

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2598

“I hope you will be more down-to-earth! The current form of the gods list is really exciting, especially for you! How to deceive everyone in this way!”

“But you have never thought about it! In case Chen Kong was not blown up that day, then he will blow you up! You will die! You are lucky, but are you a little wrong?”

“I still have Levilia, and my parents, how worried should they be?”

Zoey Lopez said from another angle.

“We can understand the mood of the boss! He is the top of the world in the past! He is also anxious for a while and wants to climb to the top soon! Only when he did such an extreme thing! He will fight against Chen Kong...”

Azure Dragon (Qinglong) couldn't help saying.

Levi Garrison glared at him: “You understand what a fart!”

“Snapped!”

“哧!”

“boom!”

...

At this moment, suddenly the glass of the villa was bombarded, and pieces began to shatter.

Even rotten eggs were thrown in.

The huge movement continued, and even the walls were hit hard.

Like to collapse at any time.

It turned out that the crowd outside was not too popular, and they began to smash things at Levi Garrison's villa.

Now the outside yard was in a mess and smelly.

The shouting and cursing are also continuous...

What's more, come to splash dung water...

Everyone was furious.

Li Wenhai was even more miserable and was thrown directly into the toilet.

“You're looking for death, right? I will fulfill you!”

At this moment, Levi Garrison no longer thought about the Lab of the Gods anymore.

I just want this group of people to pay a painful price!!!

“boom!!!”

Levi Garrison came to the world like a god of death.

Everyone in the villa was shocked.

Looking at Levi Garrison in a daze!

The aura on him is terrible!

There is a posture of looking at the world before!

“What are you going to do?”

Zoey Lopez asked.

“Of course it is to solve these people outside!”

Levi Garrison said coldly.

“Are you crazy? We can't hide these people in time! Do you still want to provoke?”

“They are all angry now! Once you go out, all of us will suffer and we can't stop them!”

Zoey Lopez grabbed Levi Garrison tightly and prevented him from taking a step.

“Levi Garrison, sit down for you! Even if I am the father-in-law!”

“Today this must be endured!!!”

Li Wenyuan was furious.

“Oh SH*t!”

Levi Garrison cursed.

He has no idea now.

As long as he goes out, everyone will stop him!

Useless!

Aggrieved!

Whoever of you can go and take a look behind the stele?

And the Lab of the Gods still can't come out?

After “venting” enough, the outsiders left one by one.

Levi Garrison’s villa completely turned into a mess.

Even the courtyard walls need to be renovated...

“I have written down today’s grudges, and I, Levi Garrison, will not take revenge overnight!”

Levi Garrison said coldly.

“How about you jot it down? There are many of them who are strong in the gods. Can you still find someone to avenge?”

Everyone takes it seriously.
