

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3236

It's not human at all!!

He also made up a lie about the 100,000-year-old snow lotus.

The main resources are still taken out by the dark doctors themselves and scattered everywhere according to their requirements.

It's like he was also deceived.

He was also insulted for his intelligence.

This is intolerable.

Especially now what comes to mind is that the one hundred thousand year snow lotus box contains a dry branch.

This scene is vivid in my mind.

It's an insult to them!

This hatred is no less than hatred for Hydra!

Levi Garrison smiled.

But anyone could see that Levi Garrison's smile was the most terrifying and murderous.

"Take my resources to seek revenge on Hydra, I won't say anything. In the end, you ran against me with my resources?"

Levi Garrison sneered again and again.

"It's okay, I said that you will be exposed sooner or later! Isn't that what?"

"I've prepared that dead branch for you. You really know how to choose. That dead branch is really like a sword!"

Levi Garrison's smile deepened.

"It doesn't matter, I will pierce your body with this sword! Participants will come one by one!"

Now that you know who it is.

Then don't worry.

Levi Garrison smiled and said, "Then we will calculate the old and new accounts together! Even today, you all came to stop me? Very good... Hahahaha..."

Levi Garrison stared in one direction and sneered again and again.

Many people around looked at Levi Garrison.

He thought that Levi Garrison couldn't participate in the auction and was sneering.

At this time, the people sent by the revenge Hydra organization saw that Levi Garrison was sneering.

They also feel very refreshed!

He thought that Levi Garrison had no choice but to watch his daughter's hope be auctioned off.

Little did they know that Levi Garrison's smile was because of them.

They have been targeted by Levi Garrison.

"Should I warn them and prepare them to die?"

Doctor Dark can't wait to take revenge immediately.

"Calm down! Be patient! Wouldn't it be better to wait until we arrive?"

Levi Garrison shook his head.

"And what about the mysterious force that controls Yan Zangsheng? Is there any clue?"

Levi Garrison asked.

"Currently, there is no news from the Huoyun Evil God, it is estimated that these people are very cunning!"

"How do I feel like this group of people wearing masks is them? And not entrusted to someone else?"

Doctor Dark looked at the people on the stage and couldn't help but say.

Levi Garrison smiled: "Don't worry, if they finally complete the auction. We can't just grab it? Let's see who is under the mask then?"

Levi Garrison and the others were already waiting.

This time the harvest is not small.

At least the organization of the revenge Hydra has been identified.

It was only the "local tyrants" who suddenly appeared that gave Levi Garrison a headache.

This guy's resources are no less than his own.

Where did it come from?

Now the last magic medicine auction has started.

There are still many people who have started.

But as soon as this guy made his move, the audience was shocked.

Many people are starting to get overwhelmed.

It's almost reaching its limit.

If you want to compete for resources, only Levi Garrison will fight this one.

It's just that Levi Garrison was banned from participating in the auction.

There is no way.

Only one person can be alone.

But Levi Garrison is not idle either.

He looked at a competing buyer not far away.

This one is from Snow Leopard Country.

Levi Garrison said directly: "I will lend you resources for free to compete with him!"

The Snow Leopard Country agreed without hesitation.

It's free to borrow anyway.

never mind.

"Thirty thousand aura crystals!"

He called out a price directly.

This made the whole audience stunned.

The 25,000 yuan of the mysterious person just now had already crushed the audience.

Why is anyone showing up now?

"No! It was Levi Garrison who controlled his bidding! It doesn't count!"

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3237

Several people from Hydra immediately said, putting pressure on the person in charge.

And the people from the organization of revenge Hydra also refused.

They were shouting, saying that nothing counts.

Even a mysterious person said, "Is this inappropriate? Isn't it that Levi Garrison didn't participate in the auction? Is this a foul?"

He originally thought of auctioning off this magical medicine at a low price.

No one can interfere with him.

It made him happy.

As a result, someone suddenly appeared, how could he be happy?

The person in charge of the auction immediately shouted: "Levi Garrison, what do you mean? Didn't you say it? You can't participate in the auction! What's the matter with you?"

"If you want to do this, we will not auction this magical medicine, and then you will find Levi Garrison for everything!"

As soon as the words came out.

Everyone refused.

They began to warn Levi Garrison one after another.

Levi Garrison said: "Which one of your eyes saw me participating in the auction? Did I call? This is what someone called!"

