

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3801

Town Magic Division.

Since the news that Tiansi is about to return with several legendary powers in the world came.

The Town Demon Division was full of joy.

The lifeless scene of the past has completely disappeared.

The days of sighing are finally coming to an end.

Gone is the miserable life of fearing like a mouse crossing the street.

The Qianqiu Religion and Levi Garrison are no longer a threat.

Everyone is looking forward to the return of the King of Heaven.

“Finally, we can revive the reputation of our Town Demon Division.”

“It’s time for our Town Demon Division to take revenge.”

“Killing Qianqiu Sect and deterring Levi Garrison, we are finally going to stand up again.”

All are very excited.

The situation of Zhen Mosi will be formed soon when Ling Jueding looks at the mountains and small mountains.

Inside the corpse pit.

Since Tiansi and Xuanming were about to return, Gong Qianqiu sent out most of the elites.

She needs to collect all kinds of information in order to better plan the next step.

Therefore, only a few dead soldiers were left behind at the base camp.

Of course, it is mainly to guard Yufengtiansi, the top ten Tianjiao of Zhenmosi, Xu Qingya and others.

Inside a dark secret room.

Yufeng Tiansi, who was tortured to the brink of being hammered to death, suddenly opened his eyes.

The originally cloudy eyes were now extremely bright.

Even with a frightening light.

If you look closely, you will find that Yufeng Tiansi's body is covered with a dim energy luster.

And these energies are quickly repairing the wounds on his body.

I don't know how long ago, Yufeng Tiansi, who was originally skinny and skinny.

The surface layer of the skin became smooth and radiant.

The original scarred skin was like a stripped snake skin, blown to the ground by a slight energy breath.

"call!"

Yufeng Tiansi let out a sigh of relief.

The mental state of the whole person is refreshed.

Even the aura fluctuations between gestures and gestures are much stronger.

"what?"

There were whispers from the dark corners.

Although the top ten talents have been dug up and their skills have been completely absorbed, they were once geniuses out of ten thousand.

It has a very keen perception of breath fluctuations and changes.

What's more, Yufeng Tiansi was dying before, and he was about to die in Huangquan.

How could the breath suddenly intensify so much?

"Shh!"

Yufeng Tiansi made a silent gesture.

Although the light in the secret room was dim, the others had already adapted, so they immediately held their breath and waited for instructions.

Clap!

Yufeng Tiansi exerted his strength lightly, and the steel shackles that bound his hands and feet were abruptly broken.

This time, the top ten Tianjiao, Xu Qingya and others were even more shocked.

You must know that this pair of shackles was specially made by Gong Qianqiu, and I was afraid that something might go wrong.

Even when their strength is at its peak, it is not so easy to break it with breath.

However, Yufeng Tiansi did it easily.

"His strength has recovered?"

"How is this possible!"

"Yufengtian's skill has been completely swallowed up!"

Everyone's mind was full of doubts.

But Yufeng Tiansi regained his strength, which was a big happy event for them.

"You don't have to ask, I will save you all next."

Yufeng Tiansi said in a low voice.

In fact, even Gong Qianqiu underestimated Yufeng Tiansi.

He is a medical genius himself, and he actually hides a few life-saving medicinal pills on his body.

Even if Miya Qianqiu's famous people searched in detail, they could not find it.

So Yufeng Tiansi found an opportunity to take the medicine pill, and his skill recovered quickly.

"Thank you Yufeng Tiansi!"

The top ten Tianjiao and others were moved to tears.

They had been completely desperate.

After all, in the face of such a level of guards, his own skills have been absorbed as much as possible, and he can't escape no matter what.

But now there is hope for life.

It's incredible!

Yufeng Tiansi slowly stood up and moved his muscles.

After confirming that his power was fully recovered, he quickly walked to the other person's side.

Divide the few remaining pills into multiple portions, and put them into the mouths of the top ten Tianjiao and others.

"You absorb the power of the medicinal herbs according to the exercise method taught by me, and remember to control your breath."

