

CHAPTER 1320

The supreme king-sealing platform is guarded by hundreds of guards.

This is the symbol of Erudia!

It is the supreme glory!

The king-sealing platform, which has never been opened in this century, has finally opened!

After all, there are not a few real kings in the history of Erudia!

Especially the word side by side king!

“Today, the Erudia Fengwang platform opens! Canonization one word side by side king!”

“Please keep things!”

Soon, the three tokens were brought to the top of the king’s confinement platform.

The token is simple.

One ring.

One mask.

A long sword.

The ring is called Yanlong Ring, and a dragon head is vivid on the golden ring.

The mask is called Yanlong Mask, and the golden mask is in the shape of a dragon.

The long sword is called the Yanlong Sword, and there is a dragon shadow on the sword.

These three tokens have been kept in the treasury for hundreds of years...

Only the existence of the king can be worthy of it!

A token that has been in the dust for hundreds of years is finally born!

The three tokens are the symbol of the king side by side!

Seeing the token is like seeing the king side by side!

A token can mobilize thousands of troops!

Even the Yanlong Sword can be cut first and then played!

This is the king of the word side by side! ! !

When the three tokens came out, the audience was silent to the point where the needle dropped!

Everyone stared at the three tokens fiercely!

Ray only feels dry mouth and shortness of breath.

Who doesn't want to be the king?

He has a new goal instantly!

Must become a highly anticipated existence!

For the rest of your life, you must be crowned king!

The ceremony is being broadcast live, and the camera is swept over the three tokens one by one.

The people of Erudia are going crazy.

He kept three tokens in his mind.

This is the symbol of Erudia!

It belongs to everyone's glory!

Zoey pointed to the screen and taught by example: "When Levilia grows up, he will be a useful person to Erudia."

Soon, the camera shifted, and every guest of the ceremony fell on the viewing platform.

The camera flicked across their faces.

Zoey and Levia are looking for Levi Garrison.

It's a pity that the camera has passed everyone from start to finish, but only Levi Garrison can't be seen.

Zoey carefully confirmed that there is indeed no such thing.

She has an ugly face, and her mood is down.

Could it be that Levi Garrison doesn't even have the qualification to observe the ceremony now?

People who have achieved such glory can't even witness this kind of moment.

Really embarrassed.

I'm afraid that Levi Garrison is not far from the Conferring King Terrace at the moment, just look at it silently...

Thinking of the lonely figure and lost expression, Zoey felt distressed.

"There is no dad..."

Levilia's small face also had a smile.

Black's house.

"Haha, we've seen it, and it's been replayed once, but there is no Levi coming to watch the ceremony!"

"Haha, you are all deceived by Levi Garrison! What qualifications does he have to go to the ceremony?"

"Didn't I say that? Guanli is the most important weapon of the country, Levi Garrison is a handicapped knitting ceremony!"

...

Everyone laughed.

"Yeah, it's probably the kid who fooled them! It's a pity that he didn't expect to have a live broadcast. Every guest at the ceremony was in the camera!"

Meredith sneered.

"This kid is really unscrupulous in order to attract the attention of others. I can think of reasons such as watching the ceremony."

Robert was extremely disappointed with Levi Garrison.

“If he really appears on the viewing platform, it will not only be our shame, but also Erudia’s!

“Forget it, don’t talk about him, immediately the king appeared side by side! Let’s look at it!!!”

Everyone focused their attention on the screen again.

Immediately, the one who stood side by side with the king appeared...
