

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3835

Knowing that Tiansi was about to popularize the Kunlun Ruins, all the members of the Zhenmo Division cheered.

The crowd was like elementary school students preparing for class, waiting intently for the teacher to step onto the podium to start the class.

"The people in the Kunlun Ruins have just been born, and even if they haven't gone through any training, they can achieve the strength I was looking for."

Tian Si said solemnly.

This opening remark is like a huge boulder thrown into a calm lake from a high altitude.

The scene immediately boiled.

"As expected of a holy place for cultivation!"

"It's too terrifying to be able to reach the realm of Tian Si's time at birth!"

"Is this the legendary winning at the starting line?"

...

Tian Si waved his hand, and the scene gradually quieted down, but everyone could no longer hide their longing for Kunlun Ruins.

Just imagine the realm that few people can achieve in the secular world with their lifelong efforts to cultivate.

As a result, he was born in Kunlun Ruins and possessed it. One can imagine how strong this huge temptation is.

"The spiritual energy in the Kunlun Ruins is extremely abundant. Even if you don't practice any exercises, simply soaking in the spiritual energy can greatly improve your cultivation."

"Because of this, there are many treasures in the Kunlun Ruins."

"Any piece of heaven and earth treasure can make people change their lives against the sky."

"The medicinal pills refined from these natural and earthly treasures are even more magical. Washing the meridians and cutting the marrow to evolve the root bones is a common practice."

"There are even some medicinal pills that can directly increase a person's strength by several levels."

Tian Si talked eloquently, and the eyes of all the members of the Zhen Mo Si were blazing.

"The exercises inherited from the Kunlun Ruins sect belong to the ancestors."

"As far as the Qi refining technique of our Demon Suppression Division is concerned, it actually comes from Kunlun Ruins."

"It's just that for the real qi refining technique of Kunlun Ruins, it's just a skin."

Everyone was shocked again, they didn't think that Zhenmo Division was actually inherited from Kunlun Ruins.

No wonder it once stood on top of the secular world.

However, it is only the skin of some exercises that can reach such a level, which further illustrates the horror of Kunlun Ruins.

"Furthermore, there are many super spiritual veins in Kunlun Ruins. Of course, I mean super spiritual veins in the true sense."

"Take the super spiritual veins that our town demons rely on to survive, which can be seen everywhere in Kunlun Ruins."

"It can even be said that this level of spiritual veins belongs to the basic spiritual veins in the Kunlun Ruins."

Tian Si took a sip of tea and looked at his subordinates with fascinated faces, full of superiority in his heart.

The strength of his own is common in Kunlun Ruins, and he is called to and fro by some great powers as if they were grandsons.

I am afraid that only here can you find your own dignity and glory.

"Tiansi, what are the super spiritual veins in the Kunlun Ruins like?"

The temporary interlocutor of Shentianjian asked aloud.

The others also pricked up their ears and listened carefully.

Tian Si coughed twice and said, "Take the spiritual veins I found when I was searching for the Tianmen Gate of Kunlun Ruins. The spiritual energy contained in it has a golden luster."

"Spiritual veins of this level are called divine veins, and divine veins are the entry-level spiritual veins of Kunlun Ruins."

"The firmament sect I belong to has seven divine veins, as well as higher-level holy veins, which are red."

"There is no holy vein in the sky sect. I am afraid that only those super sects have the spiritual vein of this level."

Speaking of the last Tiansi, it is a bit regretful, after all, the Sky Sect is a lower-level sect in the Kunlun Ruins.

"Tiansi, do you think it is possible for him to have a divine vein or a holy vein in our secular world?"

Someone asked again.

"No way!"

Tian Si responded without any hesitation: "Divine veins and holy veins are rare spiritual veins even in Kunlun Ruins, how can they exist in the secular world?"

"Take ten thousand steps back, if the secular world has this level of spiritual veins, once the spiritual energy erupts, it will be a disaster for the entire human race."

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3836

Tian Si said this without exaggerating.

According to his understanding, the power of divine veins and holy veins is extremely terrifying, and once the spiritual energy is released, ordinary people simply cannot bear it.

Although it is said that the explosion of spiritual energy will create opportunities for many talented people to reach the sky, but the vast majority of the world is ordinary people after all.

Their physical quality simply cannot withstand the impact of such pure spiritual energy, and even the spiritual energy on the edge of the divine vein can kill ordinary people in an instant.

Therefore, it is impossible for the divine veins to appear in the secular world, let alone the sacred veins.

"There are also some spiritual veins with special properties, which are also very rare."

Tiansi continued to popularize the Kunlun Ruins: "Just like the medicine veins, it can nourish the body of the meridians of the human body, and at the same time, it can also nurture the treasures of heaven and earth."

"Furthermore, there are spiritual veins that possess the power of elements, such as fire attribute spiritual veins, which can nourish and forge weapons."

"As for the spiritual veins of other elemental powers, it is equivalent to practicing cheating for practitioners who practice the corresponding attribute exercises."

"Take this master's kendo as an example. To nourish the sword, use the metal spiritual veins and use the gold element spiritual veins to assist, and the practice will be more effective with half the effort."

Everyone suddenly realized that the spiritual veins had said so much.

This Kunlun Ruins is really amazing.

"Tian Si, how powerful is this Kunlun Ruins?" The curious asked again.

Tian Si stroked his beard and said, "There are many sects in the Kunlun Ruins, and there are too many super strong people."

"Let's put it this way, the Sky Sect I belong to is a low-level sect in the Kunlun Ruins."

"Those super sects with top combat power, even if only one Tianjiao level powerhouse is sent, they can destroy the small and medium sects."

Whoa whoa whoa!

The discussion came one after another again.

"Kunlun Ruins is too scary, isn't it?"

