

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2563

Zoey Lopez asked immediately.

“I didn’t see who it was!”

“We didn’t meet anyone when we first came here, and we saw that you are already awake!”

Everyone shook their heads.

On the other side.

The imprisoned Azure Dragon (Qinglong) was still crying bitterly.

He blamed himself that he killed everyone.

At this time, Levi Garrison came.

“What are you crying for?”

Levi Garrison shouted.

“Boss, I killed them. I didn’t believe you and didn’t have the first time to verify... They are all dead...”

Azure Dragon (Qinglong) cried even harder.

“Dead shit! They are all alive!”

Levi Garrison let them out while cursing.

“Ah? Still alive?”

Azure Dragon (Qinglong) looked incredible.

“Yes, they are still alive! I saved them!”

Levi Garrison said.

“Boss, you... did you really save them?”

Azure Dragon (Qinglong) had a trace of suspicion.

Wen Lei hurriedly said, “He can know the problems and defects of the exercise method, how can it be cured?”

“This is also...”

Levi Garrison suddenly became mysterious in Azure Dragon (Qinglong)’s eyes.

At this time, Zoey Lopez and his party returned.

“You really saved us??”

Zoey Lopez and others asked.

Levi Garrison suddenly rose up in their eyes.

Don't say anything else.

Just encountering everything about this exercise in advance is enough!

Everyone looked at Levi Garrison.

The eyes are full of worship.

“Well, it's the Dark God to be exact! He saved you!”

Levi Garrison prevented the spies from the Gods' Laboratory in secret, and could not directly admit that he did it.

But he is also a dark god.

It was the Dark God who saved them.

There is nothing wrong with it!

“It's Master! As expected, only Master has this strength!”

Zoey Lopez almost cried with excitement.

Everyone was also shocked...

deserving of the dark god on the list of gods!

Saved them in an instant.

It's amazing and terrifying!

"I told you to give up a long time ago, and you will die one by one! Don't hit the south wall or give up?"

Levi Garrison looked at them speechlessly.

"Furthermore, the results of the Azure Dragon (Qinglong) experiment have come out. Don't look at them one by one?"

Facing Levi Garrison's accusation, everyone bowed their heads.

Azure Dragon (Qinglong) stepped forward to make the siege, "Boss, don't blame them. They have reached the peak of their exercises, and they will inevitably enter a state of madness! It's normal to ignore me!"

"If it were me, I would not want anyone else." Bother me at a critical moment!"

Hearing this, Xiao Feng took the initiative to apologize to Azure Dragon (Qinglong).

Said that he was anxious at the time and said something irrational.

“It’s okay, as long as you are okay!”

Azure Dragon (Qinglong) said quickly.

At this time, Zoey Lopez looked at Levi Garrison and asked, “By the way, how did you know that there was a problem with these exercises from the beginning?” Everyone came over as soon as he came out.
