

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3838

Tian Si was indeed very angry that a monkey dared to ride on Zhen Mo Si's head to make a fortune.

It really deserves death!

"Levi Garrison deceives people too much, and his crime should be punished. You just need to listen to my orders."

Tian Si's voice was like a bell, making everyone feel inexplicable peace of mind.

"This statement is reasonable. You are the helmsman of my Cang Qiong faction. The sect you created has been so humiliated by others, and this seat will definitely not sit idly by."

Xie Huanyu said lightly.

"What the young master said is very true, you just let go and do it, and I will support you."

The first elder, Xie Yunzong, followed closely.

"Thank you Young Master and Great Elder for making decisions for your subordinates."

Tian Si said very sincerely.

Seeing Xie Huanyu and Xie Yunzong express their positions one after another, Tiansi suddenly felt confident.

They can basically represent the attitude of the firmament.

With the Kunlun Ruins Zongmen supporting the foundation, it is naturally guaranteed to be foolproof.

"Tian Si, not only Levi Garrison, but also Qianqiu Sect."

"They are even more extreme. It is very likely that Yufeng Tiansi and the top ten Tianjiao have already lost their luck."

"Especially the factions of the West Pavilion were brutally bloodbathed, and there are only a few people left."

Everyone was sad, and Zhenmo Si was indeed bullied by Qianqiu during this period of time.

In particular, the mysterious sect leader is extremely powerful, like a mountain pressing down on everyone.

The Suppressing Demon Division could only make compromises, and even sighed under Levi Garrison in order to protect himself.

The root of everything is Qianqiu.

Of course, the traitors in the Demon Suppression Division have not yet been identified, which is a huge hidden danger.

"Bastard, Qianqiu's teaching is too deceiving."

Tian Si was burning with anger, and unconsciously burst into a terrifying momentum.

Everyone present was shocked. Although this momentum was not comparable to that of the young master, it was at least comparable to the original Levi Garrison.

Even a little stronger than Levi Garrison at that time.

"As expected of Tiansi, the time has come for us to turn over and become the master."

Everyone was excited, it turned out that Tiansi's strength was so terrifying.

Coupled with the support of the young master and the others, whether Levi Garrison or Qianqiu Sect, they are dead.

"Young Master, your subordinates want to destroy this Qianqiu Sect, what do you think?"
Tian Si asked respectfully.

Xie Huanyu said solemnly: "Qianqiu Jiao is going to break the future and foundation of the Demon Suppression Division. Its heart can be punished, and it will be destroyed."

"This seat and the entire Sky Sect will definitely support it, you just need to let it go."

"Abide by the law of the young master."

Tian Si was also quite excited. He thought that Xie Huanyu would hesitate when he heard the unfathomable strength of the Qianqiu sect leader.

Never thought he would agree so happily.

"Send the word and let Qianqiu teach you to hand over someone within three days."

"The leader of the Qianqiu Sect came to the door to apologize in person."

"Otherwise, this seat will let the Qianqiu Sect be wiped out."

Tian Si said in a cold tone.

the other side.

The Thousand Corpse Pit Qianqiu Church's main altar.

Clap!

The teacup was smashed to pieces.

In just a few minutes, this is the third teacup that has suffered this disaster.

"The sect master is allowed to hand over people within three days? Is Tiansi so confused?"

"I also ask the sect master to take the blame, otherwise the Qianqiu Sect will be destroyed."

"If it weren't for the fact that the Cang Qiong Sect was backing him, the sect master would not dare to make a big deal by borrowing him a hundred courage."

Gong Qianqiu was furious, as if he had entered a state of incompetence and rage.

Duguxiao didn't even dare to let out the air, but he was amazed in his heart.

Because this is the first time since I followed Gong Qianqiu, I saw her so gaffe.

Gong Qianqiu quickly realized this, and tried to calm down the emotions that were about to erupt as much as possible.

There are Qianqiu Sect's inner responders in the Town Demon Division, and they clearly described the horror of Xie Huanyu's strength.

Even Tiansi has a very strong fighting power.

The most important thing is that Xie Huanyu made it clear that the Cang Qiong faction will support Tiansi to destroy the Qianqiu Sect.

