

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3949

Kunlun Ruins.

In the Taixu Shenzong.

Since the acquisition of many cultivation resources provided by the Seven Holy Sons, the cultivation realm has improved qualitatively.

Duguxiao and Xuan Ming and other confidants have also benefited a lot. They have never had such sufficient cultivation resources.

So everyone became more determined to follow Gong Qianqiu.

“Even if there is no Taixu Shenzong to rely on, this leader is not afraid of the revenge of Levi Garrison and others.”

Gong Qianqiu was bursting with confidence at this moment.

In particular, the dragon veins provided by the Seventh Holy Son have not been completely swallowed up, and she will be able to reach a new level by then.

And Levi Garrison and their worldly world will never have such terrifying cultivation resources, and the strength gap between them is getting bigger and bigger.

“Levi Garrison, Xiao Feng, you should never think about revenge.”

The smile on Gong Qianqiu’s face was even greater.

At this moment, Gong Qianqiu suddenly felt a sense of loneliness when Ling Jueding looked at the mountains.

"As this sect leader becomes stronger and stronger and his status becomes higher and higher, a small person like Levi Garrison is like an ant."

"It's completely negligible. Those enemies in the secular world will no longer be able to get into her eyes."

Gong Qianqiu sighed and muttered to himself with some regret: "It's just so boring, I can't feel the feeling of playing them with applause at all."

the other side.

The guardians of the gods are still not reconciled, and after multiple investigations, the identity background of Levi Garrison has basically been determined.

Lucas said quietly: "I never thought that the oriental monkey was the culprit that destroyed the eternal kingdom."

"Sure enough, it's not a strong man in Kunlun Ruins, so you don't have to worry too much about it."

"Penlio, what do the other guardians say?"

Opposite Lucas sat a red-haired middle-aged man. He was also burly, with a faint flash of electric light in his palm. He was the helm of the Temple of Zeus.

Pengliao said solemnly: "They feel that the dragon veins in the secret realm are bound to be won. Last time our team only had two guardians."

"This time, as long as you combine a few more guardians to shoot at the same time, you can kill Levi Garrison."

"And according to the information, Levi Garrison is in retreat now, which is the perfect time for us to launch a sneak attack."

Lucas had a solemn look on his face, obviously thinking about the pros and cons.

There are twelve guardians of the gods, and now they have found the gods in their seats.

Only by allowing the temple to truly grow, can the birth of the Lord God be accelerated.

Cultivation resources are becoming more and more important, especially top-level cultivation resources like dragon veins, which are just needed.

The key is that they haven't found the dragon veins for so many years, and the secret realm where Levi Garrison is located has a dragon vein group, which is even more rare in a century.

"Assemble the elite immediately, and then notify the other envoys that Levi Garrison must be killed this time."

Lucas finally made up his mind.

Penglio said with a smile: "That's right, how can our guardian gods be scared by an oriental monkey?"

"This time we dispatched five guardians, a hundred elites, and they will definitely be able to kill them."

"I hope so!"

Lucas added in his mind.

If it wasn't that the dragon veins belonged to the just-needed cultivation resources, he really didn't want to provoke Levi Garrison again.

It can be said that the terrifying combat power that Levi Garrison showed before has made Lucas have a shadow in his heart.

Soon Lucas, Penglieo and other five guardians led a hundred temple elites to rush to the secret realm of the dragon veins.

"Levi Garrison, come out and die!"

When he came to the secret realm, Pengliao shouted directly.

Levi Garrison has used three dragon veins to quench his body at this time, and his cultivation realm has been significantly improved.

He never thought that after the last battle, the people guarded by the gods would dare to come over and ask for trouble.

"Looks like you weren't beaten enough last time!"

Levi Garrison said with a playful face.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3950

In the face of the protection of the gods and the siege of more than a hundred people, Levi Garrison was not afraid at all, and even his tone was full of ridicule.

"Levi Garrison, today our five guardians will bring you down to ashes."

"That's right, the West is guarded by our gods, and it's not your turn to show off your power."

"Stop talking nonsense and die!"

The other guardians were aggressive, and they had never seen Levi Garrison's strength.

Although Lucas reminded them to be cautious, these people have always been arrogant, believing that Lucas was defeated purely because of his lack of strength.

Levi Garrison hooked his fingers at the guardian of the gods, full of provocation.

"court death!"

Penglio took the lead in attacking, and then watching him run the exercises, the electric light in his palm surrounded, and two electric balls were formed in an instant.

lol!

The terrifying sound of electric current came, Penglieo suddenly shook his hand, and the two electric balls hit Levi Garrison's body directly like cannonballs.

"You'd better go together, so as not to waste Lao Tzu's time."

Levi Garrison didn't dodge in the slightest, and directly reached out his hands to directly charge the ball.

"Dongfang Monkey, you are too arrogant to pick it up with your bare hands, just wait to be electrocuted into coke!"

Penglio said with a sneer.

"yes?"

The corner of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, and he caught the two electric balls with great precision.

"I'll give you back what's yours!"

Levi Garrison's arms shook slightly, and the two electric balls shot at Penglieo like cannonballs.

The speed of the electric ball was even several times faster than before.

"how can that be?"

Penglio was dumbfounded in shock, but he was well aware of the power of the electric ball, so he did not dare to stop at all, and tried his best to dodge to the side.

The electric ball swept past his body almost swiftly.

However, the elites of the temple behind them were not so lucky.

They thought that even if the Pengliod terrorist attack could not kill Levi Garrison, it would at least cause him to be severely injured.

He never thought that Levi Garrison not only caught the electric ball with his bare hands, but even threw it back the same way.

"Ahhh!"

Several people couldn't dodge in time, and were instantly roasted into coke by the electric ball.

Penglio almost vomited blood in anger, feeling like he was shooting himself in the foot.

Lucas said solemnly: "Don't watch the show, let's go together and make a quick decision."

The other three guardians are no longer arrogant, and directly display their housekeeping skills.

Water blades, rockets, electric balls...

All kinds of fancy and lethal attacks attacked Levi Garrison like a violent storm.

The other temple elites also attacked with all their strength. Although they were not as good as the guardian's single attack, their advantage was the large number of people.

"Good come!"

The guards of the gods attacked it, and Levi Garrison was awe-inspiring.

Instead of retreating, he advanced, directly facing the opponent's attack and threw several punches in a row.

"Wow!"

The violent tornado swept out, and everyone heard the faint sound of dragon roars within the terrifying energy fluctuations.

Boom!

In an instant, the joint attack guarded by the gods was all smashed.

The key is that Levi Garrison's fist strength has not weakened much, and he still continues to attack the guardians of the gods with the momentum of destroying the dead.

"Ahhh!"

The screams and howls were endless.

Those with weaker strength were directly torn to pieces by fist strength, while those with slightly stronger strength barely kept the whole corpse.

Even the five guardian gods were seriously injured.

"The power of one punch is so terrifying!"

There was a hint of despair in the hearts of the five guardians, and they didn't even have the idea of continuing to resist.

"Since you are here, then stay completely!"

Levi Garrison punched again, and three of the guardians failed to dodge and died in Huangquan.

Lucas and Penglio were a little farther away, but their speed was obviously faster than the other three, so they escaped.

The two fled in embarrassment without looking back, and the other elites fled in all directions, completely frightened.

After repelling the invincible guardians of the gods, Levi Garrison once again felt the horror of the effect of the dragon veins.
