Chapter 3894

If there is no panacea to maintain, Gong Qianqiu's internal injury may have been out of control.

In Taixu Shenzong, only Xuan Ming, Sanshengzi and Xue Pengzhan escaped.

The remaining four Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao died in Huangquan in order to cover the retreat of everyone.

"Bastards, monkeys in the secular world, this seat will kill you all."

The Three Holy Sons had already reached the point of despair.

Especially thinking that the ancient bronze sword that Master passed on to him was crushed by Levi Garrison's bare hands, the Three Holy Sons became even more depressed.

"How can I explain this to the master!"

Sanshengzi was extremely annoyed, the blood in his chest surged again, and there was blood overflowing from the corners of his mouth.

He hurriedly threw a few pills into his mouth, and the churning blood was barely quelled.

Xuan Ming and Xue Pengzhan were also stunned, and they didn't have the arrogance and arrogance they used to be.

In particular, recalling the scene where Levi Garrison smashed his companion with a punch, Xue Pengzhan had lingering fears, and even his back spine shivered with chills.

"Qianqiu, hurry up and pack your things and leave here with me."

"With Qianqiu teaching those so-called dead men, there is no way to stop Levi Garrison."

"It is estimated that they will kill them soon."

Sanshengzi urged, and by the way handed Gong Qianqiu a few medicinal pills.

Although I couldn't catch Levilia as a cultivation seedling, Gong Qianqiu's talent is also very good.

In particular, Gong Qianqiu's own combat strength is not bad, and taking her can also be prepared for emergencies, after all, Levi Garrison may kill him at any time.

At that time, with Gong Qianqiu's assistance from the side, the probability of escape can also be greatly improved.

"As ordered!"

Gong Qianqiu once again showed a respectful attitude.

She knew very well that her only hope was the Three Holy Sons, and only by firmly hugging the thigh of the Taixu Shenzong could she save her life in return.

Gong Qianqiu quickly packed up the valuable belongings, and at the same time selected hundreds of confidants and elites to escape with the three saints.

Of course, the most important thing is the divine robbery. Gong Qianqiu disguised the divine robbery well behind his back. This is his biggest reliance on the Taixu Shenzong to gain a firm foothold.

"Master Bone, have you prepared all the medicines ready?"

Before leaving, Gong Qianqiu asked in a deep voice.

"everything's ready."

Master Bone continued gloomily: "Don't worry, Sect Master, you will definitely give Levi Garrison a surprise to them."

"Very good, we withdraw!"

Gong Qianqiu nodded with satisfaction, and then followed Sanshengzi and others to evacuate the main altar non-stop.

In fact, it didn't take long for Gong Qianqiu and the others to escape, Levi Garrison and the others had already killed the outer corpse pit.

"Boss, there's something wrong with the front!"

Phoenix wiped the sweat from his forehead and reminded.

Levi Garrison looked in the direction of Phoenix's finger and saw the fog in front of him.

The gloomy wind was blowing, revealing a biting chill, especially in the mist as if a figure was shaking.

And the movements of those figures are extremely strange, to be exact, they should be very stiff, like marionettes.

They finally let out a very weird howl, like the scream of a ghost in a horror movie.

"It is said that the corpse pit is full of yin, and in the later period of Gong Qianqiu, he slaughtered all kinds of hostile forces in order to increase the yin in this place."

Azure Dragon said solemnly: "And the bone master is good at all kinds of sorcery, those should be the corpses they controlled with special methods."

"Kill the past!"

Levi Garrison said coldly.

Now that you have come here, naturally you will not give up halfway.

Levi Garrison didn't want to have troubles later, otherwise the base camp would be harassed by the remnants of Qianqiu again sooner or later.

Members of the base camp and affiliated forces roared out, fighting with the corpses controlled by special drugs.

However, because there were too many corpses, and they were not tired and had no pain, Levi Garrison's attack was not smooth.

