

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3898

"For example, our Taixu Shenzong is built on several divine veins and three holy veins."

"As for other small spiritual veins, there are countless."

The three saints said with a smile.

Gong Qianqiu said with emotion: "As expected of the Taixu Shenzong, the cultivation resources are really too rich."

Knowing this kind of information, it strengthened Gong Qianqiu's determination to develop in Kunlun Ruins.

"Holy Son, how long will it take us to reach the Taixu Shenzong?"

Duguxiao asked excitedly.

He practiced a weakened version of the extreme swallowing technique, and he couldn't control it and began to swallow the surrounding spiritual energy along the way.

During the march, Duguxiao felt that his strength had improved again, so he was undoubtedly very excited.

The three saints said solemnly, "There's still half a day's journey to get there."

After entering the Kunlun Ruins, the Three Holy Sons finally relaxed completely, and Levi Garrison would not chase after him no matter how strong he was.

Even if he has reached the strength to trigger the Tianmen formation, it will definitely take a very long time to find the exact location.

Taking ten thousand steps back, even if he entered the Kunlun Ruins very smoothly, what waves could he make here?

There was nothing to say on the road, and everyone finally arrived at Taixu Shenzong near noon.

Zongmen is built on dozens of green peaks, with many retro temples, and the mountainside is surrounded by clouds and mists.

Surrounding the sect, the aftermath of the formation energy also circulates back and forth.

Under the sunlight, the energy of the formation showed a faint and strange light.

The spiritual energy that is almost visible to the naked eye is surging back and forth within the formation.

In the mountains, all kinds of birds and beasts that are rare or unseen in the secular world shuttle among them.

There seemed to be a rustling sound in the distance, and after a simple listening, I found that the whole person's mind was excited and excited.

This distant sound of rumbling seems to have the effect of stimulating the spirit, and the mood is followed by agitated, in a state of blood boiling.

In the open space beside some forest attics, many figures could be faintly seen sitting cross-legged, breathing, breathing, and occasionally tossing and moving in the air.

Formed a huge fairyland picture.

"These people are so strong!"

Gong Qianqiu sighed in his heart that there are actually several people who are comparable to the Three Saints.

Especially in the invisible position, Gong Qianqiu can also detect the subtle breath, the kind of coercion far exceeds the three saints.

"As expected of the Taixu Shenzong, he is simply a master!"

Gong Qianqiu was very excited and became more determined to hold this thigh well.

"This is the Taixu Shenzong, you all return to your residence with this seat first."

The three saints said proudly, as if they were about to fulfill the friendship of the landlord.

Everyone followed the Three Saints to the top of one of the small peaks, and in front of them was a three-story retro attic.

"There are a lot of empty rooms. Except for the top floor, you can move around on your own. Hurry up and heal your injuries."

"Find a suitable opportunity, and I will introduce you to other holy sons and masters."

The last sentence was obviously said to Gong Qianqiu.

Gong Qianqiu said respectfully: "Follow the order!"

Thinking that the master of the three saints is the vice suzerain of Taixu Shenzong, Gong Qianqiu is even more looking forward to it.

This attic is only owned by the Three Holy Sons alone, so there are indeed many empty rooms.

Everyone searched for an empty room and began to adjust their breaths. They were injured by Levi Garrison and his subordinates, and they fled all the way, and they really needed adjustment.

The Three Holy Sons came to the top floor of the attic alone, and the arrogant emotions just now disappeared.

"Levi Garrison, you wait for this seat, and this seat will ask you to repay ten times and a hundred times."

The three holy sons were furious, and he didn't dare to disturb the master for the time being.

After all, being injured by a monkey in the secular world, and even breaking the sword of the master, is simply a great shame.

"For the time being, we need to take a long-term view on how to take revenge."

The three saints slowly sat down and began to heal their wounds.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3899

Compared with the shame and depression of the three saints, Gong Qianqiu's mentality at the moment is completely different.

She was more emotional and regretful.

It was clear that everything was under control before, but he never thought that he would become Levi Garrison's pawn unknowingly.

In particular, Xiao Feng, which Gong Qianqiu is most proud of, is still being calculated by Levi Garrison, and even himself almost lost his life.

"How did Levi Garrison improve?"

Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.

She once got exact information from Xiao Feng that Levi Garrison practiced basic exercises.

It is precisely because of the slow effectiveness of this basic practice that Xiao Feng, Phoenix and others chose to practice Levilia's own creation.

"If I knew it earlier, I asked Xiao Feng to ask about Levi Garrison's basic exercises."

Gong Qianqiu regretted it very much. If he could study Levi Garrison's basic exercises in depth, he might find out what was going on.

After all, Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and others are all basic exercises.

They also showed great strength in this battle.

“Could it be that Levi Garrison and the others secretly practiced Levilia’s devouring technique?”

Such a thought suddenly flashed in Gong Qianqiu’s mind.

After all, she herself has benefited from the extreme devouring technique, otherwise it would be foolish to want to achieve such a state in a short period of time.

“Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator, and the strength and endurance of the root bone are naturally far superior to ordinary cultivators.”

“And the biggest drawback of the extreme swallowing technique is that it has a swallowing upper limit, otherwise I would not need to go to the Tianshifu to use the Tianlei Tempering Body to increase the upper limit.”

“But this drawback has little impact on pure body cultivation. I’m afraid that’s the truth.”

The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more he felt that the possibility was extremely high, so wouldn’t they also face the difficulty of swallowing the upper limit?

Of course, the most important thing is that there are not enough super spiritual veins for them to devour.

On the other hand, in this regard, he has a lot of advantages. After all, there are countless spiritual veins in the Kunlun Ruins that have been abandoned.