This made Gong Qianqiu feel unprecedented pressure.

"This is a big trouble."

Gong Qianqiu was also a little flustered in his heart.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3839

There is such a more pessimistic thinking, it is not that Gong Qianqiu is too glass-hearted.

In the past, it was not clear how strong the Kunlun Ruins were, but now so many people have seen the strength of the young master of the Cang Qiong faction with their own eyes.

According to the description of Qianqiu Sect's eyeliner, it is only the realm that this young master has reached, and he does not dare to say that he will definitely win.

What about the Great Elder and the five Heaven's Chosen from the Sky Sect?

"If there is a divine vein or even a holy vein as an energy source, this sect leader will definitely be able to gain a firm foothold in Kunlun Ruins!"

For those super spiritual veins described by Tiansi, Gong Qianqiu is extremely yearning.

"Duguxiao, you lead all the dead to keep an eye on the movements of the Town Demon Division."

"Once they attack Qianqiu Sect in a big way, report to me immediately."

"And to gather all the affiliated forces of the Qianqiu Sect, it's inevitable that a head-on confrontation is inevitable, so this sect leader adopts the crowd tactics."

"Also, when will your father come back? Let the teacher meet him at that time."

Gong Qianqiu said solemnly.

Duguxiao agreed: "Don't worry, Master, I will notify you as soon as there is news from my father."

"Very well, you go to work first!"

Gong Qianqiu sent Duguxiao away.

After leaving the main altar, Duguxiao followed Gong Qianqiu's order.

However, just after Duguxiao finished arranging the eyeliner around Zhenmosi, he suddenly received a message from Xuan Ming.

Duguxiao was overjoyed and hurriedly searched for the place designated by Xuan Ming.

in a jungle.

The four great talents of Xuanming and Taixu Shenzong arrived as scheduled.

They released a majestic black energy coercion, which seemed to be extremely corrosive.

The surrounding green plants withered instantly, as if they had been sucked dry in an instant, like coke.

"someone is coming!"

A young man in black robe headed said solemnly.

Xuan Ming smiled and said, "Don't do anything, everyone, it's my son who is here."

Xuan Ming felt the aura that belonged to Xuan Ming's alien race, and was connected to his bloodline.

Sure enough, after a while, Duguxiao rushed over.

"Father, you are finally back!"

Duguxiao was very excited, and there were faint tears in his eyes.

The two major alien forces were wiped out, and then almost died at the hands of Levi Garrison and others.

Duguxiao had all kinds of anger and grievances in his heart. Now that his biological father has returned, someone finally decides for him.

"My son has suffered, no need to say more, hurry up and pay tribute to a few arrogances of the Taixu Shenzong."

Xuan Ming was naturally also very excited, but he was still the first to introduce the following almighties.

After all, these talents are the real reliance on this return.

"Duguxiao has seen several bigwigs."

Dugu Xiao bowed respectfully and deeply.

It's just that there are inevitably some murmurs in his heart, and he doesn't feel how strong these geniuses are.

And there were only four of them, so Tian Si brought seven people here.

Can they really defend against Tiansi and the others?

Duguxiao was really skeptical.

"Xuan Ming, Linglang seems to be looking down on me a little bit!"

The leader, a young man in black robe, said gloomily.

Duguxiao's heart froze, didn't he think that this guy would see through it?

Xuan Ming hurriedly smoothed things out: "Why did Xue Tianjiao say this?"

"Forget it! Let Linglang have a long experience, lest he really think that the Taixu Shenzong is a generation with wine, wine and rice bags!"

Xue Pengzhan said jokingly.

Before he finished speaking, he immediately ran the exercise, and the violent energy aura spread out wanton.

The surrounding trees that were like charcoal suddenly vanished.

Some trees that were surrounded by thick and thin were also uprooted, as if a hurricane had struck, directly destroying all living beings.

Duguxiao's eyes were full of shock.

In any case, he never imagined that this seemingly unremarkable Tianjiao had such a powerful cultivation base.

The point is that it seems that there are still reservations about this word?

"Please forgive the younger generation's clumsy sin."

Duguxiao's face was full of respect.
