

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4096 -

Gongsun Yueying could clearly feel that the mood of the person sending the information was getting more and more urgent.

“Who is Huangfu Hongsheng?”

Murong Qingxue asked curiously.

She spent most of her time practicing inside the sect, and her knowledge of the outside world came from the introduction of the elders of the sect.

Murong Qingxue knew about the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, but didn't know much about the information about its leaders.

Gongsun Yueying said solemnly: “As far as I know, Huangfu Hongsheng is the chairman of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce Wandaocheng Branch.”

“And the Wandaocheng Branch is also ranked second in the entire Zijin Chamber of Commerce, so Huangfu Hongsheng has great power.”

“Even to a certain extent, Huangfu Hongsheng's glance can directly affect the decision-making direction of the entire Zijin Chamber of Commerce Group.”

Murong Qingxue turned pale in shock, so it seemed that Huangfu Hongsheng was even more guilty!

It's just that now the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce have been killed by Levi Garrison, this feud has been forged, and there is no room for manoeuvre.

“Sect Master, how do we reply?”

Murong Qingxue turned her gaze directly to Levi Garrison.

“Just tell them that those people have been killed by Lao Tzu.”

Levi Garrison said indifferently: “What about the Zijin Chamber of Commerce? As long as they dare to take revenge, I will kill them again.”

Gongsun Yueying and the two women were in a very heavy heart. Although they said so, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was a veritable behemoth.

Even the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can't compare with it, especially in terms of force.

To be more precise, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce itself started out with force, and even committed murder and stealing in the early stage of the Chamber of Commerce's development.

It's just that as the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has grown in size, it has begun to do business in the "right way".

It is precisely because of the vicious reputation accumulated in the early stage that many powerful loose cultivators from the Kunlun Ruins have joined the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

Moreover, these people are increasing day by day like a snowball, and they have become a very important part of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

In particular, the Wandaocheng Branch is extremely powerful, and its combat power ranks among the best among the major branches of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

The team that was killed by Levi Garrison before was probably one-third of the strong.

Now that Levi Garrison used such a provocative reply directly, it was really inappropriate.

"Master, you will also forge magic weapons and fast walking boots, try not to be disturbed by others."

"Why don't I use the military strategy to appease them first, and it's not too late to tell the truth when you finish these trivial matters."

"How does the master feel?"

Gongsun Yueying asked cautiously.

Levi Garrison pondered for a moment, and finally agreed with Gongsun Yueying's proposal.

"Thank you, Master, for your permission."

Gongsun Yueying immediately boarded the cloud boat with a communication device. This device is only used to receive information, and sending information can only be done in conjunction with the cloud boat.

Fortunately, Gongsun Yueying had used the Yunzhou before, and there were no obstacles in the operation, and the information was replied very smoothly.

He also said that the situation here in the Buried Dragon Valley is complicated, and there are many natural and earthly treasures, and it will take some time to return to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

After the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, which had originally planned to be a positive team, received the information, everyone let out a sigh of relief.

Even Huangfu Hongsheng felt that he was too sensitive.

With the comprehensive combat power of the team led by the Great Elder, even if it encounters the hidden world sect, it can retreat completely. How can it be possible that the entire army will be destroyed?

As for the special situation of the Buried Dragon Valley, it is understandable, but all the Jedi in the secret realm have such complex attributes, so that many treasures of heaven and earth can be nurtured.

The time required to excavate the secret realm can be as short as a few months or as long as a few years.

Thinking of this, Huangfu Hongsheng and other senior leaders of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce didn't care too much, waiting for the elder to bring back many treasures from heaven and earth.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4097 -

In the outermost jungle of the Buried Dragon Valley.

Two figures are flying fast, it is Gong Qianqiu and Qi Shengzi.

The two finally stopped in front of a hill.

“Sister, the newly discovered dragon vein is here. I am in charge of protecting the law at the periphery. You can devour the dragon vein energy with peace of mind.”

The Seven Holy Sons said as if taking credit.

Gong Qianqiu made a distressed expression: “Xiao Qi, in order to help my sister improve her cultivation, this time has really worked hard for you.”

“Why did elder sister say this? For elder sister, let alone hard work, I will not hesitate even if I go through fire and water.”

The Seven Saints said sincerely.

Gong Qianqiu pointed at Qi Shengzi's forehead, and said solemnly: "Stupid! Big sister is reluctant to let you go to the soup!"

The seven saints blushed, and Gong Qianqiu made him feel unprecedented feelings, prompting the seven saints to do anything for Gong Qianqiu more willingly.

"Um?"