"Get out of the way for me."

Levi Garrison burst out.

Everyone withdrew from the battle to make way for Levi Garrison.

Those corpses controlled by drugs continued to charge fearlessly.

"piss off!"

Levi Garrison ran the basic exercises, a golden halo appeared around his body, and the whole person was like a god coming into the world.

Immediately, he threw a punch at countless corpses.

With this punch, the sky and the earth changed color, and even the cloudy wind and dark clouds that had been backlogged for several years were blown away.

The violent energy is like a hurricane passing through, sweeping away everything in front of it.

Clap clap!

Countless dead corpses were swept away and instantly turned into annihilation powder.

"Come again!"

"Death to Lao Tzu!"

Levi Garrison smashed several punches in a row, and even the cumulus clouds above the corpse pit collapsed without a trace, and the sun finally shone all over the earth.

Then look at the surrounding corpses that can move are all emptied, turned into annihilation powder and scattered in the wind.

A majestic hall in front of them also appeared in front of everyone.

Chiaki teach!

Three big characters with a strange pen style appeared on the plaque in the middle of the hall.

"It's here, everyone search with me!"

Levi Garrison said solemnly.

Everyone filed in, and soon everyone found that the Qianqiu Sect's main altar was empty.

"Escape?"

Levi Garrison frowned, he really didn't expect Gong Qianqiu and others to be so fast.

He hurriedly released his strength and quickly probed the surroundings. It didn't take long for Levi Garrison to discover some suspicious auras.

"Found you!"

Levi Garrison was overjoyed, and immediately ordered Wen Lei and others to follow him, after all, others had limited feet.

Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and others followed Levi Garrison all the way, and soon saw dozens of Qianqiu elites.

Levi Garrison can clearly feel that the strength of these people is much more than that of the dead men in black.

"It's Levi Garrison who are chasing after them!"

"Fight for them, and help the leader to delay time."

"Long live the Qianqiu teaching!"

Dozens of people stopped and directly blocked their way.

In fact, Levi Garrison had already heard what these people were talking about.

"Say Gong Qianqiu's whereabouts, and I can keep you alive."

Levi Garrison said in a cold tone.

"Levi Garrison, you can't expect to know the whereabouts of the leader from our mouths."

"Thousands of autumns teach thousands of generations to live forever."

Dozens of Qianqiu Sect's absolute henchmen shouted in unison.

Levi Garrison said coldly: "Kill it! I will continue to track it."

Before the words fell, Wen Lei and others took action, and Levi Garrison continued to follow the breath sensor to track away.

Later, Levi Garrison discovered other Qianqiu Cult elites one after another, but these people were all fighting to the death without exception.

Levi Garrison didn't make any more words to persuade him to surrender, and directly killed a bloody path.

"It looks like these people were thrown out because they were too slow."

Levi Garrison made a judgment and tracked it for more than a hundred miles. There was a desert in front of him, and there was a dead silence.

The power was released again to search in a carpet-like manner, but the breath of Gong Qianqiu and others was not found.

There were no footprints on the ground for a long time, the wind was blowing, and the yellow sand was everywhere, as if everything here was going to be sealed in the ground.

"Let's chase it forward and see what's going on!"

Levi Garrison searched for dozens of miles into the depths of the desert, but there was still no trace of Gong Qianqiu and others.

"It seems that they have most likely escaped into the Kunlun Ruins."

Levi Garrison sighed softly.

This is also the point that Levi Garrison has neglected the most, that is, there is no way to know the specific route to enter the Kunlun Ruins.

Back then, whether Tiansi and Cang Qiong Sect, or Xuan Ming and Taixu Shenzong, all had a deadly feud with their own side, and it was even more impossible for them to tell the details.

"It seems that the arrogances of the Taixu Shenzong are still too hastily killed."

Levi Garrison felt a little regretful in his heart. If he had captured those people alive, he might have been able to find out the route to the Kunlun Ruins.