"Otherwise, the aura fluctuations will easily be detected by experts."

Yufeng Tiansi gave a warning, and then quickly informed everyone about the cultivation method.

The top ten Tianjiao and others were overjoyed and hurriedly followed what Yufeng Tiansi said.

Quickly running the exercises, the power of the medicinal herbs is also quickly absorbed by the body.

Due to the limited number of medicinal pills, and their root bones were dug up, they only recovered 20 to 30 percent of their peak state.

On the contrary, Xu Qingya had recovered 50% to 60% of her strength, and one could imagine how terrifying the effect of this medicinal pill was.

Feeling the aura fluctuations in the body again, everyone was excited again.

“Have you recovered almost?”

After a long time, Yufeng Tiansi asked with a serious face.

The crowd nodded.

“There is still more than half an hour before the guards deliver the meal. When the time comes, I will help you fight a bloody path.”

Yufeng Tiansi quickly formulated a battle plan.

Although he has recovered his cultivation, he is not sure whether Gong Qianqiu and Duguxiao are guarding outside.

After all, the strength of these two people has surpassed Yufeng Tiansi. If they deliberately hide it, he will not be able to find it.

Everyone obeyed the instructions, and they all knew that this was the only chance to escape, and there was no room for mistakes.

Otherwise, if Gong Qianqiu knew of the attempted escape, the consequences would be disastrous.

Time passed slowly, and there were light footsteps outside the secret room.

“coming!”

Yufeng Tiansi's eyes narrowed slightly, hiding directly in the dark footsteps.

Boom!

The door was opened, and the two dead guards threw a basin of what looked like pig food on the ground.

"Several dead dogs, your dog food is here, come and eat..."

Before the death guard had finished speaking, he suddenly felt that he was enveloped by an extremely strong aura of death.

Immediately afterwards, the back of the head was slammed, and the brain was cracked.

The corpse fell to the ground!

"Be careful behind you!"

The companion next to him reminded him that he, who originally planned to help, suddenly felt that his neck was tightly clasped.

Clap!

The sound of broken bones sounded.

The dead guard instantly turned into a corpse.

Although Yufengtiansi's strength is not comparable to Gong Qianqiu and Duguxiao, it is definitely a dimensionality reduction blow to the dead.

"Walk!"

Yufeng Tiansi rushed out first.

There are several elite dead soldiers outside.

However, they were powerless against Shang Yufeng Tiansi.

In this way, Yufeng Tiansi led the crowd to fight a bloody path.

Everyone rushed out of the mass grave cell, greedily breathing the fresh air.

The feeling of being free again really excited them.

"Let's act separately, so that even if Gong Qianqiu comes back, it will not be wiped out."

“Return to Zhenmo Division as soon as possible or find Levi Garrison directly.”

“I’m afraid he is the only one who can put pressure on Gong Qianqiu now.”

Yufeng Tiansi said solemnly.

Everyone nodded, not daring to stay in place, and quickly escaped from the corpse pit.

Although there are not many members of the Qianqiu Sect left behind in Wanshikeng, this is the stronghold of the Qianqiu Sect after all.

The dead soldiers who were on duty returned in batches, and the situation that Yufeng Tiansi and others escaped was soon discovered.

“Report to the sect master, Yufeng Tiansi and the others were taken away.”

The dead guard reported directly to Gong Qianqiu.

In his opinion, Yufeng Tiansi, Xu Qingya, and the others only had one breath left, and it was absolutely impossible for them to take the initiative to escape.

Gong Qianqiu was furious when he heard the report.

“A bunch of trash, even a few dying people can’t watch.”

“Everyone is dispatched, be sure to catch them back.”

Gong Qianqiu gave an order, and tens of thousands of Qianqiu sects collectively dispatched to arrest people.

Mass grave.

Qianqiu Education Base Camp.

Gong Qianqiu’s face was sinking like water, and the entire hall was silent.