Gong Qianqiu suddenly felt a strong aura coming from the southeast.

The Seven Holy Sons also felt it at the same time, and the two of them looked at each other and saw a nine-color halo in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley again.

The entire sky is like a fairyland, with thunder rolling and electric arcs jumping, like a nine-day dragon in the fairyland.

Clap!

A thunder blasted the sky, and lightning poured down, as if the sky was torn apart.

In an instant, there are thousands of rays of sunshine and auspicious colors.

"This is... a vision of heaven and earth? I really don't feel wrong."

The Seven Saints muttered to themselves.

Gong Qianqiu was also shocked by the vision of heaven and earth, and also noticed the deep meaning in the words of the Seven Saints.

"Xiao Qi, what do you feel?" Gong Qianqiu couldn't help asking.

The Seven Holy Sons did not hide anything, and said frankly: "Sister, in fact, since the last time I came here, I have vaguely felt that there is a special spiritual vein in the Buried Dragon Valley."

"A special spiritual vein?"

Gong Qianqiu is a little puzzled. At present, the strongest spiritual vein is the dragon vein, how special can it be?

The Seventh Holy Son explained: "I don't know how to explain it, but this spiritual vein is much more powerful than the dragon vein, and it is most likely underground in the core area."

“However, the power of Tianlei in the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley is too violent. Even the cultivation base of the robbers will die in it. I can’t touch it at all.”

The power of swallowing the dragon veins has benefited her a lot. Gong Qianqiu can hardly imagine how the spiritual veins above the dragon veins will improve her?

The Seventh Holy Son nodded and said, “I wasn’t sure before, but with the vision of heaven and earth, I feel more clearly.”

“This underground spiritual vein is probably several times more terrifying than the power of a large dragon vein, especially the fiery energy aura that is the most pure.”

“It’s just that I can’t get close with my strength!”

The Seventh Holy Son was particularly sorry, and even felt very guilty for not being able to bring this spiritual vein to Gong Qianqiu.

Gong Qianqiu also sighed and said: “This is also something that can’t be done. The strength of the bandits can’t be hard to beat the thunder, let alone us?”

“Xiao Qi, you don’t need to care too much, the power of the thunder is so terrifying, isn’t it just good to protect this spiritual vein for us?”

“Now I first strive for the position of the saint in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and then there will be enough cultivation resources to continue to improve.”

“As long as you have reached a sufficient level of cultivation, it is not too late to find the super spiritual veins in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.”

Gong Qianqiu is now all about the saintess trials, and really doesn’t want to make extra troubles.

“Sister is right, then I will protect my elder sister from the periphery.” Seventh Holy Son said solemnly.

Gong Qianqiu nodded and said, “Okay.”

After finishing speaking, Gong Qianqiu threw himself into the Devouring Dragon Veins.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4098 -

It took Gong Qianqiu half a month to absorb this dragon vein.

Gong Qianqiu's cultivation has improved, which makes him more confident in the battle for the saints in the near future.

Time passed, and in the blink of an eye, the Trials for the Holy Maiden of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple officially began.

In the preliminaries, 30 beautiful girls from different sects stood out.

On the high platform, the elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall loudly announced the rules of the competition.

"The next game adopts a random lottery system, and the two pairs will advance to the next round until the winner is finally determined."

"During the process of discussion, you must not hurt people's lives recklessly, or you will be directly disqualified from running for saintess."

"The number plate is in the wooden box under the ring, and now everyone can draw lots."

After the elders finished reading the rules, the thirty candidates for the Holy Maiden began to draw lots.

Gong Qianqiu was calm and calm, and once again swallowed a dragon vein to increase her strength again, as if she had no other candidates in her eyes.

"There are two candidates who have drawn two number one cards to compete on the stage."

After the lottery was over, the Holy Maiden Trials officially began.

The candidates on the ring made all their tricks, and they fought in the dark.

Soon the first round of eliminations were released, and Gong Qianqiu won the victory easily, even with only one hand in the whole process.

By the second round of draws, objections were raised.

"Elder, some people's opponents in the first round are too weak, and they don't consume too much physical strength at all. This is unfair to us when we encounter equal competitors!"

"Yes, elder, this luck factor is too great, and it is indeed unfair."

“And some people have a bye, it’s really unfortunate!”

Everyone protested one after another, and almost everyone’s eyes were focused on Gong Qianqiu.

Since there were fifteen people in the second round of the draw, there must be one bye, but Gong Qianqiu just got the bye card.

In addition, Gong Qianqiu’s easy victory in the first round was envied by others, but the other contestants were very unbalanced.

