

CHAPTER 1332

I heard that the souvenir was real.

Meredith and Robert immediately got their ideas.

After all, this kind of thing can be met but not sought.

Something you can't buy for a billion!

If this kind of thing is not in their own hands, they can't sleep.

"Grandpa and grandma, do you need me to bring you things directly?"

Jennie asked.

"No, you don't have that ability. How can it be taken back from them?"

Meredith said.

Concubine Jennie also thinks about it.

Although I bullied them every time, I never took advantage of it once. ..

The souvenir, relying on her, will never get back.

“Let’s do this by ourselves! Seeing this thing makes my heart itch!”

Meredith and Robert can’t wait.

The two hurried to North Hampton from the provincial capital.

They bought a lot of children’s clothes, toys and snacks.

Although Levilia likes these things very much, he will only look at them eagerly and will never take a step forward.

This is the result of Zoey and Levi Garrison’s education.

Of course, Levilia has a certain grudge against the Black family.

They don’t usually get what they give.

“Zoey and Levilia are back? We bought something for Levilia! Levilia, come in my arms!”

Meredith also embraced Levilia enthusiastically.

Zoey and Levi Garrison were cold.

These two obviously came with a purpose.

Sure enough, Meredith asked: "I heard that LEvi brought back the souvenirs for the ceremony of the king, where is it?"

"Yes, is it true?"

Robert also echoed the Tao.

Levi Garrison and Zoey looked at each other.

Zoey still brought the souvenir.

Meredith hurriedly threw Levilia aside, picked up the souvenir and turned it over.

The same goes for Robert.

The eyes are shining.

It's the same as looking at beautiful women.

"It's true! It's true!"

Once the commemorative medal was started, the two of them couldn't calm down.

Exclaimed again and again!

While showing their enthusiasm, they also glanced at Zoey from time to time.

The two are suggesting that she...

Seeing the crazy appearance of the two, Zoey felt a little embarrassed.

When he was about to give the two a set, Levi Garrison pulled it.

Zoey could only hold back and let the two of them suggest.

Finally, Meredith couldn't help it, and asked, "Levilia, how many sets of souvenirs did you bring with you this time?"

"Three sets, one set for my mother, wife and daughter!"

Levi Garrison answered.

"Oh, Levilia also has it? What does such a small child know?"

"How about this? Give me Levilia's set! How about me, I will customize some children's souvenirs for Levilia. How about?"

Meredith asked expectantly.

"what?"

The three of Levi Garrison were stunned.

Is there such a shameless one?

Do you want to be straightforward?

Robert even looked at Emma and smiled: "My family, you as a woman don't have any collection value with this souvenir! What do you like, I will change it with you? We have many collections!"

Robert also expressed his thoughts.

"Yes, and Zoey too! A young girl, what's the use of collecting? The value of this souvenir should be reflected in our hands!"

"Wrong! Only retired fighters like grandparents can know the value of this kind of souvenir! Put this thing in them to shine!"

"You can only waste it in your hands, you are all used as toys by Levilia!"

"So you guys let the souvenirs out!"