So it will not follow blindly like it is now.

Chapter 3896

"Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi, Xuanming and Duguxiao, even if I catch up to the ends of the earth, I will not let you go."

Levi Garrison muttered to himself.

The murderous aura spread out from his body, forming a terrifying energy vortex with him as the center, and at the same time rolling up the yellow sand in the sky.

At the beginning, Tian Si and Xuan Ming could find the legendary Tianmen, so they could find it too.

Now it seems that the entrance to the Kunlun Ruins should be something hidden similar to the door of energy.

And this door is the energy wall that blocks the explosion of the spiritual energy of heaven and earth. Inside the door is the Kunlun Ruins, and outside the door belongs to the secular world.

Just as Levi Garrison was thinking, Wen Lei and others also caught up.

Levi Garrison left a mark along the way when he followed.

In addition, in the desert, only Levi Garrison released a powerful breath, Wen Lei and others quickly locked his position.

"Mr. Ye, did they escape?" Ning Jinye asked in a deep voice.

Levi Garrison nodded and said, "Yeah! After all, they have the Three Holy Sons to lead the way, I am afraid they have already escaped into the Kunlun Ruins."

"Brother, the three saints were seriously injured by you this time. It is said that his master is the deputy suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong, and he is likely to take revenge in the future."

Zhou Nanyan reminded with a serious face.

Others agreed with this inference.

The four great arrogances perished on the spot, and the three saints, Xuan Ming and others returned.

Taixu Shenzong will not easily let Levi Garrison go, whether in public or private, this hatred must be forged.

I'm afraid it won't be long before they come over and ask for trouble.

"Although it can be regarded as the arrogance of the two major sects, we still don't know how deep the water in the Kunlun Ruins is."

"Especially in this Taixu Shenzong, the three saints are certainly not the opponents of King's Landing, but it is impossible to know how strong the deputy suzerain or even the suzerain is."

"The enemy is in the dark and I am in the light. It's really hard to guard against it!"

Wen Lei and others said one after another.

The joy of victory not long ago disappeared at this moment, replaced by solemnity.

The Taixu Shenzong's influence and contacts in Kunlun Ruins are immeasurable. Once they gather many powerful people to take revenge, the outcome is still incalculable.

No matter how strong Levi Garrison's combat power is, as long as there are a few more powerful people at the level of the Three Holy Sons, I am afraid that he can be dragged down.

And whether others can withstand the attack of a strong enemy, then there is a big question mark.

No matter how you look at it, the situation is not optimistic.

Levi Garrison nodded and said, "You are right, so the top priority is to improve your own strength."

"On the one hand, it is for defense, and on the other hand, it is also preparing for future revenge."

Although the depth of the Taixu Shenzong has not been fully explored, luckily God's brain has discovered the divine veins and sacred veins.

The Three Holy Sons once made a rhetorical statement, saying that the divine veins and holy veins only exist within the Kunlun Ruins.

However, in fact, there are divine veins and sacred veins in the secular world, but they are hidden very deeply, but they are deliberately sealed by people or forces.

But everything is not a problem now, the brain of God has developed a new type of detector, and it is only a matter of time before more Divine Veins are found.

And Levi Garrison secretly decided that in the next period of time, let more members of the base camp with good qualifications go to the super spiritual vein to practice.

Now there is nothing to hide, and it is the most important thing to build an elite army with strong combat power as soon as possible.

At the same time, increase the intensity of teaching Levilia's self-created exercises, so that the power of super spiritual veins can be better utilized.

Especially after this battle, the absolute henchmen inside the base camp are also obvious.

As for individual mentally shaken people, they are not entrusted with important tasks.

"God's brain has to make more suits and new weapons."

At this point, Levi Garrison directly contacted the brain of God, and he wanted to create an absolute elite to deal with all kinds of possibilities.

Chapter 3897

The three saints, Gong Qianqiu and others ran all the way, and there were only a few Qianqiu confidants who followed.