The core executives of Qianqiu Sect did not even dare to let out the atmosphere, for fear that the anger of Gong Qianqiu would be affected by Chi Yu.

The top ten Tianjiao and Yufeng Tiansi successfully escaped, which is a shame for Gong Qianqiu.

These people have too much inside information.

Especially his true identity and provoking the relationship between Zhen Mosi and Levi Garrison.

Once spread out, the anger of Zhen Mosi and Levi Garrison will probably focus on themselves.

Although Gong Qianqiu has absolute confidence in his own strength, Tiansi's upcoming return is a variable after all.

In addition, Xuan Ming's attitude towards himself after his return is unknown.

Although Gong Qianqiu saved Duguxiao's life at the beginning, Xuan Ming may not be able to repay his gratitude.

It is even necessary to prevent these anti-bone boys from taking the opportunity to annex Qianqiu Sect.

"It really gives me some headaches!"

Gong Qianqiu gently pressed the temple.

"What exactly went wrong?"

Gong Qianqiu's thoughts were turning rapidly.

The top ten Tianjiao, Xu Qingya and others were like that at the time.

It should be impossible to have the strength to escape.

"Yufengtiansi!"

It should be him!

Gong Qianqiu suddenly realized that Yufeng Tiansi was known as the most outstanding medical genius in the past century.

At the same time, he is also extremely talented in alchemy, so he should have left behind.

Use the medicinal pill to quickly restore the cultivation base.

"I really underestimated the immortal Yufeng Tiansi."

Gong Qianqiu regretted a little.

Knowing this earlier, it would be better to directly end up Yufeng Tiansi's life!

Once the matter leaks, Levi Garrison has nothing to worry about.

But Tiansi will return soon, and the first thing must be Liwei.

Then he, the culprit who almost destroyed the Town Demon Division, would bear the brunt of being a living target.

It is not known to what extent Tiansi's strength has reached, and it is uncertain how terrifying the power he will bring back will be.

Thinking of this Gong Qianqiu, I felt irritable.

"Listen to me, Yufeng Tiansi must be brought back."

Gong Qianqiu said coldly.

"Yes!"

Qianqiu Jiaojiao replied in unison.

"Duguxiao, you divide the dead soldiers you trained into two groups."

"On the one hand, there is a blanket search and pursuit."

"On the other hand, all the major factions of the Demon Suppression Division will be surrounded, and Yufeng Tiansi and the others will not be allowed to approach the Demon Suppression Division half a step."

Gong Qianqiu said solemnly.

Duguxiao took the lead and left.

Although Duguxiao had learned that his biological father Xuan Ming was about to return, he still willingly followed Gong Qianqiu.

In his opinion, Gong Qianqiu has the strength, skill and strategy, and is definitely a leader that is rare in a century.

Doing things with such a person will sooner or later set foot on the pinnacle of life.

As for his plans after his biological father's return, there is no need to think about it now.

"Master Bone, you also personally bring all the killers to inquire!"

Master Bone also took orders to leave, and he and Duguxiao had basically the same idea.

Especially the Bone Master was expelled by the Demon Suppression Division before, and now he feels even more overjoyed when he meets the Ming Master.

During this period of time, Duguxiao tried his best to train dead soldiers, and the Ten Temple Yama and Seven Killing Organizations all became the dead soldiers of Qianqiu Sect.

Especially these people belong to the business ranks.

Gong Qianqiu also provided them with a simplified version of the extreme swallowing exercise.

In addition, after the spiritual veins erupted again, the spiritual energy was sufficient, so these people's strength has improved rapidly recently.

It just came in handy now.

Sending so many people to chase and kill, Gong Qianqiu is still a little uneasy.

So he personally led a group of dead soldiers to hunt down.

Gong Qianqiu has already decided that as long as he encounters resistance during this pursuit, he will kill the top ten Tianjiao and others on the spot.

After escaping from the corpse pit, Yufeng Tiansi and the others were directly divided into three teams to escape for their lives in order not to be caught in one go.