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country immediately said: "Yes, I called it, it has nothing to do with him!"

"No, you didn't participate in the auction! But people related to you can't participate in the auction! In that case, the auction item is not in your hands? The rules I said before are clear!"

The person in charge of the auction said immediately.

Levi Garrison sneered: "I don't even know who he is! How could it be related to him?"

The representative of Snow Leopard also said: "Yeah, I don't know him either. I really don't know him well!"

He responded very quickly: "I'm just borrowing resources. I'm borrowing resources from everyone around me. He's willing to lend me resources."

Levi Garrison immediately agreed: "That's right, I just borrowed his resources."

It's just that the person in charge of the auction stared at the representative of the Snow Leopard Country and asked, "But you borrowed the resources, can you afford it? Don't be able to pay it back then, and mortgage the magic medicine to Levi Garrison!"

At this time, Levi Garrison said: "I'm sorry, I lent him for free! There is no need to pay it back!"

"I, Levi Garrison, put my words here. I have too many resources and I have nowhere to spend! I lent him for free! What's the matter?"

As soon as the words came out.

Everyone is going to be stupid.

This.....

Borrow for free? ? ?

“Is there any objection now? I continue!”

The representative of Snow Leopard said.

The man also immediately said: “Fifty thousand aura crystals!”

Levi Garrison’s participation in it was rather interesting for him.

At least one more competitor.

Otherwise it’s too boring.

Anyway, he believes that his resources are not lost to Levi Garrison at all.

He is not afraid!

It’s just that several people in charge of the auction got together to discuss.

“Eighty thousand aura crystals!”

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country shouted.

“One hundred thousand aura crystals!”

The two sides began to soar.

After all, they are both resource-rich.

Not afraid.

Just do it right away.

...

This is definitely the most terrifying auction everyone has ever seen.

Everything is called without money.

So many aura crystals may not even be as good as War Bear Kingdom.

As a result, people here, frantically squandering.

Both sides are bound to win.

There is a posture of screaming each other to death!

Hungry!

Too greedy!

Who is not jealous with so many Reiki crystals?

If they get part of it, they'll all be developed.

Enough to form a force comparable to a big country.

unimaginable!

Soon, the two sides soared to 300,000 aura crystals.

But both sides still disagree with each other!

And the stance of continuing to shout.

"Come on, go on! Who's afraid of whom?"

The man shouted wildly.

There is still a fight between the two sides.

Levi Garrison smiled: "Keep shouting! At least one million yuan, right?"

At this time, several auction directors came over.

It seems that they have come up with a bad trick...

How to deal with Levi Garrison's bad move.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3238

They never expected Levi Garrison to make such a move before.

Catch them off guard.

Therefore, they immediately began to discuss countermeasures.

Fortunately, I finally figured it out.

They grinned wickedly and looked at Levi Garrison.

The auction in the field has come to a white-hot state.

“Come on, let’s continue!”

The man shouted frantically: “350,000 aura crystals! I don’t believe you can follow me?”

After the representative of the Snow Leopard Country got Levi Garrison’s advice, he didn’t care.

Anyway, no matter how much you shout, someone will tell you the truth.

Just now, Levi Garrison also clearly stated that at least one million yuan is required to start.

This is where?

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country raised his hand confidently: “Then forty...”

But when he was about to shout, the person in charge of the auction on the stage directly shouted: “Okay, 350,000 yuan, once, twice, three times, the deal!”

“boom!!!”

He shouted too fast.

Don’t give any chance at all.

“ten thousand.....”

Wait until the auction director has made a final decision.

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country only shouted a 4D.

It can be seen how fast the person in charge of the auction speaks.

Don’t give anyone else a chance to shout at all!

But the final word came too quickly, and the audience was caught off guard.

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country was stunned.

Levi Garrison was also stunned.

Everyone in the audience was stunned.

Including the man behind War Eagle Nation and Hydra, they were all stunned.

this this this...

what's the situation?

Is there such an operation?

It's true I didn't think of it!

"Impressed!"

Doctor Dark and the others were also full of astonishment.

And such?

Don't let buyers bid?

Seller directly confirmed!

On the stage, the person in charge of the auction said with a smile: "Then congratulations to this gentleman for taking this magical medicine!"

Even the man was dumbfounded.

He was ready to fight with Levi Garrison to the end.