“Gong Qianqiu, what do you think of everyone’s doubts?” The elder asked with a smile.

Gong Qianqiu pondered for a moment and said: “Reporting to the elders, what they said does have some truth.”

“Oh? Then what are you going to do?”

The elder was a little surprised. He thought that Gong Qianqiu insisted on asking the game to continue on the grounds of the rules. After all, this was more in the interests of the latter.

The other contestants were also quite surprised, they just wanted to buy more time to rest in order to play the highest level of fighting in the competition.

But this kind of thing doesn’t want to be called a first-time bird, so it leaves a bad impression in the eyes of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.

So they invariably pointed their finger at Gong Qianqiu. In the eyes of the girls, Gong Qianqiu was not only lucky, but also very strong.

On the road to running for the Holy Maiden, no matter who it is, Gong Qianqiu is the biggest obstacle.

“Since everyone feels it’s unfair, then I’ll suffer a little. You guys are going to come together, and there will be no bye if you beat me down.”

Gong Qianqiu’s voice rang in everyone’s ears.

Whoa whoa whoa!

There was an uproar at the scene, and everyone looked at Gong Qianqiu in amazement.

“Is this woman crazy?”

“Extremely arrogant, to challenge us all with one’s own strength?”

“This is not taking us seriously at all!”

“She must be taught a profound lesson to know what it means to be outside the world.”

All the saintess candidates were also filled with righteous indignation.

The elder said earnestly and earnestly: “Gong Qianqiu, this kind of occasion is not for children’s play, you have to think carefully about what you are talking about!”

In fact, the high-level officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace are quite optimistic about Gong Qianqiu, but it is difficult to say that she wants to win with outnumbered enemies.

“Elder, I have thought it through.”

“Speaking of which, if I win this battle, I can become the new saint, right?”

Gong Qianqiu said solemnly.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4099 -

The elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall responded immediately: “That’s natural, and they probably won’t have any objections.”

“I have no objection.”

“I don’t have either.”

“I hope this arrogant person will not regret it.”

All of these celestial daughters who have been promoted are the leaders of their respective sects, and they are naturally proud in their hearts.

In the face of Gong Qianqiu’s contempt, how can they bear it?

“Since both parties are willing, let’s start! Remember to stop.”

After the elder’s instructions, he announced that the Holy Maiden Trials would continue.

Gong Qianqiu leaped onto the ring and hooked his fingers at the other contestants, provocatively.

“We must join forces and spare no effort to bring her down.”

“That’s right, if there is a failure to keep our hands, then our face will be lost.”

“The key is not to let Gong Qianqiu get cheap and sell well.”

The thoughts of the women’s arrogance quickly reached an agreement, and they must not have any selfishness, and go all out to defeat Gong Qianqiu first.

The senior leaders of the Taixu Shenzong were also a little worried, and Yin Xuejian even felt that Gong Qianqiu was reckless.

If you are defeated, all the previous efforts will be in vain.

“superior!”

I don’t know who was the first to speak out, and all the female arrogances took action one after another.

For a while, the fists and palms and the swords and swords gathered together, as if the net of heaven and earth covered Xiang Gong Qianqiu.

Although some of these female geniuses consumed a lot in the previous competition, they all carried the reply pills with them.

Even if it can’t recover to its peak combat power, it can at least reach 70% to 80% of its peak strength.

Therefore, the coercion of energy released by them together is extremely terrifying.

“It’s nothing more than a joint attack!”

Gong Qianqiu’s face was relaxed, and he ran the swallowing technique, without the slightest evasion, and rushed directly to face the attack of everyone.

“Is Gong Qianqiu crazy? Even if her cultivation level is better, she may not be able to get benefits if she hits hard.”

“Yeah, the strength of several of them is not much different from hers.”

“Excellent cultivation seedlings, but this xinxing is too lack of enthusiasm.”

The elders watching the battle in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace were talking a lot, and they were not optimistic that Gong Qianqiu would have the last laugh.

However, the chief elder soon discovered the abnormality of the situation and said solemnly: "Look at the energy fluctuations of the joint attack, it seems that it is being absorbed!"

Everyone looked in the direction of the chief elder's finger.

Seeing that the sword qi seemed to be attracted by some powerful force, it quickly poured into the energy vortex formed by Gong Qianqiu himself.

"She actually devoured it during the battle?"

Thinking of this, the elders took a deep breath.

As we all know, absorbing the spiritual energy of heaven and earth generally requires absolute quietness.

But Gong Qianqiu's move obviously violated the normal cultivation rules. Isn't she afraid of going crazy?

