many dead scholars.

However, these scholars were still obedient and tactful. Even if they were ghouls, they only dared to look at Li Shiyan from afar and did not dare to act rashly.

The journey was tiring, After Xie Qiao returned to the capital, she first went to the Fortune Pavilion. Her teacher's reputation was too great, so he would be busier in the capital.

However, no matter how busy he was, he still had time to see his disciples and grand-disciples.

"Boss, when you were not here, there were several business visits. Some of them have already found other solutions. There are still two left. Take a look." Shopkeeper Chang respectfully showed the registration details to Xie Qiao.

Recently, she had missed quite a few business deals.

For instance, a certain someone's house was haunted. There was always noise in the middle of the night, or a certain family's young master was having fun in a brothel and fell to his death while using the toilet in the middle of the night. He probably had a lot of resentment and asked her to help him cross over.

However, these were all business deals that had already been crossed out.

The remaining two

"Prince Yong Lin's Residence?" Xie Qiao was quite surprised. "The Princess is sick?"

It was written that the first lady of Prince Yong Lin's Residence was sick and had received Prince Ning Bei's recommendation to ask her to take a look.

"Yes, Boss. Recently, people from Prince Yong Lin's Residence have been coming here several times. Every time, they return disappointed. It seems that the lady at home is quite sick, and even if they looked for others, they wouldn't be able to treat her well," Shopkeeper Chang immediately said, "Since you weren't around, I made the decision to ask a few more questions. The people from Prince Yong Lin's Residence also stuttered when they spoke. It seems that ever since the scholar got married at the beginning of the month, the lady had started to become a little abnormal. She often muttered to herself, and she was also in a trance. Many people said that she had lost her mind because of lovesickness.

"But this family dotes on their daughter. It's not that they don't believe it, but during this period of time, the family has found quite a number of doctors. They came in one after another, but almost all of them were chased out.

“No one can tell what exactly is wrong with her. Prince Yong Lin also went to look for the people from the Yuxu Temple. I heard that the Taoist masters there also found it troublesome and didn’t know what to do. They also recommended that they look for you.”

Hearing this, Xie Qiao was even more surprised.

The Taoist masters in Yuxu Temple were quite capable.

However, the older generation of Taoist masters were getting older and more well-behaved. They usually went into seclusion to cultivate and did not like to go out. No matter how much money and power they had, they were unwilling to get out.

The Taoist masters who entered the mortal world were like Yuan Changzi. Their abilities were not bad either. They could easily solve common problems with a raise of a hand.

However, since Yuxu Temple had recommended her, there must be something dirty around the princess.

“This is the invitation from Prince Yong Lin’s Residence. They said that as long as you are back, you can go there anytime,” Shopkeeper Chang added.

Xie Qiao nodded. “I’ll go and take a look tomorrow.”

She was not concerned about Zhao Jialing’s life, but was curious about what had happened to this person.

If it was a powerful vengeful spirit, she had to think of a way to get rid of it. Otherwise, it would not be good for her cultivation if she did not care about it even though she knew there was resentment.

“What’s wrong with the other one? You didn’t write it down in detail,” Xie Qiao pointed at the list and asked.

Shopkeeper Chang said awkwardly, “This... I don’t know. It was a post from a person who asked for your whereabouts several times. He didn’t say a word about the specific matter. That person... seemed to be very mysterious. I wrote it down so that I wouldn’t forget to report it.”
