

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1813

According to Tiance Mansion's explanation, Levi Garrison got the inheritance of that demon.

As soon as his exercises and so on were displayed, the Baolong clan and those crooked ways were immediately recognized.

Because I saw the shadow of the big demon from him.

Before, these monsters of the North Demon were the same as ants.

The demon that even the Baolong clan and Tiance Mansion were afraid of was the real demon.

So Messiahi wants to know what is sacred?

"That was the ultimate killer god who used to be the number one in the summer of the summer-the evil god of fire cloud!" The people in Tiance Mansion took a cold breath.

Obviously this Fire Cloud Evil God brought them a great and great threat.

"Where is the Fire Cloud Cthulhu now?"

Messiah asked someone immediately.

“No one knows where he went, not even the Tianji Pavilion, who has always known everything in the world!”

Huang Hu said coldly: “It seems that Huoyun Cthulhu is still alive! And he passed it on to Levi Garrison! This pair The martial arts world is still Erudia, and it will be an unprecedented disaster!”

“Yes, yes, since ancient times, good and evil have never been balanced. Even if Levi Garrison has made much contribution to Erudia before! But he is the inheritor of the evil god after all. , If he breaks out that day, who can stop it?”

“That’s right, and once his children are cultivated, they may become the devil!”

However, Messiahi still believed in Levi Garrison.

“I still believe in one word side by side! No matter when, you should believe that man!”

“Yes, no matter how evil his practice is, his heart is always right !” “Yes, we always believe in one. The word side by side king!”

.....

Hearing that everyone in Messiah trusted Levi Garrison so unanimously, the people in Tiance Mansion were shocked.

None of them expected that Levi Garrison had such a high prestige in everyone’s hearts.

When the evidence is conclusive, I still believe so.

This makes them very angry.

“Okay, don’t worry about this matter!”

“Yes, you were not qualified to intervene in the first place!”

“Listen well, this matter must be kept secret, especially Levi Garrison can’t be told!”

Tiance Mansion decided that they would handle the matter themselves.

What Levi Garrison didn’t know was that Tiance Mansion and Baolong had already been eyeing him at this moment.

In the end, the plan given by Tiance Mansion was to observe Levi Garrison's movements first and see his next move.

Secondly, the Levilia should be admitted to Tiance Mansion, and Tiance Mansion will be specially trained, so that she will not grow up to become a demon.

Soon a few days passed.

"What's the matter? A few days ago, I came to look for Levilia one by one, why is there no one now?"

"Yeah, logically speaking, Levilia shouldn't be more power looking for this kind of talent. Come here?"

... The

Lopez and Black family are puzzled.

Since the reception ceremony, there has been no news.

It seems that Levilia's enthusiasm is gone all at once.

No one came to look for her anymore.

Everyone forgot about her.

Only Levi Garrison was most satisfied.

The situation is the best now, no one will bother Levilia and dare to accept her as a disciple.

It seems that the deterrence of his apprenticeship ceremony is still effective.

After all, Levi Garrison defeated thirteen Seventh Heavenly Powers.

Even if other people heard a little wind, they would no longer dare to accept the monarch as a disciple.

But Levi Garrison didn't expect something happened.

Those people are all dead.

The reason why no one dared to accept disciples was because of the forced suppression of the Tiance

Mansion and the Baolong clan.

There is no other reason.

Somewhere in Erudia.

A group of people gathered in secret.

“In the battle of Baiyun Villa, we have destroyed the power of Erudia martial arts to a great extent!
Next,

we will have another big wave!” The leader sneered.

“Should I still use Levi Garrison’s hands?”

someone asked.

“Of course! With the help of Levi Garrison, we can complete our mission!”
