

THE PRINCESS CONSORT HAS A LETHAL DESTINY

Chapter 992 Familiar Person

Xie Pinggang's words were not polite, but sincere.

There was no limit to how many people were employed in the criminal division. As long as Yu Xian had the ability, she could really go on duty. However, she could not be a high-ranking official, so she could just be an interrogator.

With Yu Xian's ability, she could be a minor general, but there was nothing she could do about it.

"This is all your cousin's fault. He's been dawdling and asking me all day. Are you eating well? Are you learning the rules well? If I knew that you were with Master, he would have something to say. I really don't want to deal with him." Xie Pinggang pushed Zhou Weizong hard.

"My cousin is indeed strict with me." Yu Xian nodded and thought so too.

Xie Pinggang nodded. "You can go to Master's shop often in the future. It's not a problem."

As long as she did not run away with the master, it would be fine.

As for giving half of her time to master every month... would that not mean that this person would half belong to the master and half belong to him?

That was not good. He had a straightforward temper and was not liked by others. Master was so powerful. If they spent too much time together, Yu Xian would definitely not be happy to come back.

Yu Xian had a big heart. She did not mind Xie Pinggang stopping her.

After all, she had agreed to the long appointment with the Xie family first, and the Xie family was the employer. It was indeed not good for her to have any other thoughts.

“Then can I look for Master Now? Does Brother Xie know what she likes? I didn’t thank her earlier, but now I have finally saved some money. It is not a problem to buy something small for her,” Yu Xian said again.

Actually, her cousin had given her a few hundred taels of silver.

She did not want the silver.

Her cousin’s relationship with the family was not particularly good. He earned all the money by working hard every day. He had not married yet, so it was better for him to keep the money for himself.

The Xie family did not treat her unfairly.

“Master likes strange things, but I do know that she has a rooster that she raised with my sister. That rooster likes to eat dried insects, and Master loves that rooster very much.”

“Good! Then I’ll go look for dried insects! Thank you, Big Brother!” Yu Xian cupped her fists and thanked him, then she left quickly.

Like a gust of wind, she disappeared in a flash.

She had always been so straightforward, and Xie Pinggang did not think that she was rude. Instead, he felt that this person was easy to get along with. Straightforward and not manipulative. He felt at ease talking to her!

It was difficult to find dried insects.

After Yu Xian went out, she wandered around, but after searching for a long time, she did not find what she wanted.

Not only that, she was tired for four hours. Just as she sat down to rest, there was a person in front of her.

She had seen this person before.

"I remember you." Young Lady Zhou looked at Yu Xian and said, "Last time, you were with Young Lady Xie and Ms. Ying. I thought you looked familiar that time..."

"I've never seen you before. You've got the wrong person." Yu Xian's eyes flickered as she braced herself and said.

"You're lying." Young Lady Zhou frowned. "I've definitely seen you before. Y-You..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Yu Xian did not even dare to eat the dishes she ordered. She quickly put down some loose silver and immediately rushed out.

This young lady also looked familiar.

In the capital, she could not recognize many people. Other than the Xie family, it was the Wen family. If she had to guess, she would be the relative of the Zhou family.

However, she could not remember if this person was her cousin's step-sister or cousin.

She had only visited once many years ago. After so long, her appearance had changed. It was impossible to recognize her. However, she was afraid that this young lady would recognize her. If she were to inform the Zhou family, it would be troublesome for her!

After Yu Xian left, Young Lady Zhou could not help but pat her head. "I really have seen her before, but why can't I remember her..."

"Qiao'er, do you know her?" Young Lady Zhou looked at the maid servant next to her and asked..
