

ANNOUNCEMENT !!

Hey beautiful people!

Sorry but this is not an update, rather an announcement.

I'm sorry to say this but, I cannot update starting now until January 1-10. My province just witness a Super Typhoon. Many damages was created by the Typhoon. There won't be any electricity until I don't know when, but that is not my problem. My problem is there won't be any reception. ^a

I have to travel half an hour to get one or climb a mountain. And I'm telling y'all I claimed twice and bro I almost fell to my death 3 times. If it weren't for the log I would have fell. But did I climb again? YES. YES I DID TO TRY AND UPDATE. But sadly it was no use because it's really slow. But I still climb it though for the view and fresh air. Maybe then I can write and think more ideas while enjoying the view. Who knows maybe on my next update it will be like a machine gun with so many updates lol.

So to my beautiful readers I'm sorry. You can drop this if y'all want to I understand♥