Those saintess competitors won't hold back at all, even if they don't hurt their lives, as long as they interfere to the greatest extent, they can achieve their goals.

"Thank you for your gifts, but Qianqiu is disrespectful."

Gong Qianqiu's coquettish voice sounded, the extreme devouring technique suddenly started, and the joint attack energy of those beautiful girls was instantly purified and extracted.

Immediately entered Gong Qianqiu's body, although these energies did not significantly help her ability to improve, but they made the joint attack of the girls go to waste.

"how can that be?"

"She can actually devour energy in a battle?"

"Our practice methods are different, and some even belong to different furnaces of water and fire. Wouldn't she be afraid of going into the devil if she swallowed it directly?"

The eyes of the female Tianjiao were filled with incredible.

Gong Qianqiu said jokingly: "Continue to attack, you won't have only this level, right?"

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4100 -

The arrogance of the female protagonists was instantly enraged. They were all the focal figures who were admired by the stars in the door. When did they suffer such humiliation?

“Abandon her!”

I don't know who said a word, and the others also tried their best to perform the exercises.

If the alliance just now was just a tentative attack, then at this moment it was an all-out strike that left no room for anything.

Although the chief elder of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall said that it would not hurt their lives, but now the female arrogance can't care so much.

Even if Gong Qianqiu cannot be killed, she must be completely abolished.

This time, the energy of the joint attack of the female Tianjiao is several times stronger than before.

“It's nothing more than a full blow!”

Gong Qianqiu still did not retreat at all, and continued to choose to swallow hard.

Consecutively swallowing two dragon veins has made Gong Qianqiu produce 'antibodies' to ordinary energy, which can neither enhance strength nor cause harm to the body.

Moreover, Gong Qianqiu gradually realized another partial door, which can selectively absorb the engulfed energy.

There are two routes of phagocytosis absorption and phagocytosis resolution, so that the body's backlash burden can be reduced as much as possible.

Just like the battle in front of him, Gong Qianqiu chose the route of devouring and resolving, and only used a very small part of the pure power for his own use.

Since swallowing the power of the dragon veins, Gong Qianqiu has a very high vision for energy.

The energy released by these female arrogances, Gong Qianqiu really didn't really see it, after all, this kind of attack is different from the direct devouring of skill.

Immediately under the shocked gazes of the female Tianjiao, Gong Qianqiu easily defused their attack again.

The energy dissipated, as if the stone was sinking into the sea, and not even a splash of water was splashed.

Shock!

have no choice!

fear!

All kinds of emotions appeared in the hearts of the female geniuses, and they had completely lost the idea of confrontation at this moment.

“Come again!”

Gong Qianqiu said with a smile.

The female Tianjiao involuntarily took a few steps back, and the look of terror could no longer be concealed on their faces.

“If that’s the case, then it’s my turn to take action.”

Before the words fell, Gong Qianqiu’s figure had disappeared in place.

All the female Tianjiao lost their fighting spirit, and the two consecutive joint attacks were extremely exhausting, and they were powerless to fight back under Gong Qianqiu’s fierce attack.

They were knocked out of the arena one after another, but Gong Qianqiu obviously left room and did not seriously hurt the female Tianjiao.

This can also be regarded as a favor to be sold to many sects, which will help to pave the way for the development of confidant forces in the future.

In fact, the sect of the female Tianjiao did indeed receive this favor, and even gave more returns than Gong Qianqiu expected.

The many elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall were also shocked. They did not expect that Gong Qianqiu would win the victory with the overwhelming force.

“This time, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace has picked up a treasure!”

Many high-level officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall sighed in their hearts.

“Qianqiu of Taixu Shenzong Palace won and became the new saint of Sun Moon God Fire Palace.” The chief elder announced loudly.

Seeing the congratulations from everyone and the cheers of the core executives of Taixu Shenzong, Gong Qianqiu felt a strong sense of accomplishment in his heart.

“This sect master finally has a real place in this Kunlun Ruins. Even the Taixu Shenzong has to look up to this sect master.”

“Next, this sect master will make good use of the cultivation resources of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple to improve his strength.”

“As long as you reach the real superpower level, you can let the Seven Saints lead you into the Buried Dragon Valley to explore the super spiritual vein that is stronger than the dragon vein.”

“When the super spiritual vein is swallowed up, even a large sect like the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple will have to bow down at the feet of this sect master.”

Gong Qianqiu is full of pride and looks forward to the future.

At this moment, Gong Qianqiu seemed to see the scene of many sectarian forces that he once looked up to crouching and trembling under his feet.