In this way, she only needs to secretly go to devour the power of the spiritual veins, and her Gong Qianqiu’s strength will skyrocket again.

“Levi Garrison, the hatred of destroying the sect is not shared by the sky, and the sect mainly asks you to repay it tenfold and a hundredfold.”

Gong Qianqiu said fiercely.

Gong Qianqiu feels heartbroken every time he thinks of the Qianqiu Sect that he founded by himself has vanished into ashes.

If it wasn't for Levi Garrison's mischief, he would have been king and hegemon in the secular world.

Qianqiu will also be called the strongest sect in history.

She will also be known as the most dominant female leader, and her name will go down in history.

However, all this was completely shattered by the appearance of Levi Garrison.

hatred!

Gong Qianqiu can't wait to slash Levi Garrison with a thousand knives.

"In the previous fight, Levi Garrison didn't seem to show the strongest combat power."

"However, even so, I and the Three Holy Sons were beaten to the point of being unable to fight back."

"If Levi Garrison really happened to find Tianmen and entered the Kunlun Ruins, wouldn't my situation be extremely dangerous?"

After thinking about this, Gong Qianqiu began to feel uneasy again, like sitting on needles and thorns on the back.

She knows Levi Garrison too well, and the latter's style of behavior will definitely kill him in the Kunlun Ruins.

Levi Garrison is a typical example of revenge.

But then again, after seeing the power of Taixu Shenzong, Gong Qianqiu is not so afraid anymore.

If the senior officials of the Taixu Shenzong take action, Levi Garrison will be useless even if he kills him.

However, the only worry is whether Kunlun Ruins are willing to become enemies with Levi Garrison because of themselves.

After all, Levi Garrison not only has his own strength not to be underestimated, but also has subordinates who are comparable to the arrogance of Zongnei.

"In the final analysis, my status in the Taixu Shenzong is too low!"

Gong Qianqiu's eyes gradually became sharper.

The next thing to consider is how to gain a foothold in the Taixu Shenzong and constantly climb to the core high-level.

But none of this can be done overnight and must wait until the right moment to achieve the goal.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3900

As for the state of the three saints, Gong Qianqiu also noticed it, and did not go directly to the sect for help, but felt that losing to Levi Garrison was a great shame.

It is even possible to worry about the reprimand of the deputy sect master. After all, the Three Holy Sons personally entered the world and even returned home, which is a disgrace to the prestige of the Taixu Shenzong.

"It is still necessary to hide the divine robbery first. Now is not the best time to offer this thing."

Gong Qianqiu sealed the gods with power and hid them.

She was really worried that if she rashly offered the divine calamity, the Three Holy Sons would take the credit.

"Levi Garrison, you wait for this sect master to climb to the top of Taixu Shenzong, which is the day you die."

Gong Qianqiu said fiercely.

the other side.

Levi Garrison's pursuit of Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi and others ended in failure, so he had to bring people back to the base camp for the time being.

At this moment, the follow-up work at the base camp is coming to an end, and the casualties have been counted.

Levi Garrison's statistical list found that nearly one-third of the elite members of the base camp died, and the rest were injured to varying degrees.

Nearly two-fifths of the Tenshen Division headed by the Tiance Shenshuai and Tiance Young Marshal were killed, and the rest were wounded.

There were no fatalities among the 80 elite students led by Ning Jinye, who were seriously injured and 50 were slightly injured.

Even this seriously injured person was damaged in the fight between Gong Qianqiu and the Three Saints.

Of course, the strength of this batch of students has been greatly improved.

This made Levi Garrison more aware of the importance of the weapon of the battle suit, and this high-tech product should be as popular as possible among the core members.

Fortunately, the mind of God is already doing this.

"Boss, the dead men from the Qianqiu Sect have been wiped out, and more than 80% of the elites have died."

"As for those elite cultists, more than three-fifths of them died, and the rest of the ordinary cultists were also crushed."

"By the way, we also found Xu Qingya, Yufeng Tiansi and others in the underground cell of Qianqiu Sect's main altar. They were all tortured to the point of being inhuman."

Phoenix Shen Shenghui reported.

Levi Garrison asked in slight surprise: "Gong Qianqiu didn't kill them?"

"Um!"

Phoenix nodded and said, "According to Xu Qingya, Gong Qianqiu kept their lives just to witness her rise."

"What a perverted bad taste!"

Levi Garrison said solemnly.

But then again, it is also good news for Levi Garrison that Xu Qingya and others saved their lives.

At the beginning, when the Zhen Mosi targeted himself, only Xu Qingya and the others were willing to form a good relationship, and they could be regarded as half friends!

"In addition to rectifying the troops, I will also arrange for everyone to go to the spiritual veins to cultivate and improve."

Next, Levi Garrison explained his detailed plan to take everyone to the Super Spirit Vein Tempering.

Everyone present is the absolute core of the base camp, and they are naturally excited to hear this news.

Especially when they saw that Levi Garrison had such a terrifying strength, they were even more yearning for the spiritual pulse.

Later, when they learned that Levi Garrison also asked God's Brain to create battle suits for everyone, everyone was even more excited.

"Ning Jinye's suits are so powerful that they can withstand even the attacks of a strong man like the Three Saints."

"Although the three saints were injured at that time, this kind of resistance is really terrifying."

"With this kind of equipment, the combat power is instantly doubled!"

Everyone talked a lot, and their eyes couldn't help but focus on Levi Garrison.

In their hearts, Levi Garrison's image of the God of War who looked down on the world was even more profound.

Facing the joint attack of Gong Qianqiu and the Three Saints, Levi Garrison not only suffered no injuries, but also crushed him all the way.

It's just too powerful.

"By the way, how is Xiao Feng now?"

Levi Garrison asked in a deep voice.