As a result, it was announced that the magic medicine belonged to him.

He didn't even make a move.

"Hey, what's the matter, I haven't shouted yet?"

"I didn't give up, I still have to increase the price!"

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country was anxious and immediately shouted.

No matter how you say it, people won't care.

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country naturally refused.

How can anyone be bullied like that.

Just the person in charge of the auction sneered: "Is there? Why didn't I hear you shouting! No one shouted, I'm sure!"

The representative of the Snow Leopard Country was anxious, and immediately said: "He called for 350,000 yuan...I want to call for 400,000 yuan! As a result, just as I was about to call, you gave the hammer..."

The person in charge of the auction sneered: "I didn't see you shouting at all, I clearly saw you were going to give up..."

"I waited for a full minute and saw no one shouting before I was sure! Where did you shout?"

Snow Leopard Country representative: "...".

Is this full of nonsense?

Still waiting a minute?

Don't see yourself yet?

This is downright bullsh*t!

To distort the facts, to reverse right and wrong black and white!

"That's right, I didn't see you shouting! Everyone waited for a minute, and you didn't shout!"

"Yeah, we didn't even see it!"

"Yeah, we've been on stage all the time, we didn't see you shouting!"

Others also spoke up.

Even the Hydra and the organization of the revenge Hydra ran out one after another.

"We can testify! After a minute, no one shouted! That's for sure!"

"Yeah, don't quibble! The eyes of the masses are sharp!"

"I've never seen a shameless person like you!"

"Yes, yes! It's you who are lying!"

...

There were almost such voices in the audience, and they wanted to make fun of this matter.

The representatives of the Snow Leopard Country are speechless! Want to cry without tears!

Who is kidding?

Who is shameless?

Relying on the large number of people, he directly distorted the facts and blamed everything on him.

Shameless!!!

“Ho ho...”

Levi Garrison smiled directly.

For these guys, there is such an operation, it is not surprising at all.

For yourself, it's all kinds of rogues.

Otherwise it doesn't fit their style!

In order to prevent myself from bidding, I really used all kinds of methods.

Do everything possible.

I just want to let myself watch this magical medicine being auctioned off by others, and to make Levilia's hope abruptly rectified.

but it does not matter.

He didn't want to bid for it.

He's going to steal it!

This group of people thought that there was a secret lock, and it was useless to grab it by themselves, and they would not open it at all.

But who would have thought that someone around Levi Garrison knew about the secret lock and hoped to open it.

So he grabbed something to try.

If you don't grab it, there is no chance at all.

"Clap clap clap..."

Levi Garrison also began to applaud.

"good very good!"

The person in charge of the auction smiled at Levi Garrison: "Probably Mr. Ye thinks so too?"

"Yes, that's right!"

Levi Garrison smiled.

The person in charge of the auction took a deep look at Levi Garrison and said with a smile, "The magic medicine belongs to this gentleman!"

As soon as he spoke, his men immediately handed the box to the man in person.

In front of Levi Garrison!

Hydra and others targeting Levi Garrison are happy.

In the end, this magical medicine did not fall into Levi Garrison's hands.

Moreover, this buyer has such terrifying resources, and his strength must not be underestimated.

Although everyone doesn't know who he is, everyone is not worried, Levi Garrison can get benefits from him.

Now everyone's task is complete.

Levi Garrison didn't let Levi Garrison get this magical medicine.

Even the head of the auction has done their job.

After all, Levi Garrison still had no hope of seeing his daughter.

"Let people start to stare! So many resources will definitely be revealed! In addition, this mysterious force has transported so many resources, I can't believe it can disappear out of thin air? Let's see where they can transport these to?"

Levi Garrison whispered to the dark doctor.

The problem of the delivery of resources is the clue that can really find out their identity.

After all, it is a piece of aura crystal, bad luck.

“Sir, take this secret box away first! After you are sure it is safe, we will send someone to unlock this secret lock for you!”

said the auctioneer.

They will not give Levi Garrison the slightest chance.

“Okay, I’ll have someone send the aura crystal back later!”

That person doesn’t care.

“Send it anytime! We trust sir!”

said the auctioneer.

The Lord in front of him didn’t care about these resources at all, so they weren’t worried.

“Then sir, leave first! Just in case!”

The person in charge of the auction asked this person to leave first.

