

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 969: Lovesick

'There was a self-deprecating look on the princess' face.

There was no one else in the hall, and the princess was afraid that what she said would affect the master's judgment. She continued, "This child does indeed have some admiration for the scholar, but he is the scholar. On the day of the parade, there were so many young ladies on the street. Who would not fall in love with him?

"On the day of the scholar's wedding, my daughter secretly ran out. I was afraid that she would cause trouble, so I even got four maids and two grannies. A total of six people followed behind. She only watched the wedding procession in the teahouse. Later, she went to the Wen family's door to take a stroll, and then she came back. At that time, she was full of vigor and vitality. She was really not lovesick.

"Twent to look for the Taoist master of the Yuxu Temple. Master Yuan Changzi said that my daughter had run into evil and lost her soul. He also said that the ability of the Water Moon Temple to capture souls is better, and that you guys won't harm the victim's body. Also... Master Mo, you are a woman after all, so it's more convenient for you, so..."

It was not that the Taoist master of the Yuxu Temple could not do it.

However, she was afraid that it would affect her daughter's reputation. If Master Mo did not return to the capital and they continued to endure for a period of time, it would really not work. Her reputation... she would not care about it. Her life was more important.

Xie Qiao nodded, indicating that she understood. "I'll go and see the Commandery Princess first."

"Sure, please follow me." The princess immediately replied and led the way.

After going to the backyard, they went around the garden. After many turns, they finally arrived at the bedroom.

Zhao Jialing's bedroom was not an ordinary one.

There were all kinds of decorations inside. It was very extravagant and had a faint elegant fragrance. Compared to her shabby house in the Xie Residence, this young lady practically grew up in the golden nest. It was no wonder that she was so arrogant before.

At this moment, this person was tied to the bed.

Her eyes were dull, and her mouth was gagged.

Seeing this, an awkwardness and heartache flashed across the princess' face.

"If I didn't block her mouth, this child would always say nonsense. If others heard it..." the princess was afraid that Xie Qiao did not understand, so she quickly explained.

"Understand. Princess, there's no need to say more." Xie Qiao immediately expressed her understanding.

Zhao Jialing was still a woman, even though she was a member of the royal family.

It was fine to hear the rumors outside, but if the young lady kept making a ruckus every day, the doctors and the servants who took care of her every day would hear it. It would be even more troublesome.

“This child wasn’t like this in the past. She used to think that Xiao Yurong was good-looking, but in the past, she didn’t want to kill herse Prince since she was young. She knows that the Crown Prince reads a lot, so later on, she will praise other young people who read well.”

.” the princess sighed as if she felt that her words were inappropriate, then she said, “It’s just a little admiration, nothing else. My daughter has admired the Crown

Zhao Jialing was the Crown Prince’s cousin.

She often went to the palace, and the Empress also doted on her.

Xie Qiao was actually shocked by Zhao Jialing’s state at the moment.

‘When she saw her before, what was she like?

She was in high spirits and full of confidence. Her words were filled with arrogance and indulgence. Although she was a little annoying, she looked young and full of vigor. However, now, her eyes were lifeless, her mouth was cracked and bleeding, and her hair was messy. She tilted her head, looking like a fool.

Xie Qiao went forward and stretched out her hand to tap her forehead.

There was no reaction at all.

“How long has it been like this?” Xie Qiao asked..
