

CHAPTER 1339

The next day.

Zoey hugged Levilia and followed his parents to the house of Lopez's ancestors.

Several people feel that today's atmosphere is a bit wrong.

But it can't be said specifically.

"Aaron, Zoey, today, you will see a person who is thinking about it all day and night! Surprise, it's so amazing!"

Harry said excitedly when he saw the two of them.

"What?"

This made Aaron and Zoey stunned.

Who makes them think about it?

As far as the Banks family is concerned, there is only one person-Zoey's grandma.

"Is it a mother?" mi. c

Aaron asked excitedly.

Unlike Harry, grandma loves Zoey very much.

Among these children and grandchildren, the one she loves most is Zoey.

Of her sons, Aaron is the one she loves most.

Because Aaron is honest, not as clever as the others.

But when Zoey was ten years old, the old lady disappeared.

The Black's family searched for a long time, but couldn't find it.

It was agreed that she was missing.

Until more than ten years passed, no one appeared again.

Even Levi Garrison didn't even know that such a person existed.

He still wondered why Harry had a wife...

"Grandma is back?"

Zoey's deepest memory of Lopez's childhood is his grandmother.

Because it's so good to her.

If grandma were there, the Lopez family's oppression of their room would never happen.

"Father, where are you? Take us quickly!"

Aaron was already impatient.

Harry hurriedly brought a few people into the hall.

There are many people in the hall.

There was an old lady in the upper seat, dressed in jewels and silk.

There is a strong momentum on his body.

Although his face was not old, Zoey recognized at a glance that it was his grandmother.

"Grandma (mother)!"

Aaron and Zoey immediately pounced on them.

"My Zoey, my Zoey, and my daughter-in-law..."

The old lady embraced several people in her arms.

Several people hugged and wept.

After crying, the old lady hugged Levilia in her arms and looked up and down: "Is this your child? He looks really like you, a beauty!"

"Grandma, where have you been during this time? It has been nearly twenty years since you disappeared! I thought you..."

Zoey choked.

"Yes, mom, I miss you so much!"

Aaron is just like a kid.

The old lady smiled and said, "Let your grandfather talk about it!"

Harry looked excited: "Zoey, your grandma really scared me, her background is too big!"

"what?"

Zoey were all taken aback.

"Some time ago, after I got to know the Garrison family of the First Family, Oakland City, I thought it was the strongest family I could know in my life. I don't know that there are hidden influences such as clansmen on it!"

“Your grandmother is from the four gates of the West Shu gate! She has not disappeared in these years, but returned to the West Shu gate!”

...

“The most important thing is that your grandma has the highest status in the gate of Xishu!”

Harry smiled.

It turns out that Zoey’s grandmother is the clique of power that has been active in North Hampton recently.

After listening to Harry’s detailed introduction, Zoey and the others were shocked.

It turns out that grandma’s background is all over the sky!

Even the first family in the capital is nothing.

The old lady touched Zoey’s head and smiled: “Zoey, don’t worry, no one can bully you with grandma in the future! You are the princess of the clan of Xishu, especially Levilia!”

Aaron and Caitlyn cried with joy.

With the appearance of the old ladies, their identities have risen.