At this time, the person sent by Hydra said: “For the safety of Mr. Zhanxiong, the War Bear Kingdom has decided to send 200 gods to protect you from leaving!”

In order not to give Levi Garrison any chance, Hydra even arranged a large number of gods around.

The person in charge of the auction was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, “Then trouble the gods of Zhanxiong Nation!”

All this is for Levi Garrison.

Although they don’t take Levi Garrison seriously.

But recently I heard that there are many masters around Levi Garrison.

There are many gods in the big summer gods who are Levi Garrison’s brothers and apprentices.

They even knew that there was a super expert by Levi Garrison's side, and he found the magic medicine repeatedly.

Therefore, they are worried about the people around Levi Garrison, not because they are afraid of Levi Garrison.

Under the escort, the mysterious man left here first.

The person in charge of the auction looked at the audience and said, "Just please stay here for a while! We are afraid of any misunderstandings and incidents! Please forgive me!"

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3240

As soon as these words came out, the audience continued to discuss.

It sounds so good.

In fact, it is to temporarily imprison everyone.

No one thought of it.

In the end, everyone was imprisoned.

Don't let go for now?

Why?

Hydra made you want to resist, but they all smiled knowingly when they thought of it.

This is still to guard against Levi Garrison.

To be precise, it is to guard against the people around Levi Garrison.

control these people.

It is also necessary to temporarily control these people in the auction venue and not allow them to leave.

But the eyes of the person in charge of the auction suddenly fell on Levi Garrison. He smiled and said, "It's our fault that Mr. Ye didn't participate in the last auction item just now. In order to compensate Mr. Ye, Mr. Ye can leave early! But you can only be alone, the others have to wait!"

on purpose!

Let Levi Garrison leave, but leave all the people like Doctor Dark.

The purpose is to make Levi Garrison helpless.

Even if he has the intention to snatch the magic medicine, he is not strong enough by himself.

Then you can only watch the opportunity slip away.

Immersed in helplessness and struggle.

It's torture for a person, especially a father.

Heart but powerless.

There is no more desperate time for a person than this, right?

They did this on purpose, let Levi Garrison go alone, and trapped all his powerful companions here.

However, what they didn't know was that the most powerful among them was Levi Garrison.

Not anyone else.

The others combined can't compare to Levi Garrison alone.

It can be said that among this group of people, Levi Garrison should not be released.

It just so happened that Levi Garrison's plan here was to do it himself, and let the dark doctor check the true identity of this group of mysterious forces.

As a result, people delivered it directly to the door.

Let yourself go first.

Just leave the dark doctors and they check their identities here!

Exactly, the mysterious person will send 350,000 pieces of aura crystals right away.

At that time, the identities of both parties can be checked.

It's best for them to stay here.

"I thank you all!"

Levi Garrison smiled and left.

But Levi Garrison's words, thank you, were helpless to them.

After Levi Garrison left.

disappeared immediately.

He immediately caught up with the mysterious man who had just left.

Sure enough, there are two hundred gods of the War Bear Kingdom protecting him.

But this is nothing to Levi Garrison.

The big deal is to kill with one sword.

Levi Garrison directly chased after him.

"Stop boy!"

Levi Garrison quickly stopped in front of this group of people.

The mysterious man was visibly surprised.

He never thought that Levi Garrison would catch up.

No wonder the group sent someone to protect themselves.

It turns out that there really is such a problem.

But he couldn't figure out how Levi Garrison knew his whereabouts and caught up with him.

After leaving the island, he disappeared.

No one will know.

How is he?

The mysterious man looked at Levi Garrison suspiciously.

They actually knew about this existence that was regarded as a lifelong enemy by the War Eagle Nation and even the Lab of the Gods.

It's just that they don't care, they don't care at all.

After they appeared this time, they wanted to play the enemy of War Eagle Nation's life.

I want to tell these people in the Sky Shield Bureau that the powerful enemy you think is just a toy in his hands.

But now Levi Garrison made him suspicious.

"Good, give me the box in your hand!"

Levi Garrison stretched out his hand and said.

The mysterious man was obviously taken aback.

The two hundred War Bear Kingdom gods who escorted him were also stunned.

What's this?

An upright robbery?

The mysterious man smiled and said, "This is your lost mechanism in the summer – the secret lock. Are you sure you have the box, can you open it?"

"Then I'm not sure, but, you can show it to me first!"

Levi Garrison said coldly.