These people are extremely talented, and at the same time they have practiced the extreme swallowing technique, which is why they can barely follow the footsteps of the Three Holy Sons.

Since coming to the desert area, Gong Qianqiu has tried to remember the route to enter the Kunlun Ruins.

But soon Gong Qianqiu gave up this idea, because she found that the so-called Tianmen was hidden in an ancient formation.

This ancient formation is radiant, revealing an intoxicating charm. To touch this formation requires a powerful force.

"Only if the power it possesses reaches a certain threshold, it is possible to stimulate the formation to enter it."

"Even if ordinary people find the ancient formation by chance, they can only look at it from a distance and cannot approach it."

The three saints explained in a deep voice.

Gong Qianqiu kept these silently in his heart, and listened to the three saints continuing to explain the situation as he walked forward.

"Have you seen those comatose people in the space in the ancient formation?"

"They are all strong men with powerful strength in the mundane world. They found the Tianmen to reach the formation but didn't know the route, and were eventually trapped in the formation."

"The Kunlun Ruins will have receivers who will come to investigate regularly and bring these people into the Kunlun Ruins."

Gong Qianqiu heard the words and turned to look at Xuan Ming next to him.

Xuan Ming seemed to see the doubts in Gong Qianqiu's heart, and said directly: "That's right, Tian Si and I were both trapped in the ancient formation."

"Afterwards, we were brought into it by the recipients of Kunlun Ruins. Afterwards, we each had our own circumstances and joined different sects."

Gong Qianqiu suddenly realized that it is no wonder that many peerless powerhouses have disappeared inexplicably.

"If the next route is not guided by the internal staff of Kunlun Ruins, there is no way to enter."

The Three Holy Sons regained their previous sense of superiority.

Sure enough, the tortuous route to the extreme next made Gong Qianqiu even more dazzled.

Relying on memory simply cannot achieve the effect of recording the exact route.

And the more you go inside, the stronger the aura between heaven and earth, if it wasn't for the wrong time, Gong Qianqiu would want to devour it crazily.

The group walked for another two or three hours, and the road ahead suddenly became extremely open.

Not long after walking forward, the line of sight suddenly became clear, looking at the upper plain, and there was a faint retro palace tower at the far end.

"This is the Kunlun Ruins!"

Gong Qianqiu was so excited that he was beyond words.

The three saints sneered and said: "This is just entering the Kunlun Ruins. After all, it is only a marginal area, not the real Kunlun Ruins."

Gong Qianqiu was particularly shocked, it turned out that this was only the marginal area.

Everyone continued to walk in, and after a few hours, Gong Qianqiu understood the true meaning of the words of the three saints before.

As we went deeper into the Kunlun Ruins, mountains and waterfalls and ancient temples gradually increased.

The waterfalls here are like the Milky Way pouring down from the nine days, and the mountains in the distance are shrouded in clouds and mists, even exuding a strange halo, like a fairyland.

Especially around some of the towering and huge palaces, there is an extraordinary resplendent aura, and the surrounding seems to be surrounded by cranes, making people dizzying.

Of course, what shocked Gong Qianqiu the most was the sufficiency of aura, which could be described as raining down on aura.

"Don't anyone want these spiritual veins?"

Gong Qianqiu pointed to a spiritual vein containing pure spiritual energy and asked.

Seeing the appearance of Gong Qianqiu who has never seen the world, the three saints have a sense of superiority.

"Spiritual veins of this level are everywhere in Kunlun Ruins, and even small sects are reluctant to establish sects here."

The three saints sneered.

Gong Qianqiu was extremely shocked. Although this spiritual vein is not comparable to the super spiritual veins of the two major alien races, it is definitely not much different.

Was it abandoned by the people in the Kunlun Ruins?

“Don’t be shocked, even the sacred veins are very numerous in the Kunlun Ruins.”