"It's more than just two words to describe horror? It can clearly be called the Palace of God!"

"If only I could enter the Kunlun Ruins!"

"Can you be awake in the daytime, and want to dream until the night is not fragrant?"

Tiansi continued: "The Taixu Shenzong that Xuan Ming worshipped belongs to a middle-class sect. In terms of comprehensive strength, the Cang Qiong Sect cannot compare with it."

"Tian Si, don't scare me. According to this, Xuan Ming's return this time, don't we only have the share of being slaughtered by others?"

Everyone suddenly became nervous and looked at Tian Si with bright eyes.

However, they found that Tian Si looked calm and did not have the slightest panic.

"The fact that the sect is strong does not mean that the people brought by Xuan Ming are powerful."

Seeing that everyone was still full of doubts, Tiansi explained: "As Xuanming, you can't get in touch with the core powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong at all."

"So this time, the people brought by Xuan Ming are all ordinary geniuses, and they can't be compared with the young master and the first elder."

People can understand this kind of rhetoric.

As far as the original Zhenmo Division was concerned, the ordinary disciples of Wufang Pavilion were bullied, and it was absolutely impossible to invite Tiansi level powerhouses to stand up for them.

At most, ask an ordinary Tianjiao to help.

But if some minor sect members are bullied, then the elder-level powerhouses in the minor sect may take action.

The elders of the small sects are generally stronger than the ordinary Tianjiao of the large sects.

This is the difference between being in a denominational size.

Of course, the big sect relies on the big tree to enjoy the shade, but the fate of ordinary disciples is not necessarily better than that of the disciples of small sects.

"It seems that you still have some doubts, so let me ask the young master to show his hands a little."

In order to stabilize the military, Tian Si directly found Xie Huanyu.

Xie Huanyu readily agreed, he couldn't easily miss the opportunity to appear in front of such a person.

Xie Huanyu came to the high platform, still with an aloof look on his face.

Suddenly released the breath in the body, a vast energy coercion quickly spread out.

The violent energy coercion covered the members of the town magic division overwhelmingly.

A lot of people with lesser cultivations were directly blown away by the cyclone formed by the power.

Even the disciples who were barely standing still felt a surge of qi and blood in their bodies.

The whole person seems to be pressed down by an invisible mountain, and even breathing is a little trapped.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

Everyone fell to the ground unconsciously.

In the end, even Tiansi fell to his knees.

Everyone was deterred by the terrorist forces that Xie Huanyu showed.

It is like ordinary people who see the gods descend to the world and worship them out of instinct.

When Xie Huanyu saw this situation, the corners of his mouth twitched slightly, and he really enjoyed the feeling of ruling over the world.

"Young Master, please hurry up and restrain your breath. If you continue, these people are afraid that all casualties will be exhausted."

Tiansi's voice was trembling, and his tone was full of pleading.

"Also, these mortals are like ants, how can they bear the power of gods?"

Xie Huanyu sneered.

Immediately after he restrained his breath, the terrifying energy pressure just now disappeared instantly.

Everyone in the town of Demons was relieved and let out a sigh of relief.

"The young master's strength is so terrifying, it's like a god came into the world!"

"Just releasing the breath will have such coercion, and I am afraid that fighting can destroy the sky and the earth."

"This is the powerhouse of Kunlun Ruins, so terrifying!"

"I used to think that Levi Garrison was the invincible god of war, but he was really a frog at the bottom of the well!"

"Now it seems that compared with the young master, Levi Garrison is just like an ant, and it is not worth mentioning at all."

"How can the light of the firefly compete with Haoyue?"

The young master really gave Zhen Mo Si an eye-opener today.

At the same time, they became more and more fascinated by Kunlun Ruins.

"Respected young master, can we enter the Kunlun Ruins?"

"Yes, young master, I beg you to show mercy and let us go to the Kunlun Ruins to practice!"

"I beg the young master to give us a chance."

The eyes of everyone in Zhen Mosi were full of prayer and fiery.

They really want to enter the Kunlun Ruins, and they also want to experience the feeling of a god coming into the world.

Xie Huanyu sneered and ordered Tiansi: "This seat is exhausted, it's up to you to explain it to them!"

"Abide by the law of the young master." Tiansi said respectfully.

Then he got up slowly, and said to everyone in a deep voice, "Everyone, Kunlun Ruins are extremely strict in the selection of monks in the secular world, and only geniuses out of ten have the opportunity to enter."

"Even if there is a sect with a profound background like Zhen Mosi, there are probably no more than five people who are qualified to enter the Kunlun Ruins."

A stone stirred up a thousand waves.

Everyone was shocked and full of emotion.

"As expected of the Kunlun Ruins, our Demon Suppression Division is the strength of the peak sect in the secular world, and no more than five people are eligible."

"It's no wonder that anyone from Kunlun Ruins who comes to us is a peak powerhouse, so it makes sense."

"Kunlun Ruins is a fairyland, if it is not a peerless genius, it is indeed not worthy to enter it."

The sense of superiority of the people in Zhen Mosi was gone in front of the terrifying Kunlun Ruins.

The only thing left in my heart is longing and awe.

"Tiansi, we have you and the young master in charge, shouldn't it be time for those who bullied us to pay a heavy price?"

Shen Tianjian's temporary talker said solemnly.

"Yes, Tiansi, we just hope that your king will return and revive the prestige of the Demon Suppression Division!"

"Levi Garrison seems to be using us as tools during this period of time, calling and drinking."

"If our top ten talents were not injured by him, they would not have fallen into the hands of the Qianqiu Sect."

Everyone was filled with righteous indignation, and they seemed to have reached the level of verbal criticism towards Levi Garrison.

Tian Si said angrily: "Don't worry, since this seat is back, Levi Garrison will definitely pay a heavy price for what he has done."
